WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

The finest Thanksgiving turkeys in town are at the Columbia Commission House. n25-2t

The sale of remnants is still on at Pease & Mays. There are still some surprising values left.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Frank E. Freidley and Grace E. Cook, both of this county.

Christmas sale of millinery at the Campbell & Wilson millinery palace. One-third off regular price of entire stock. Sale will continue until first of January. 25a-1f

Tom Robinson has put on a stage between Dufur and The Dalles, and makes daily trips, except Sundays, leaving Dufur in the morning and returning in the afternoon.

It will be a satisfaction to know that your cooking for Thanksgiving will be made light by the ladies who will furnish you anything in that line if you call at J. H. Cross' store Wednesday.

Theo. H. Liebe, the East End jeweler, will give a gold watch free to the person guessing the number of stones in a jar on exhibition in his display window. A guess free with each 25-cent purchase. n25-3t

There will be an oratorical contest given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church at some date, not definitely fixed, but probably between Christmas and New Year.

Nellie Van Pelt, a Collio Indian woman and wife of William Van Pelt, a half-breed, today brought out a complaint before Justice Brownhill charging William Allison, an employe at the Collio fishery, with criminal assault.

Parties having copies of the new National Anthem, which appeared in yesterday Oregonian, which they do not desire to preserve, will confer a favor by handing them to Mrs. E. M. Wilson, or leaving them for her at this office.

D. F. Thompson, one of Oregon's prominent citizens, is lying very low with a critical illness, in his apartments at the Hobart-Curtis, in Portland. For several months he has been in poor health and, during recent weeks, has not left his room. His ailment is an anæmic condition of the blood, caused by stomach trouble. Little hope is entertained for his recovery, although he is receiving the best medical treatment that can be secured.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed in the United States circuit court at Portland by Wesley E. Sherrill, a merchant of Hood River. His liabilities are represented as $8706.44, and assets $10,105.05. He claims as exempt property amounting to $2130.

Mt. Hood camp No. 59, Woodmen of the world, will give one of their famous stag socials on Tuesday evening, Nov. 26th. Refreshments will be served. All neighbors and visiting neighbors are cordially invited. It goes without saying a good time will be had.

According to a dispatch in yesterday's Oregonian the Baker City Republican, Edward Everett Young editor, declared in an editorial last Saturday that it is opposed to the nomination of Representative Moody for re-election. In a column editorial it states that it will support Hon. J. N. Williamson, of Prineville, for Mr. Moody's place.

We have no five-dollar diploma, nor do we use technical terms that no one can understand, yet from many years experience we can fit your eyes, whether near-sighted, far-sighted or cataract. We can cite you to several instances where we have fitted eyes where so-called professional opticians have failed. We can save you from 50 to 100 per cent on spectacles, eye glasses, etc. F. A. Van Norden. 25n-1f

State Superintendent Ackerman has addressed a circular letter to county superintendents advising them that owing to the Portland and other schools being in session on the dates he had planned to hold the State Teachers' Association, namely, January 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th, and there being no other time which seems to be acceptable to all concerned, the executive committee has decided to hold the meeting during the latter part of June, probably the 23d, 24th and 25th. The exact date, however, will be decided upon later.

The bowling on the alleys of The Dalles commercial club seems to have taken a new lease of life. On Saturday evening Victor Schmidt broke the club record by bowling 81 points. The former record was held by Mr. Bonn, who made 80 a few years ago. We also understand that the members would like to see more ladies in attendance on Tuesday evenings. The young men are preparing for a match game with the married members on Thanksgiving evening and would like a little encouragement from their lady friends. And by the way, there is a champagne supper at stake.

The young ladies of The Dalles will give a Thanksgiving party at the Baldwin opera house Thursday night, for the benefit of The Dalles football team. The Bigfield orchestra of twelve pieces will furnish the music. The young ladies will do everything in their power to make this the social event of the season. The patronesses of the party are: Mrs. Geo. C. Blakely, Mrs. W. H. Moody, Mrs. E. C. McCoy, Mrs. J. M. Russell, Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mrs. E. M. Williams, Mrs. J. S. Fish and Mrs. T. J. Seibert. The price of tickets is placed at 75 cents for gentlemen and 25 cents for ladies.

Health Officer VanAnde reports a new case of diphtheria this morning; that of a 12-year-old boy. The quarantine was raised yesterday from the houses of Mrs. Davis, of Fourth street, and Mr. Walther, of Fulton street. This leaves nineteen cases, the majority of whom are practically well and only await the time limit of the quarantine. Since the above was written two new cases have been reported in the Fred Cramer family, near Tackman's addition, and the prospect of a third by tomorrow. Health Officer Van Ande this afternoon raised the quarantine from the residences of Messrs. Periman and Hall.

The story of how the mistletoe gets on the trees is a most interesting one. Covering the mistletoe twigs are pearly white berries. These come in the winter season, when food is comparatively scarce, and hence some of our birds eat them freely. Now when a robin eats a cherry he swallows simply the meat and flips the stone away. The seed of the mistletoe the bird cannot flip. It is sticky and holds to his bill. His only resource is to wipe it off, and he does so, leaving it sticking to the branches of the tree on which he is sitting at the time. This seed sprouts after a time, and not finding earth—which indeed its ancestral habit has made it cease wanting—it sinks its roots into the bark of the tree and hunts there for the pipes that carry the sap. Now the sap in the bark is the very richest in the tree, far richer than that in the wood, and the mistletoe gets from its host the choicest of food. With a strange foresight it does not throw its leaves away, as do most parasites, but keeps them them to use in winter, when the tree is leafless.—Professor S. C. Schumucker, in the December Ladies' Home Journal.

H. D. Parkins, of Parkins & Menzies, in order to go to Portland on the early train yesterday morning, asked the central telephone office the night before to ring him up at his home in the old Dunham residence. Following the ringing of the bell a creaking noise of human feet was heard on the stairway passing down to the kitchen, and then the farther noise of the scratching of a match as the person reached the foot of the stairs and passed out through the open kitchen door. It was soon ascertained that the intruder had gained entrance to the dwelling by the kitchen door, had made his way up stairs and was cooking what he might desire to carry off at the bell ring and scolded the members of the family. Nothing, however, was found missing, and it is evident the bell rang just in time. On the principle that trouble never comes alone, somebody entered the Parkins stable about 8 o'clock last night and stole a 3 year-old colt. The animal was heard of today out on Three Mile and the indications are that the larcenist "borrowed" the animal to carry him four or five miles into the country.

Donations Asked for a Worthy Cause.

Superintendent Gilbert has received a letter from W. T. Gardner, superintendent of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, which he is having printed in the form of a circular and sent to the several townships of Wasco county's public schools. The letter, which is as follows, explains itself: "Another year having rolled along, I beg to ask your kind assistance again towards obtaining for us donations this Thanksgiving from the pupils of your schools. Wasco is the best county in the state outside Multnomah to assist us in this manner, and last year the donation was so good that I feel it incumbent on me to have an agent there to collect the gifts from the schools and others and have them properly packed and forwarded at once. I intend to ask Judge Blakely for the use of the court room for this purpose and should he grant this request we will have everything in order and will be pleased to attend to everyone who is anxious to assist us."

Mr. Gilbert asks the co-operation of the teachers in securing donations to this worthy cause, and instructs as to how they shall be shipped. Of course Judge Blakely has granted the use of the court house, and Mr. Alloway, on behalf of the D. P. & A. N. Co., has kindly promised to ship all donations to Portland free of charge. It is requested that donations collected at this place shall be sent to the court house on or before November 30th.
