WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Don't forget the dance tonight at the Baldwin.

The scouring mills will start on about a month's run next Monday.

Here is something new under the sun. An Ashland laundry washes clothes by the pound, charging 5 cents a pound for family washings.

Sweets to the sweet, or even to the sour, will be sold by the young lady friends of the M. E. church next Wednesday at Menelee & Parkins'.

Ladies wanted to work on sofa pillows. Materials furnished. Steady work guaranteed, experience unnecessary. Send stamped envelope to Miss McGee Needlework Dept., Ideal Co., Chicago.

The editor is indebted to the kindness of Mrs. J. M. Benson, of Five Mile, for the present of a big jar of preserved peaches that look so deliciously tempting that one feels like saying they are too good to eat.

George Woodruff, of Wapinitia, yesterday delivered to the Columbia Packing Company the last of 97 head of fat hogs brought to town during the week. The price was not given out but it is understood to be better than 5 cents, gross weight.

It is reliably stated that a tray of diamonds stolen from the Hotel Portland a few nights ago has been found. The discovery is said to have been made in a deck of cards. This little joke is just now being sprung by the dear girls, evidently with much relish.

The executive committee of the late fair and carnival have at last straightened out the finances of the fair, and find there is a balance on the right side of the ledger of something between $800 and $900. They have, therefore, decided to declare a nine per cent dividend in favor of subscribers.

A little miss of 5, living in Washington, compared with her brother, aged 4, relates Victor Smith, to save enough pennies to buy papa and mamma presents. A friend of the family noticed that mamma's present was much finer and more expensive than papa's, and was impelled by curiosity to inquire why the bulk of the savings had been expended for the mother. The little miss replied: "Well, you see, papa is only related to we children by marriage, while mamma is our relative by birth."

King Edward laughs heartily over the reports about his falling health, and has proved the falsity of them by exposing himself recklessly in the hunting field and by shooting hour after hour in the wind and rain. Those recently with him assert that he has no throat ailment whatever.

John N. Eiden has entered suit in the circuit court for a divorce from his wife, Caroline Eiden. He alleges numerous instances of her infidelity and asks for the custody of his two children, aged 12 and 9 years. The couple were married in Portland, Oregon, in 1895, and have since lived in the vicinity of Cascade Locks.

Yesterday afternoon Marshal Champlin arrested a man who gave his name as Ellenberg and booked him on a charge of drunk and disorderly. This morning Recorder Doherty fined him $5, which the fellow refused to pay, although he had $26.25 on his person. He preferred to work out his fine at $2 a day and pay for his own meals.

Christian M. Donovan, by his attorneys, Bennett & Simons, has commenced an action in the circuit court asking for a divorce from his wife, Edith M. Donovan, on the ground of desertion. The couple were married in this county July 6, 1898. Donovan alleges that in January 1900 his wife left him and still insists on living apart.

Another case of diphtheria was reported to Health Officer Van Anda yesterday. It is that of the little daughter of W. A. Kirby. Against this the quarantine was raised this morning from the house of Mrs. Davis, near the head of the brewery grade. More than half the remaining cases are convalescent, and only await the quarantine limit.

For a great many years every time a U. S. senator is elected in Oregon Mr. H. W. Scott, of the Oregonian, is prominently mentioned for the position, but when the voting comes on his name is never presented. This is now occurring again. Mr. Scott is not a candidate except in the brains of a few editors, and the chances are will not be mentioned when the legislature meets next time.

The local tent of Maccabees gave a banquet last night following the initiation of five candidates. State Commander Sherwood, of Portland, and two of his deputies, who are here soliciting membership, were present. The local tent has taken on new life recently, and is at present in a very prosperous condition. The brethren are making a strong effort to have 100 new members within the next few weeks.

Another new case of diphtheria was reported this morning. It is that of a 10-year-old girl of a family named Jacobson, whose home is somewhere near the old garrison. This afternoon still another new case is reported in the Murch family, who are already under quarantine. This makes exactly twenty cases under quarantine this afternoon. The health officer reports that none of the cases appear to be serious.

Frank Reed, who was taken to the state penitentiary the other day to serve a year for assault with a dangerous weapon, claimed to the deputy sheriff who took him below that he was a nephew of Thomas B. Reed, ex-congressman from Maline. Reed has a good education and is about 24 years of age. Whatever truth there may be in his claim of nephewship, it is beyond question that he is a confirmed bobo.

Rev. Irl R. Hicks is Not Dead.

Notwithstanding a widely current rumor that the Rev. Irl R. Hicks was dead, he never was in better health, and never did a harder and more successful year's work than that just closing. He has just completed his large and splendid almanac for 1902 and, with his staff of able helpers, has brought his journal, Word and Works, justly forward into international reputation. For a quarter of a century Mr. Hicks has grown in reputation and usefulness as the people's astronomer, and forecaster of storms and the character of coming seasons. Never were his weather forecasts so sought after as now, his timely warning of a serious drought this year having saved the people from loss and suffering. Millions of bushels of wheat were harvested through his advice to plant crops that would mature early. The American people will certainly stand by Prof. Hicks, when it costs them so little and the benefits are so great. His fine almanac of 200 pages is only 25 cents, and his splendid family journal is only $1 a year, including the almanac. Send to Word and Works Pub. Co., 2201 Locust street, St. Louis, Mo.

Who, the Monster.

According to Mrs. Corinne Brown, of Chicago, a movement is on foot to call a convention of all-determined women who will be willing to form a "Rebellion Club" and take up arms against man, the monster. Says she:

"It is time that women proclaimed to the world that they have lost patience with the tyranny and baseness of the stronger sex. For such slaves and serfs as we women are there is only one way in which our complete freedom and emancipation can be won. That way is rebellion. A league of women rebels should be formed. The men would soon subside. They cannot get along without us."

That is true, dear; that is very true. As the old humorist put it, it is all we can do to get along with you, but we most certainly cannot get along without you.

But, Corinne, scushia machree, what is agitating the women? Have they not the best of everything now? Does not the tyrant man have to pinch and scrape to keep them in sealskins? Do they not run the house to suit themselves? Do they not conduct the politics of this country, from electing Charles F. Johnson as city treasurer to running Admiral Dewey for the presidency? Is not the whole machinery of government stopped if woman wants to fix her hat or arrange her garter? Does not all earth bow before her, and is she not supreme in heaven?

Pance, Corinne mavoutneen, before you go too far, or—as the late lamented John J. Ingalls used to say—woman, once our superior, will yet become our equal.—Soc. Bee.
