WAYSIDE CLEANINGS.

An elegant line of Xmas cigars at Grants, the only exclusive cigar store in the city.

$8.45, commencing tomorrow, buys any $12.50 suit or overcoat in A. M. Williams & Co's. store. Read their ad.

For $18.85 you can have your choice of any suit or overcoat worth $18.75 in A. M. Williams & Co's. store. Read their ad.

Carey Ballard has been appointed resident agent of the Aetna Life Insurance Company, for both the life and accident departments.

There isn't a suit or overcoat in A. M. Williams & Co's. store worth more than $10, that you can't have at a greatly reduced price commencing tomorrow. Read their ad.

Sheriff Frazier, of Portland, will be in the Dalles on the 20th inst., and will then want 100 head of cavalry horses for the British army. Jeff Drippe is buying up all he can get meanwhile.

All persons who are interested in the organization of a Humane society in this city are requested to attend the mass meeting in the council chamber at 8 o'clock tomorrow (Wednesday) night.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church will give their regular monthly 10-cent social at the residence of J. E. Barnett, at 2:30 tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon. Every body is invited.

Wheat commands 55 cents in this market but the trouble is that nearly all the wheat in the warehouses has been sold, and what remains at the granaries of the farmers cannot be hauled to town because of the wretched condition of the roads.

From information given by a couple of boys today Deputy Sheriff Benton went to the railroad bridge, west of the Umatilla House, where he found under the bridge a good saddle and bridle that have evidently been stolen from somebody. They are small proof of ownership at the sheriff's office.

The number of lightning cases in the city is diminishing. Two weeks ago as many as twenty houses were quarantined. This morning there were only five and from one of them the quarantine will be removed tomorrow, leaving only four, unless there should be a new case or two meanwhile.

City readers of the daily CHRONICLE will be pleased to learn that the delivery boys have been furnished with whistles on which they will give a couple of sharp blasts as they drop the CHRONICLE on the door step or within the yards in the residence portion of the city.

The winter so far has been remarkably mild hereabouts. As a matter of fact we have had no winter yet, only a little frost during a few odd nights and an unusually heavy fall of rain that has soaked the ground thoroughly and that goes a long way towards insuring next season's crops. Ranchers couldn't ask for more reasonable weather if they had the ordering of it themselves.

Otto Murhard died this morning at the residence of his son-in-law, George Krause, of this city. The deceased was a native of Germany, where he was born about 79 years ago. He had been in poor health and his death was not unexpected. He was a widower, his wife having died thirty years ago. Arrangements had not been made for the funeral at the hour of going to press.

A handsome chafing dish is on exhibition in L. Borden & Co's. window which will be awarded to the most popular lady at the Catholic fair, which opens on the 17th inst. As the chafing dish is an article that would be prized by any married lady in the land and one that would be set aside for future use by the most popular young lady, the contest will probably wax warm between the maids and matrons. The voting will begin on the opening night of the fair and continue until the closing night.

The detectives are still working on the case of the late railroad wreck near the mouth of the Deachutes, and the nine men arrested as suspects or as possessing knowledge that may be useful in convicting the guilty parties are still in the hands of the sheriff. No complaint has yet been entered against any of these men nor has anything been given out as to what the detectives may have discovered as to the guilt of any of them. That the men responsible for the wreck are in custody no one doubts for a moment.

The Roseburg Review of the 5th inst. says: "A. L. Morris, well known in Roseburg as a former S. F. conductor, is in the city for a short visit. He is looking fine, feeling in the best of health and enjoying prosperity in a fair measure as a brakeman on the O. R. & N. From Al we learn that Sam Henderson, an ex-S. F. man and Roseburger, is now employed as a switchman in The Dalles freight yard, and Fred Wall, also another ex-S. F. man and fellow townsman, has a freight run (conductor) between The Dalles and Umatilla. Speaking of Eastern Oregon products, Mr. Morris thinks he is now living in the greatest wheat raising country on earth and speaks proudly, not only of the vast shipments already made, but the large consignments now being withheld from shipment, because the farmers believe they can secure a better price for it in the future than is now offered them."

"A Wise Woman" drew a small house at the Voot last night when it really deserved a larger one. It is a clean comedy with remarkably little of the "horse play" that is often indulged in to make people laugh. The plot is light and airy, an airy in fact that at times there was no plot in evidence, but the interest never flagged notwithstanding, for the players were all above the average in ability and most of them really clever and able. Numerous snatches of song at frequent intervals were finely rendered and added much to the attraction of the evening.

The rate war that was inaugurated by the White Collar line making a 50 cent rate between all points on the river from The Dalles to Portland, excepting between Vancouver and Portland which is 25 cents, is the occasion of a conference today in Portland of the competing lines, which will end in a new traffic agreement or war to the knife and the knife to the hilt. It is understood that the O. R. & N. Co. is also a party to the conference, that company having had considerable experience with rate wars on the lower river. The present war is the outgrowth of charges and accusations of the White Collar line against the D. P. & A. N. Co., and vice versa, ever since the Bailey Gatzert was placed on the run in competition with the Regulator line. Of the truth or falsity of any of these charges THE CHRONICLE knows nothing. It regrets, however, a war that will benefit neither the town nor anybody in it, and is sure to be a losing game for those concerned in it.

This afternoon Smith French, whose life hung in the balance for hours yesterday, is so far recovered that he is practically out of danger. About 11 o'clock yesterday Mr. French had visited the Wasco warehouse in the company of two friends. Feeling unwell he lay down on a lounge in the office and in a short time it was seen that his condition was alarming. Drs. Doane and Ferguson were immediately summoned and everything possible was done to restore the action of the heart which for hours seemed almost to have ceased to beat. When night came the patient was still hovering between life and death, but a change came on later, and from that time on marked progress was made till a little before noon today when it was deemed safe to remove him to his home. Mr. French stood the journey well and at last accounts his pulse was nearly normal. His daughter, Dr. Gertrude French, arrived here from Portland at a little before 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon. When informed of her father's dangerous illness she engaged a special engine and car and made the trip here at the rate of forty miles an hour, notwithstanding four stops to allow other trains to pass. This is said to be the fastest trip ever made on this part of the road.

A hack containing four drunken men ran into T. J. Seufert's buggy yesterday afternoon and left the vehicle wreck. Mr. Seufert was on his way home from the ranch when at a point on the road near the mouth of Three-Mile where it was impossible to get out of the way he met the hack and team on the dead run. A collision was inevitable, and in the crash Mr. Seufert's team broke loose from the wreck and ran away. An occupant of the hack, named Hinman, of Ten-Mile, was thrown violently to the ground and severely injured; just how severely could not be learned, as the man was taken on home. Mr. Seufert's team was caught by a horseman who happened to be in the neighborhood, but Mr. Seufert was obliged to go back to the ranch for a vehicle to bring him to town. The four occupants of the hack to occupants of a buggy, all drunk as lords, were running a race, oblivious of all danger to themselves or anybody else. They will pay for the wrecked buggy or Mr. Seufert will know the reason why. It was learned today from a Ten-Mile rascaler that the hack that ran into Mr. Seufert's buggy collided a little later with a telephone pole out beyond Floyd's, leaving the vehicle a total wreck. The team of course ran away and the four men, still drunk and demoralized, had to stagger home in the mud as best they could.

Special Meeting of the City Council.

A special meeting of the city council was held last night to take further action in the matter of the construction of the Liberty street sewer.

J. C. Crandall submitted plans for the sewer and these, upon examination were approved by the council.

The marshal was instructed to notify in writing and by publication all persons owning houses or other obstructions on the public streets, that on and after January 1, 1902 the city will collect a rental of $1 a month for each house or other obstruction until such is removed. J. E. Barnett and C. W. Dietzel were appointed appraisers on the Liberty street sewer and were given power to appoint a third party to assist them in that work.

Trilby and Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters

For Wood and Lighter Fuel.

The introduction of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heater has revolutionized the heating stove trade in all sections of the United States. Its wonderful economy in the use of fuel, and many other excellent qualities, strongly recommend it to all in need of a heating stove.

What Cole's Heater Will Do.
 This stove will heat a room from zero to 80 degrees in five minutes. It will heat your house evenly day and night. It holds fire 36 hours without attention. You build only one fire each winter. It burns chips, bark, leaves, paper and corn cobs, and gives excellent results with this fuel, which is ordinarily wasted. The stove is light and easily moved and set up. The combustion is perfect and ashes are removed only once in four weeks. None of the heat is wasted and the stove will save one-half of your fuel bill. It is clean, economical, convenient, safe and durable.

Every one of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters is guaranteed to stay air-tight as long as used. Where wood is used for fuel every family should have one or more of these stoves.
