LOCKWOOD LAW VALID

Is Not Local in the Sense That Makes It Unconstitutional—Is Not Inimical to Free and Untrammelled Elections.

SALEM, Nov. 25.—By a decision of the supreme court this morning, the decision of the state circuit court of Multnomah county holding the Lockwood primary law valid was sustained. The decision of the supreme court is that it is not local in the sense that would make it unconstitutional, nor is it inimical to free elections, as argued by the attorneys who appeared for the protesters.

This is the case to test the constitutionality of the Morgan and primary election laws. This opinion relates to the Lockwood act only. The opinion recites the general provisions of the act, and the first point decided is that it is not local in the sense that would make it unconstitutional.

"A law may be general," says the opinion, "and have but a local application, and it is nevertheless general and uniform because it may apply to a designated class if it operates equally upon all the subjects within the class for which the rule is adopted."

"The opinion also says, in interpreting statute:

"There is this, however, to be borne in mind, that by reason of the legislature having adopted the act, there goes with it a presumption that it is within the pale of the fundamental law, otherwise it would not have met with the approval of that body, and in every case where there exists, where proper tests have been brought to bear, a rational doubt upon the subject, it should be resolved in favor of its validity."

The opinion holds that the act is not inimical to free and untrammelled elections; also that it does not prevent any citizen entitled thereto from exercising the elective franchise; that it is nevertheless valid, because it provides for elections had at party primaries.

The opinion discusses at length the rights of party association and the history of political parties, and does not think that the Lockwood act is an unwarranted interference with any rights involved therein, or that the legislature exceeded therein, its proper jurisdiction. Opinion is very carefully prepared, covering twenty-four pages typewritten.

"A Lion's Heart."

Manager Clarke, of the Vogt opera house, should congratulate himself on having secured as his next attraction that acknowledged success, "A Lion's Heart," which opens at that theater next Monday evening. This new and powerful melodrama was brought to this country by that earnest and forceful actor, Mr. Carl A. Haswin, and it has proven a worthy successor to "The Silver King," in which he starred for so many years. The plot of the play is of absorbing interest, the characters skillfully drawn, and the story contains that heart interest that touches everyone who claims a jot of humanity. The comedy element has not been forgotten, the trials and tribulations of a newly wedded couple giving no end of amusement. Briefly, the story runs thus:

Dobre, an adventurer, lures the wife and child of Rizado away, who swears to kill him. Twenty years elapse. The wife of Rizado is dead, having been deserted by her betrayer. The child is grown up and married to Dick Lorimore, when along comes Dobre, accompanied by a Col. De Villefort, a worse villain than himself, who makes love to Mrs. Lorimore. A robbery and murder is committed, and in order to shield himself De Villefort accuses Marion of the crime, and she is convicted and sentenced to the penal settlement at New Caledonia, where Rizado has also been sent for attempting to strangle Dobre. De Villefort, through influence, has been made governor of the settlement at New Caledonia, and here renews his attentions to Marion. In order to colonize the island it is the custom of the government to allow the men tickets of leave for good behavior; also to choose wives from the female prisoners. Both De Villefort and Lorimore try to induce Rizado to choose Marion, but with far different motives—the former to further his designs, the latter thinking that by going through a form of marriage she will be freed from prison and restored to him. Rizado takes Marion to his hut and Lorimore turns up and a knife duel takes place, during which Dobre arrives and discloses the fact to Rizado that Marion is his daughter. He also denounces De Villefort, who reaps the reward of his crimes and all ends happily.

The piece is elaborately mounted and costumed, and an excellent supporting company engaged.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at G. C. Blakeley's drug store.

Germany Says It Is False.

BERLIN, Nov. 25.—The foreign office today sent for the representative of the Associated Press and declared the announcement to the effect that the countries party to the triple alliance were making a concerted demonstration in South American waters to be false. The information of the correspondent said there had been discussion between Germany, Austria and Italy regarding common action in this direction. He admitted that each country was sending warships to South American waters, but said they were acting entirely independent of each other, and were mere protecting the property rights and lives of their subjects. It was further found that Washington was fully informed concerning the intentions of Germany in this regard. The movements of German vessels in South American waters have been fully reported, as well as the vessels destined to go out there. No other ships have been sent to South America.

A Fireman's Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters and, after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. Price 50c. 2
