A marriage license was issued yesterday to Mr. Geo. Mann and Miss Hattie Halvor, of this city.

All United Artisans should arrange to attend assembly this (Wednesday) evening. A good time assured, as this is the regular social evening. No work. Eat, drink and be merry.

T. A. Van Norden is now prepared to fit your eyes. He keeps the best quality of glasses and frames on hand. Prescriptions accurately filled on short notice. No fancy prices.

Do not fail to attend the temperance meeting at the Christian church tonight. Rev. Walton Skipworth will deliver the address. A most cordial invitation to everybody. No collection; no admission fee.

Remember the "picture social" at the M. E. church Friday evening. Do not forget the bill of fare—pumpkin pie and a nice program, all for ten cents and two pairs of old rubbers, or 15 cents will entitle you to everything.

The 6-months-old child of Clint Hall, of this city, died this morning of diphtheria. The little one has been ill several days, and although everything that medical science could suggest was done it was all to no avail. The funeral was held this afternoon.

Yesterday the little steamer Tahoma took the place of the Bailey Gatzert on the Dalles-Portland run, and during the winter will be used in place of the larger vessel, which will be put on between Portland and Astoria. Although small, the Tahoma is a speedy craft, but will have to get a move on her to compete with the old favorites, the Regulator and Dalles City.

The 5-months-old child of John Miller died at the residence of A. M. Allen on East Third street, at 9 o'clock today. The little one had been sick for several months and the end was not unexpected. The funeral will take place from the Allen home at 2 p. m. tomorrow. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Don't for a moment imagine that because you have not been reminded of the new year edition for several days it is not very much in evidence just the same. Most of our wide awake citizens are aware of the fact because they are personally interested; others will be, for not to be known through its columns means, virtually, not to be known at all.

The case of the State vs. Jack Bartmes is being tried today. This is a case of assault with a dangerous weapon which was committed several days ago on B. W. Matthews, the section boss at Wyeth. Matthews claims that the defendant, struck him on the head with a shot sack filled with rocks. Atty. John Gavin appears for the defendant, while Prosecuting Attorney Menefee appears for the state.

According to instructions from the city fathers, through Marshal Champlin, Mr. Lord has repaired the sidewalk in front of the burned livery barn in the East End in an excellent shape. While he, like many other good citizens, may not notice needed repairs on his property, still when his attention is called to the same it is a sure shot that he will have the same attended to properly without a whimper or any regard for the cost.

The result of the investigation of the collision between the steamer Regulator and the Bailey Gatzert, which occurred at Lyle a couple of weeks ago, resulted in the full vindication of Captain Johnston, of the Regulator. It will be remembered that the Gatzert ran into the Regulator and the investigation was held in order to decide which of the two captains was to blame. By the decision the cost of the damages falls on the White Collar line.

The Crystal bath-house at Long Beach, destroyed by fire Monday morning at 3 o'clock, was owned by William Ferrell and Frank Canaris, and was constructed a year ago at a cost of $6000. A dwelling adjoining, owned by Mr. Canaris, was also burned to the ground. There is probably no one who has spent a summer vacation at Long Beach who has not enjoyed a plunge in this popular bath-house, and if it is not rebuilt it will be sorely missed by many of the summer visitors at the beach who prefer this to surf bathing.

The home of Postmaster Patterson was quarantined today, as the servant girl, Miss Inga Wilson, has an attack of diphtheria. Mr. Patterson and his daughter, Miss Prudence, were not at home at the time the quarantine was placed on the house and of course will not be allowed to return until the quarantine is raised. There is one good feature connected with their not being there, and that is the fact that they will not be kept away from the postoffice, which might have interfered greatly with the delivery of mail.

The first entertainment of the season in the Star Lecture Course for Oregon will be given on Saturday evening of this week. It will be remembered that J. Waggoner, of Independence, was here soliciting patronage a short time since. Enough names were secured to meet the necessary expense and the matter was turned over to the public schools. If there is a surplus it will be used to replenish the school library. There is nowhere that an amount of money could be used to greater advantage than in furnishing reading matter for the young people.

The trial of Ike Moore, who was charged with the larceny of $80 worth of brass journals from the O. R. & N. Co. in this city, was concluded in the circuit court yesterday, and after several hours deliberation the jury brought in a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment. The principal witnesses in the case were Matthews, the jack man, to whom the brass was sold, Chas. Payette, in whose building the stolen goods was stored, and Tom Driver, who arrested Moore for the robbery. He has not yet been sentenced and it is not known as yet whether any motion for a new trial will be made.

Four hundred and fifty thousand dollars have come into the hands of Umatilla county farmers since the wheat movement began Thursday last. The effect on trade in Umatilla towns, especially Pendleton, was almost instantaneous and merchants of Pendleton, Athens and Weston are happy. Forty-five and one-half cents for wheat throughout all Umatilla county is equal to 46½ and 47 c. b. This makes the local quotations higher than they have been made at Walla Walla, freight rates to Portland and the Sound being equal from both places. It leaves a fair margin of profit for Umatilla farmers who already were in good shape.

A meeting of the directors of The Dalles Commercial club was held last evening for the purpose of considering the advisability of holding a monthly sale fair in The Dalles. Before going ahead with the enterprise the directors consider it necessary to consult the merchants regarding the matter and are doing so today. A diversity of opinion prevails and it is doubtful as yet what will be done. Some are of the opinion that the fair should be held weekly, others think that the first suggestion to hold the same on the first Monday of each month is the best plan, while a few are of the opinion that it would be wise to put the matter off until spring, believing that to be the best time to introduce the same. It is more than likely that a decision will be reached by tomorrow and it is to be hoped that the efforts of the promoters will be successful.

On a fast field and with 5000 persons witnessing the exhibition, Whitman college yesterday defeated the University of Oregon by a score of 6 to 0. Nothing but the fact that a Whitman runner collided with the goal post just as the whistle of the referee blew time at the conclusion of the contest prevented the score being 11 to 6, as the ball was just crossing the goal line when the accident prevented the score. Captain Hauerbach, of the Whitman team, suffered an injury to his knee—the cap thereof being wrenched—and will be out of the game for the remainder of the season. Oregon's superior kicking tactics prevented the score running higher.

Guy F. Stealy's latest comedy, "Hunting for Hawkins," will be the attraction at the Vogt tomorrow (Thursday) night, and is one of the most emphatic laughing successes of the present season. It has been accorded unstinted praise by critics everywhere, and is said to be entirely original, thoroughly entertaining and enjoyable. Columns have been devoted to highly complimentary mention of the cleverness of its construction and the spontaneous humor of the dialogue, as well as to the general excellence of the entire company presenting the play. Some of the citizens of the Dalles have alluded to this play at Cordray's in Portland and pronounce it to be one of the finest they have ever seen.
