"A prominent Portland man was down today and said that Joe Simon's goose was cooked. H. W. Scott has gone in with Mitchell to put up an anti-Simon ticket in Multnomah and that means death to 'Little Joe.' H. W. Corbett 18 now sgainst him and Henry McGinn is pulling with Scott. This is the Simon backbone of Mitchell's friends were gathering at his headquarters. Mitchell was late. Finally be came just after Scott had arrived. Mitchell went of with Scott and left all the rest of them until they slipped off. The correspondent of the Salem Journal tells the rest. He says: 'The late arrival who took so much valuable time was Harvey Scott, and it is closer than brothers and would work her. together in perfect harmony in case of an emergency. If they should be called upon to sit together in the and their hearts would beat as one for the dear people of Oregon.' "

Agitation has begun in some parts of the state for a law prohibiting the pasturing within certain limits of residences, herds of sheep or other stock, says the Baker City Republican. Farmers without stock favor the measure because transient herds often locate within a short distance of their homes and eat away the It is as easy for transient herds to seek other pastures, but impossible for the farmer to drive his stock daily the distance of several miles. a packed house will greet them on this furniture store, to satisfy a chattel mort-gage of $2869.48, with interest from the The law, should it be enacted and trip. was legal, would doubtless have the unanimous support of farmers and the united opposition of stockmen.

I have gotten away beyond that; I am trying to make the best terms with the sex that I can obtain." This recalls the saying of William M. Evarts when asked by a lady if he did not think that woman was the best judge of woman. He replied : "Not only the best judge, madam, but the best executioneer."

President Roosevelt does not believe a young man who will jilt a girl is fit to serve as an officer of the United States army. Because the records showed that William P. Crawford had committed this offense, the president refused to appoint him a second heutenant in the regular army, although he had served with distinction as a captain of volunteers.

Mr. W. W. Whipple says that on his recent visit to Portland he was surprised at the strong sentiment there in favor of Senator Fulton to succeed Senator Simon. The leading republicans there think Senator Fulton would be a shining light in the senate. Senator Mitchell is understood to be talking for his election .- Astoria News.

"Never worry about us," says a Missouri editor. "Our favorite dominick hen has been sitting all summer on a couple of pieces of brick and three buresu knobs. When she comes off after awhile with a threestory brick house and two cars of handsome bureaus, we are going into the furniture business."

President Roosevelt not only pledges the Lewis and Clark exposition his hearty support but, to further show his good will, he has promised to visit this coast next summer and break ground for the exposition.
