Better than Ever

We'd be disappointed if we could not truthfully say each season that our suits and overcoats are "better than ever;" it's a sign that we're keeping in front, each season a little better than last, getting new ideas and improving on old ones, learning something every day and putting it to use for our customer's benefit. This fall we say—"better than ever" with unusual emphasis.

H. S. & M. suits and overcoats, made expressly for Pease & Mays, have the style, fit and service that only first-class tailor-made clothes can give.

H. S. & M. Suits and Overcoats, $12.50 to $25.00.

Sole agents American Hosiery Co.'s Underwear, Monarch Shirts, E. & W. and Arrow Brand Collars, Shawknit Hosiery, Knitthe Bros.' Suspenders and Belts of the finest make.

My Lady's Slipper...

should fit her foot. It's harder to make a good-fitting slipper than a good-fitting shoe. A slipper should be snug at the heel and not bulge at the side. We take too much pains with our slipper stock to let anything get in that is not exactly right. We begin with the ordinary house slipper at 85c and $1, and rise step by step to the best in patent leather and kid in straps and ties nicely trimmed at $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.

Remember the A. O. U. W. social tonight at the K. of P. hall.
Saturday is the last day of the ribbon sale at A. M. Williams & Co's.
Go to A. M. Williams & Co's. for your Xmas ribbons. Great reductions this week.

Irene Flynn, who is very fine in character songs, sings at the Mamie Helen Flynn recital tonight.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Clyde W. Snodgrass, of Victor, and Mary A. Wing, of Wamic.

You don't find such bargains in ribbons outside of A. M. Williams & Co's. 50 and 75c fancy neck ribbons—15c per yard.

Hon. W. H. H. Dufur brought in from Dufur yesterday a bunch of fat hogs, which he disposed of at 6 1/4 cents a pound, gross.

Mamie Helen Flynn, Oregon's well-known young pianist and elocutionist, assisted by Rose Bloch-Bauer, the famous soprano, and Reginald Hidden, the renowned violinist, at the Vogt tonight.

There was a goodly number of young ladies and gentlemen at the club rooms last Tuesday night, who had a jolly time dancing in the billiard hall. Bowling was also a chief feature of the evening.

The party given by Mrs. Douthit Tuesday afternoon was a most delightful affair. Despite the rain which descended all afternoon there were about forty ladies present. Mrs. Douthit entertained again yesterday afternoon.

Ike and George Darland, C. E. Marshall, Frank Miller, Harry Morris and F. Gaunt brought over from Klickitat county yesterday twenty-five head of horses for Sheriff Franke, who arrived here today from Portland to receive them.

Two new cases of diphtheria were reported to Health Officer Van Ande yesterday. They were the two sons of Peter Fegan, who lives in the pines, aged respectively 13 and 16 years. The quarantine was raised from the residence of Mr. Jacobson.

An Irish Judge of the old school, in a recent squabble up at the Four Courts, Dublin, created a great effect. The plaintiff was even more beautiful than her beautiful daughter, who was a witness. "Gentlemen of the jury," his lordship began, "everything in this case seems plain—except Mrs. O'Toole and charming daughter."

A camp of Royal Neighbors of America, the auxiliary of the Modern Woodmen of America, was organized last evening in the K. of P. hall by Mrs. Ida Hambley, of Pendleton. The new order starts out under very favorable circumstances and with an excellent charter membership. During the evening a elegant lunch was served. There was a large attendance and a delightful social time was had.

The Salvation Army people are making arrangements for Christmas times to help the needy children of The Dalles in a practical way, and ask the patronage of the people for gifts of all kinds, such as shopworn clothing, shoes, toys, and clothing which can be made over. Those wishing to contribute may either send the articles to the Salvation Army hall or notify them and some one will come for your gift.

"A Wise Woman," the attraction to be presented at the Vogt Monday night is a pure, clean comedy with none of the "horse play" about it that so many authors indulge in to make people laugh. It is said that the plot bears evidence of exceptional skill in construction, also that the dramatic points are humorous in the extreme and entail no end of laughable situations. A very capable company give the comedy an excellent interpretation.

It is the opinion of many that The Dalles is at this time over-run with hobos and thieves to a greater extent than she ever was in all her history. A well-known officer of the law insists that there has been a hold-up every night for the past eight nights. Be that as it may, The Chronicle's only a few days ago reported the hold-up and robbery of Wallace Wilson, of the Baldwin restaurant. The following night a young fellow named Mell, from the Centerville neighborhood, was robbed of an eighty-dollar gold watch. Next morning he offered $25 for its recovery but failed to get it. Monday night a man was robbed of $37.50 on the open street near the corner of Court and First. He was a railroad employe and had previously cashed a check for the amount. Tuesday night, near the same place, another man was robbed of $3.50, all the money he had on him, and last night G. A. Lawton was held up in his own shop and robbed of some $40, and half killed besides. Fellow citizens of The Dalles, isn't it about time we organized a necktie party or something of that kind?

A BOLD ROBBERY.

C. A. Lawton Bound Hand and Foot, Gagged and Robbed of $45.

C. A. Lawton, the painter, was held up in his 455p on Third street a little after six o'clock last night and after being bound hand and foot and gagged, was robbed of between $45 and $50 dollars. It was one of the boldest robberies that has been committed in this city for a long time.

It was the evening of collection day and the thieves evidently knew that Mr. Lawton had some money on him. He had returned to the shop after supper and was doing some work in the room back of his office by the light of a candle when a stranger entered and introduced himself as a painter wanting a job. The man wore a slouch hat and dark coat with grey trousers. His hair was of a reddish brown and he wore a two weeks beard on his face. He appeared to be about 35 or 40 years and of about 5 feet 9 inches in height. His coat was dirty as if he had slobbered on the front of it and dirt and dust had gathered and dried on the slobbered part.

As he talked to Mr. Lawton he picked up a piece of wire and fingered it with apparent carelessness. Presently Mr. Lawton had occasion to go into his office which was toward the outer door. As he passed through the doorway leading from the room into the office the stranger quickly blew out the light and grabbed Mr. Lawton from behind. A moment more and he was grabbed by another man in front. The latter was plainly an accomplice who had been waiting without till the light was extinguished. Mr. Lawton realized in a moment what the men were after. He had about $75 in his two trouser pockets and a watch in his vest. He ran his right hand into that pocket and grabbed the money that was in it dropping it between his drawers and his shin. He tried to do the same thing with his watch but it dropped on the floor, where it was subsequently found.

Mr. Lawton evidently fought them with all his might. His vest and shirt were stripped off his back and almost torn into rags. In due time, however, the robbers overcame him and bound his hands behind his back, bound his feet and drew them up backwards towards his hands; gagged his mouth with rags and bound it with stripes of cloth and drawing his head back bound his head, hands and feet together with strands of wire. Then they turned his pockets inside out and taking the money in the left pocket of his trousers, amounting to about $45, slipped out into the night.

It was nearly an hour later when Max Vogt, in passing the door of the paint shop, heard a muffled noise and calling to his mind the robber the latter cut his way through a pane of glass and entered the office where he found Mr. Lawton in an almost exhausted condition with his wrists and ankles cut with the wire and his side and other parts of his body bruised and sore. The money he had slipped under his drawers was found where he put it and his watch was found lying on the floor. Mr. Lawton was taken home and made as comfortable as possible and about the same time one Tom Campbell, a painter who had been working for Mr. Lawton, was arrested on suspicion of being the accomplice on the outside. Campbell had no money on him when arrested. No charges had been made against him this afternoon and a couple of his acquaintances claim that they can prove that he was in another place when the robbery was committed.

Is a Humane Society Wanted?

EDITOR DALLES CHRONICLE:—I have taken intense interest in your reports of the brutal treatment of the Meikeljohn children by their inhuman parents as well as that inflicted on poor John animals, that cannot voice their own complaint, and to my own personal knowledge, which I can confirm by the testimony of many others, you did not tell half of what might be told. I believe there is a demand as well as necessity for a humane society in this city and I would therefore ask you to call a mass meeting for, say, tomorrow night, to take steps to organize such a society. And in this connection may I not say that it is about high time that a vigilance committee was formed to drive out of town such villains as perpetrated that most revolting robbery last night?
ONE OF MANY INDIGNANT CITIZENS.

[In order to see if the people are really interested in organizing a humane society, THE CHRONICLE has secured from Mayor Farley the use of the council chambers and hereby announces the call for a mass meeting of the citizens at that place at 8 o'clock tomorrow, Friday, night.—EDITOR CHRONICLE.]

Hall Calne, the novelist, states that he is largely indebted for his literary successes to the Bible. "I think," he says, "that I know my Bible as few literary men know it. There is no book in the world like it, and the finest novels ever written fall far short in interest of any one of the stories it tells. Whatever strong situations I have in my books are not of my creation but are taken from the Bible."

Tribby and Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters

For Wood and Lighter Fuel.

The introduction of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heater has revolutionized the heating stove trade in all sections of the United States. Its wonderful economy in the use of fuel, and many other excellent qualities, strongly recommend it to all in need of a heating stove.

What Cole's Heater Will Do.
This stove will heat a room from zero to 80 degrees in five minutes.
It will heat your house evenly day and night.
It holds fire 36 hours without attention. You build only one fire each night.
It burns chips, bark, leaves, paper and corn cobs, and gives excellent results with this fuel, which is ordinarily wasted.
The stove is light and easily moved and set up.
The combustion is perfect and ashes are removed only once in four weeks.
None of the heat is wasted and the stove will save one-half of your fuel bill.
It is clean, economical, convenient, safe and durable.

Every one of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters is guaranteed to stay air-tight as long as used. Where wood is used for fuel every family should have one or more of these stoves.
