Mrs. H. Spalding, of Almota, Wash., returned to her home a few days since. She had been visiting Dalles and Hood River friends.

Mrs. Will Sharp, who has been confined in The Dalles Hospital for the past three weeks, was well enough to return to her home yesterday.

"Maloney's Wedding Day."

Every lover of good wholesome amusement ought to know that "Maloney's Wedding" will be at the Vogt on Saturday, the 16th inst. This is pronounced the brightest of the comedy successes of this season, and brings with it a veritable epidemic of comedy, romp, song and surprises. It is everywhere a welcomed visitor, and is said to contain more dramatic good things than anything ever attempted in this line of play-writing.

The cast has the merit of capability and includes such clever people as James L. McCabe, who assumes the part of funny Dan Maloney, the victim of many humorous matrimonial complications, and Rose Bradburn, who plays the part of the captivating Widow Clancy. The plot and story is intensely entertaining, the situations and climaxes uproariously amusing. This will be the first and last presentation of this matchless production here this season. Sale of seats at Clarke & Falk's Postoffice Pharmacy.

Mrs. Carey will move her millinery store on or before Nov. 20th to the new building east of Sexton & Walther, where she will be pleased to meet all her old patrons, as well as new ones. n5-1w
