

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hon. F. P. Mays and family are expected here tonight to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Mays' parents.

Mrs. William Brune, of Rockland, arrived here at noon from Portland, accompanied by her daughter, who returns from school to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

A Meeting of the "Stars."

I doubt if the Masonic hall ever held a happier crowd of devotees than filled its entire space last evening. An invitation from our own Columbia Chapter, No. 33, had been extended to Hood River Chapter, No. 25, to attend our regular meeting, which convened last evening. The invitation was accepted and upwards of twenty of their members were our guests. Everything was in readiness for them upon their arrival on the steamer Regulator.

The usual routine work completed, speeches were made by several visitors expressing their appreciation of our efforts to make the visit seem like the coming home of one large family.

A call was given by our worthy patron to our guests to join the march, led by our own superior officers, Sister Emma Doane presiding at the organ, which speaks for the music on this occasion. The singing was led by Brothers Doane and Poling. I need not say it was good, for these brothers are well known favorites of Dalles audiences.

Reaching the dining hall we found exquisitely laid tables in the emblematic colors. Masses of chrysanthemums formed the decorations, which were beautiful. An elaborate luncheon was very daintily served, while the Mandolin Club, seated in a flag-draped alcove, played their sweetest strains. I think it seemed better for coming from beneath our national emblems. Surely they never pleased us more. Brother George C. Blakeley filled the position of toast master, and the responses were tenderly fitting to the occasion.

After the "feast of reason and flow of soul" was a thing of the past, we returned to the chapter room and listened to Brother Poling's beautiful rendition of "The Holy City." Of course he received an imperative encore. He responded with "My Old Kentucky Home" in a manner which touched all hearts. Brother Doane was loudly called for, and he sang "Mizpah" as he always sings, from the heart. It was a very sweet ending to the evening's pleasure.

Chatting with and getting acquainted with our guests filled the hour until we were surprised to find a new day had dawned upon our beautiful world, and all must hie away to be in readiness for the duties of life.

And so ended a happy meeting, which we trust will be productive of much good, as we know it was of great enjoyment to us.

Football Notes.

The comments of the Wasco News as to slugging in any game of football is to the point, yet in the Wasco game our reporter was of the opinion that it was "horse and horse." But let that be as it may, the new organization here hope to promote clean football, and will resort to no foul work unless as a matter of protection, which is the surest way to stop it.

In tomorrow's game it is hoped that the home team will "play ball" and let the captain do the talking. That is the true way to play ball.

Those who cannot attend the game tomorrow can contribute their mite by buying tickets at B. H. Grant's cigar store. Don't forget this important feature.

The ladies have all arrangements completed for tomorrow evening's reception and ball.

SAVES LIFE

Willard, Ill., August 1, 1900.
I was in bed health this spring and could not sit up in bed for four weeks. When I began to sit up I felt so weak and had such terrible pains in my back and hips. I had kidney trouble and falling of the womb. I also had hysterical spells. I was in a bad condition when I received your "Ladies' Birthday Almanac" and read the advertisement of Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught. Since April 26th, I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui and three packages of Theodor's Black-Draught. I feel like a new person now. I can do all my work and can walk out to see any of my neighbors. I believe I would have been in the grave had it not been for Wine of Cardui. IT SAVED MY LIFE.
Mrs. ALICE DAVIS.

It is well that women are more patient than men. Few men could bear the bitter pangs, the agony and distress that women endure. Thousands of women have come to look upon suffering as a duty of their sex. But there are many instances of this heroic fortitude which now renders unnecessary. Women need no longer suffer for modesty's sake. Wine of Cardui brings relief to modest women in the privacy of their homes. Many of the best homes in this city are never without this great medicine. It cures whites and falling of the womb and completely eradicates these dragging periodical pains. Mrs. Davis' cure shows you conclusively what you may expect if you follow her example and take Wine of Cardui. Theodor's Black-Draught aids Wine of Cardui by regulating the stomach and bowels. When you ask your druggist for these medicines, be sure you get them. It was Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black Draught that saved Mrs. Davis' life. Never take a substitute.
