

ABOUT LIEU LANDS.

Governor Geer and certain esteemed contemporaries have raised considerable of an ado because the East Oregonian and this paper have had the impudence to suggest that there might be some crookedness in the management of the state land office when it is impossible for a private individual to purchase lieu lands at a price fixed by the state.

The governor and his apologists talk of mineral lieu lands, and along this line make a good case for the state officials. But THE CHRONICLE wasn't thinking of mineral lieu lands and never used the word mineral in this connection. It was thinking of the fact that when a tier of townships in this county of Wasco was added about a year ago to the forest reservation, and immediately after, when residents of the county applied to the state land department for the right to purchase lands in lieu of lands in sections 16 and 36 in the townships just reserved, they were told that every acre of these lands, numbering some 5000 acres, were already in the hands of private parties.

THE CHRONICLE is willing to believe that all this was done under strict form of law, but it cannot help wondering how the state land department, if it were as anxious to conserve the interests of the people as Governor Geer and his apologists would have us believe, allowed this land to be thus appropriated by men—in point of fact by one man—who now charge what they please for it, while the intent of the law is that the settler should have the land for $1.25 an acre.

AN ALLEGED CORRECTION.

Elsewhere in this paper, says the Harney County News, is reprinted an article by J. Dannels, in which the writer voices opposition to the range leasing law. So far, so good. But Mr. Dannels alludes to the trip of a congressman through Eastern Oregon in the carriage of the big cattle men, and talking in favor of leasing. As this applies, without doubt, to the recent visit of Representative M. A. Moody to this section, it contains an injustice, not only to himself but to the resident friends of leasing, and as well to the public here. Mr. Moody and party passed through Eastern Oregon in their own conveyance, and were upon a mission entirely different from that of creating sentiment in favor of range leasing. To the disappointment of his friends, Mr. Moody did say he believed in the system, but he made the statement as an individual and expressed the opinion that no such legislation could pass congress until the people were ready for it (a time when nature's limitations will have taken Mr. Moody away from congress forever). Opportunity now offers for our representative to align himself for or against our wishes. Meantime nobody except, perhaps, some political scalp hunter, desires to misrepresent anyone.

It is characteristic of the democratic party, especially in its present demoralized condition, that it should begin the congressional campaign at Washington, as it did on Saturday, with an intestine wrangle and almost a fight. Nothing else was to be expected of an organization in which Bryanism is struggling to retain a discredited leadership and Cokerism is seeking to win in national authority some consolation for defeat in state and city.—New York Sun.

Judge R. P. Boise has decided that Messrs. Pennoyer, Metchan and McBride were not responsible for the acts of George W. Davis when he, as secretary of the State School Land Board, defrauded the state of certain sums of money collected in his official capacity. Nobody outside the lawyer, who instituted the proceedings for purely political purposes, ever thought otherwise.

Health and Beauty.

A poor complexion is usually the result of a torpid liver or irregular action of the bowels. Unless nature's refuse is carried off it will surely cause impure blood. Pimples, boils and other eruptions follow. This is nature's method of throwing off the poisons which the bowels failed to remove. DeWitt's Little Early Bilets are world famous for remedying this condition. They stimulate the liver and promote regular and healthy action of the bowels but never cause griping, cramps or distress. Safe pills. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.
