Better than Ever

We'd be disappointed if we could not truthfully say each season that our suits and overcoats are "better than ever;" it's a sign that we're keeping in front, each season a little better than last, getting new ideas and improving on old ones, learning something every day and putting it to use for our customer's benefit. This fall we say—"better than ever" with unusual emphasis.

H. S. & M. suits and overcoats, made expressly for Pease & Mays, have the style, fit and service that only first-class tailor-made clothes can give.

My Lady's Slipper..

should fit her foot. It's harder to make a good-fitting slipper than a good-fitting shoe. A slipper should be snug at the heel and not bulge at the side. We take too much pains with our slipper stock to let anything get in that is not exactly right. We begin with the ordinary house slipper at 85c and $1, and rise step by step to the best in patent leather and kid in straps and ties nicely trimmed at $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.

Trilby and Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters For Wood and Lighter Fuel.

The introduction of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heater has revolutionized the heating stove trade in all sections of the United States. Its wonderful economy in the use of fuel, and many other excellent qualities, strongly recommend it to all in need of a heating stove.

What Cole's Heater Will Do.

This stove will heat a room from zero to 80 degrees in five minutes. It will heat your house evenly day and night. It holds fire 36 hours without attention. You build only one fire each winter. It burns chips, bark, leaves, paper and corn cobs, and gives excellent results with this fuel, which is ordinarily wasted. The stove is light and easily moved and set up. The combustion is perfect and ashes are removed only once in four weeks. None of the heat is wasted and the stove will save one-half of your fuel bill. It is clean, economical, convenient, safe and durable.

Every one of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters is guaranteed to stay air-tight as long as used. Where wood is used for fuel every family should have one or more of these stoves.

Frank Callaghan, the 16-year-old son of M. Callaghan of this city, has been ill for a couple of weeks with typhoid fever. It was hoped today that the crisis was over.

The following sample of Irish wit and repartee is from the Baltimore Sun: In a suit brought by an installment house one of the many witnesses was asked if he knew what quartered oak meant. Here is his definition: "It means that its three-quarters gone."

Mary Brown, by her attorney, Ned H. Gates, has filed a complaint in the office of the county clerk asking for a divorce from her husband, L. L. Brown; on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment and desertion. The couple were married in this city December 12, 1895.

The first snow of the season in this neighborhood appeared on the Klickitat hills, eight or ten miles in an air line north of The Dalles, this morning, remaining hoisted on the top of the mountain all day. This is taken as a reminder that down here we shall probably have some winter in the near future, although we have had none so far.

Tom Campbell, who was arrested Wednesday night on suspicion that he was an accomplice in the Lawton hold-up, was discharged from custody this morning for want of evidence, notwithstanding that some of the officers are well assured of his guilt. Campbell's release was partly obtained on his promise to leave town forthwith.

An attraction that merits more than passing notice will be seen at the Vogt Monday, Dec. 9th. It is the company that is presenting Wilfred Clarke's comedy "A Wise Woman." This play, which the London critics credit with being one of the cleverest farces presented for some time, had a run at the Strand theatre, the engagement lasting for 238 nights, during the entire period of which the business was up to the record-breaking point.

Mrs. Douthit gave a charming "at home" Thursday afternoon to forty of her lady friends at her home on Fourth street. The different apartments were artistically decorated with dainty vines and a wealth of chrysanthemums. The shades were drawn and the tinted lights threw over all a pleasing effect. "A half hour with the authors" proved very interesting and helped to make all present better acquainted with the old masters. Musical selections well rendered and delicious refreshments daintily served brought the afternoon to a happy close. Mrs. Douthit was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. Moore and Miss Rosemary Baldwin.

"The Cosmopolitan Club" of Golden-dale has succumbed to the inevitable. Its president, Harry Dunn, has compounded with the law on the basis of paying a fine of $100 and giving up the club business for ever. The "club" was a thinly disguised means of selling whiskey in a dry town. As often as you paid dues to the amount of ten cents you got a pull at a whiskey bottle. "President" Dunn stood one trial before the superior court, having Judge Bennett for his lawyer. The judge succeeded in tying the jury, and the case would have been tried over again this week had not the "president" thrown up the sponge. Meanwhile Dunn had been fined $90 in the justice court for repeating the offence. The club has been an expensive experiment for the "president." Over in Glenwood, in the same county, one Frank Duncan ran an institution similar to the "Stockmen's Social Club." The Glenwood institution has also come to grief, Duncan having just been fined $50 and costs for selling liquor without license.

James G. Green, who murdered E. V. Benjamins on the night of March 28, 1901, by firing a gun through the window of a residence near Underwood's Landing, Shumanna county, Wash., where Benjamins was seated at a supper table, was hanged at 9 o'clock this morning in the jail yard at Stevenson. About seventy-five persons witnessed the execution among whom were Deputy Sheriffs Sexton and Woods, Officers Alisky and Frank Connelly, of this city, and Commissioner N. C. Evans, of Hood River. The execution was carried out without a hitch. Green stepped upon the scaffold as lightly as if he was going to his own wedding. He was accompanied, besides the officers of the law, by his spiritual adviser, Rev. Mr. Todd, of Vancouver. When asked by Sheriff Totten if he had anything to say Green spoke a few words about his faith in Christ and a hope of acceptance with God, closing with an exhortation to his hearers that they should trust in Christ and obey his commandments. At the close he waved his hand toward his hearers and with a smile on his lips said: "Good-bye all." Then the sheriff drew the black cap over the murderer's face, stepped back a pace and touched the trap with his foot, when the murderer fell about six feet and beyond a momentary movement of the muscles, hung limp and still as a log. In eight minutes Dr. Schroeder, who was present from Cascade Locks, pronounced Green dead.

Lovers of good music and singing will be pleased to learn that arrangements have been made for the appearance of the Schumann Grand Concert Company at the Vogt tomorrow night. This is the eighth consecutive season for this organization and Mr. Gordon, its manager, deserves to be congratulated upon the success he has won as a purveyor of high class musical entertainments. Miss Edith Adams, the great violinist, is still the principal soloist of this company, and no lover of instrumental music should fail to listen to her wonderful playing of this difficult instrument. Miss Adams is recognized, both in this country and abroad, as the queen of the cello. She is a thorough artist and plays with much sympathy, that cannot fail to profoundly move her audience. Mrs. Robert Goldbeck, the pianist of Mr. Gordon's company, won her first success in the British metropolis and for two seasons she played at many of the most select concerts given in London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna. Miss Lillian Beard, the contralto singer, formerly sang with a noted Chicago church choir and then joined the Castle Square Opera Company, as one of its prima donnas. Mr. Walter McPherson, the basso, is well known throughout the country for his excellent work as a concert singer. He is a pupil of Sbriglia of Paris, France, and Herman De Vries, formerly of Grau's Grand Opera Company. His voice has a wonderful range and is especially suited to grand opera and oratorio work. Seats on sale at Clarke & Folke drugstore.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Beware the Signature of J. C. Watson

Death of Emile Schanno.

The people of The Dalles were greatly shocked this morning to learn of the death of Emile Schanno, which occurred at the family residence at about 8:30 o'clock this morning. The cause of death was plainly heart failure. Mr. Schanno had been ailing slightly for the past few days, but no serious results were thought of. He arose a little after six this morning, and when about half dressed he complained to Mrs. Schanno of feeling unwell and lying down again on the bed passed quietly away without a struggle.

Mr. Schanno was born in Alsace Lorraine in 1840 and came to the United States in 1853. Stopping for about nine years in Iowa, he came to Oregon in 1862 and settled in Canyon City, where he made his home for a year. He then moved to The Dalles and worked for years in the Columbia brewery then owned by his father. Subsequently he became the sole owner of the brewery which he ran till 1877, when he sold out his interest to August Buchler. Since then Mr. Schanno has divided his time looking after his property interests and in doing a vast amount of earnest and disinterested work, as a member of the state board of horticulture, for the development of the horticultural interests of the state.

The deceased leaves a wife and one son, Leo, of this city, and two daughters, Mrs. H. J. Maier, of this city, and Mrs. J. E. Dittler, of North Yakima. He was a good and honorable man in all his relations as citizen, husband and father and his death leaves a blank in this community that will be hard to fill. He was a Mason of long standing and a member of the A. O. U. W., in which order he held an insurance policy for $1,000. Mr. Schanno was the owner of some valuable real estate in this city and he leaves his family in comfortable circumstances. Arrangements for the funeral will not be made until the arrival of relatives from a distance.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hon. C. M. Cartwright, of the Baldwin Sheep and Land Co., was in town last night the guest of the Umstilla House.

Among the out-of-town people who attended the Mamie Helen Flynn recital last night were: Mr. and Mrs. Sand, Miss Ann Smith and Mrs. Chas. Clarke, of Hood River, and Miss Bloch, of Portland.

BORN.

December 2nd, instant, to Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Maier, of this city, a daughter.

At Hood River, December 4th, to Mr. and Mrs. Truman Butler, a son.

On the day following this happy event Mr. Butler was elected treasurer of the municipality of Hood River. Is it any wonder that this twice-lucky man should write to a friend in The Dalles to the effect that his head has swelled so in the last two days that he has to use a shoe horn to put on his hat?
