Trilby and Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters

For Wood and Lighter Fuel.

The introduction of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heater has revolutionized the heating stove trade in all sections of the United States. Its wonderful economy in the use of fuel, and many other excellent qualities, strongly recommend it to all in need of a heating stove.

What Cole's Heater Will Do.
 This stove will heat a room from zero to 80 degrees in five minutes.
 It will heat your house evenly day and night.
 It holds fire 36 hours without attention. You build only one fire each winter.
 It burns chips, bark, leaves, paper and corn cobs, and gives excellent results with this fuel, which is ordinarily wasted.
 The stove is light and easily moved and set up.
 The combustion is perfect and ashes are removed only once in four weeks.
 None of the heat is wasted and the stove will save one-half of your fuel bill.
 It is clean, economical, convenient, safe and durable.

Every one of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters is guaranteed to stay air-tight as long as used. Where wood is used for fuel every family should have one or more of these stoves.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

"A Wise Woman"
 Tonight at the Vogt opera house.
 Something new in the city—an elegant stock of Japanese goods at Miss Haven's.
 Miss Blanch Emerson has received a commission as notary public for this state.
 A marriage license was issued Saturday afternoon to K. D. Woodford and Ada Heister.
 J. T. Peters has commenced the erection of a store building on the vacant space east of the store of Theodore H. Liebe.
 D. P. Thompson, the well known capitalist and ex-minister to Turkey was still alive at last accounts but his death was expected at any moment.
 The Antelope Herald thinks it will be only a question of a few months until the Agency Plains country and all the land adjacent thereto will be fled upon.
 Miss Haven has, at her millinery store, an elegant stock of Japanese goods just received from Andrew Kan, of Portland. Useful and inexpensive Christmas gifts.
 Joseph Rapp, a native of Zibings, Mahren, Austria, now a resident of the Boyd neighborhood, today took out his final citizen papers before Judge Bradshaw.
 The public schools of the city resumed work this morning after a ten days' vacation. The attendance is very much larger than it was before the schools were closed.
 A. M. Williams & Co. open the ball next Wednesday with a general price reduction in their clothing department. Lucky is the man who has clothing to buy. See their ad.
 Eighty-seven head of fat hogs from Goldendale were sold to the Union Meat Company last week at 5½ cents a pound gross. They were delivered by the owners at Grants.
 Between now and the first of June, 1902, patrons of the bank will receive with each pint of liquor purchased a card. At the latter date the person holding the largest number of these cards will receive a three-gallon dem-

John of Green River or Harper's whisky, the second largest, two gallons; the third largest, one gallon; the fourth largest, one-half gallon; and the fifth largest, one-fourth gallon.
 The White Collar line people this morning reduced the passenger rate to Portland from $1.50 to 50 cents. The Regulator line had made no reduction at the time of going to press.
 Health Officer Van Anda reports another new case of diphtheria yesterday, that of Leo Esughman, a boy of 13 years. As an offset the quarantine has been raised from one or two houses.
 Henry Stegman, of Centerville, delivered here Saturday to Mr. Butler, of Port Townsend, 350 head of mutton sheep, for which he received $3.50 a head. They were an extra fine lot.
 Arieto is the paper used to make those guaranteed Platino carbons, at Wilder's Curio, Novelty and Photo Studio. It will pay you to visit the studio before Christmas. No trouble to show goods.
 Mart Waterman, of Eight-Mile received today by express from Cleveland, Ohio, two pigs of the Ohio Improved Chester variety. They are both registered stock and of the same variety that have already given Mr. Waterman great satisfaction.
 On account of the meeting of the Eastern Star tomorrow night it has again been thought best to postpone the mass meeting for organizing a Humane Society till Wednesday night when the meeting will positively be held without any further delay.
 The Skamania County Pioneer says: "It is reported that John Young, from the Coween river, has leased the St. Martin springs and will soon take possession, when the present occupants will retire to engage in the cattle business in the Yakima country."
 Detectives Nevans and Kellely, of Portland, and Deputy Sheriff Wood and Alisky this morning took the negro, Addison Kidd, up the road to the scene of Friday's train wreck so as to locate the place where he met the men who had threatened to get even with the company for putting them off the cars.
 It is due to the Schumann Grand Concert Company, who gave an entertainment at the Vogt Saturday night, to say that the performance was greatly and justly appreciated. Each one of the performers was an artist in his or her particular line, and one of whom The Dalles seldom sees the equal.
 The Oregonian bears the following testimony to the character and work of him who was followed to the grave yesterday by one of the largest funeral processions ever seen in The Dalles: "Emile Schanno, whose death occurred at The Dalles several days ago, was one of the most enthusiastic and intelligent fruit-growers in the state. In appraising that which men leave to posterity as the fruits of his endeavor, it is impossible to estimate the value of such work as Mr.

Schanno gave to horticulture. Interest upon it will accumulate from year to year, and its beneficiaries will increase with the fruitgrowing industry of the Pacific Northwest."
 J. Falt & Co. have received a car load of bottled beer from the Lemps' brewery of St. Louis, Missouri, of the brew known as "Falstaff." This beer is said to have no superior in the United States and very few equals. It is put up in handsome bottles and decorated with these and a number of beautiful signs, the east window of the "Owl" presents a most attractive appearance.
 Of the murderer Green, who was hanged at Stevenson last Wednesday, the Pioneer says: "Besides being a murderer Green was a notorious crook, and is reputed, on his own story, to have run an illicit distillery in Kentucky. Whether or not this is true, it is known that Green, with a partner, had fitted up a still in a remote nook in the mountains of Skamania county, which was discovered after his incarceration for the murder. He pretended to run a chicken ranch on the mountain slope to cloak his operations in transporting wheat with which to manufacture the whisky. After his arrest for the murder the suspicions of the neighbors, previously aroused, led them to make an investigation, when they found the apparatus all ready for the commencement of operations, which was placed in a nook at the foot of a precipice several miles distant from the river or any traveled road. His partner disappeared after the murder and has not since been seen."
 Sheriff Kelley returned from Portland yesterday with E. C. Potts and James McIntosh, the two men who are supposed to have gagged and robbed C. A. Lawton, the painter, last Wednesday night. The men were arrested in Portland Thursday afternoon as they were landing from the steamer Tahoma. As luck would have it the Tahoma that day had on board from Stevenson a Multnomah deputy sheriff who had been at the Green hanging and who had heard of the Lawton robbery from Deputy Sheriff's Wood and Alisky. Shortly after boarding the Tahoma at Stevenson the deputy observed three men sitting together and after passing them a couple of times he noticed paint marks on two of their coats. Calling to mind the robbery he concluded that the paint stains might be tell-tale signs. He disclosed his suspicions to a friend on board who stopped off at Albino and telephoned the sheriff for assistance, so that when the men stepped on the wharf they were met by three deputy sheriffs who put them under arrest. When Sheriff Kelley and Mr. Lawton visited the Multnomah county jail Saturday Mr. Lawton at once identified Potts as the man who assaulted him the night of the robbery. McIntosh was held as an accomplice and the third man, who gave his name as Daly, was turned loose. The men arrived here yesterday and are in the county jail. No charge had been preferred against them at the hour of going to press this afternoon, but a complaint, charging them with the robbery will probably be sworn out tomorrow morning.

 One of the cleverest combinations touring this season has been secured as the attraction at the Vogt tonight. The company referred to is headed by Ebel Baich, Marie Lamour and Frederick Murphy, all of whom have been prominent and attractive members of several metropolitan organizations. The play through which they will be introduced to the local theater-goers is Wilfred Clarke's comedy success, "A Wise Woman." The company has been accorded the highest praise everywhere they have appeared and it is claimed for them that they are rapidly earning a high position among the standard attractions of the year. Mr. Clarke, who did the staging of his comedy when it was put on at the Strand theatre in London, where it ran for 238 nights has looked after this important detail for the present company.
 The most touching thing connected with the railroad wreck of last Friday is the evidence that the wrecked engine affords that Engineer Cavanaugh did all that mortal man could have done to save the passengers entrusted to his care. There is a distance of 240 feet from the spot where the engine jumped the track to the place where it turned over. The engineer surely might have left his engine easily enough while it was going over this space. Had he done so he might have saved his own life, but the passenger cars would surely have run over the embankments and probably a score of lives been lost. Instead the brave man stayed with his engine to the last, and after he had been pulled half dead out of the debris it was noticed that the lever was reversed to the last notch and all the pressure at his command was on the air brakes. Of brave Maurice Cavanaugh it may be said, as it was of One greater than he: "He saved others, himself he could not save."
 Notice.
 The Knights & Ladies of Security will meet in Fraternity hall this (Monday) evening at 8:15 p. m. All members are earnestly requested to be present. By order of council No. 930.
