The Hood River Glacier is informed that H. J. Byrkest, of Trout Lake, has sold his ranch and cattle to Tim Evans, of this city. The consideration is $8,500.

THE CHRONICLE is indebted to Mr. Sullivan, the gentlemanly representative of Russell & Co., of Portland, for two handsome maps of Oregon and Washington.

A masque ball will be given by C. F. Williams at the Dry Hollow ball on the night of the 20th inst. Elegant prizes will be given for the usual best features of a masquerade.

The Dalles is now having a spell of its own clear, bracing delightful winter weather, and a grateful change it is from the raw, foggy, Webfoot pestilence of the past two weeks.

The regular meeting of the W. R. C. occurs tomorrow (Saturday) evening and as it is the night for the annual election of officers a full attendance is requested. By order of the president.

Mrs. J. W. Moe, of Ten-Mile, who underwent a very critical surgical operation at The Dalles hospital a few weeks ago, has so far recovered as to be able to leave for home this morning.

Should Representative Moody be re-nominated next spring Wasco county will in that case have two candidates for congress; Rev. Frank R. Spaulding, of Hood River, being the nominee of the prohibitionists.

J. J. Westerland, who sustained a double fracture in one of his legs about a month ago at Warren's cannery below the locks, was discharged from The Dalles hospital yesterday morning and left on the boat for home.

At the Catholic fair, which opens next Tuesday, you will find dressed dolls, all sizes; toilet articles, fancy needle-work and many things suitable for Xmas gifts. Call and see them and help along a good cause.

John Roth, of Kingsley, is feeding 84 head of hogs for market on a lot near the head of the brewery grade. They are ready for market any time he gets his price, whatever that is. He has already refused an offer of $5.60 a hundred.

Miss Salina Phirman, one of the teachers of The Dalles public schools, has been ill for nearly a week with typhoid fever. The attending physician says the disease is in a mild form and that no serious results are anticipated.

Are you ready for cold weather? If not you should provide yourself with some of those knit goods from the New York Cash Store. A large assortment of these goods for women and children may be seen at the New York Cash Store. d13t

All members of both high school and club teams are requested to meet at B. H. Grant's cigar store at 12:30 p. m., Sunday, Dec. 15th, in football uniform for the purpose of having a photograph taken of the squad.

This is overcast weather—and buying time, too. A. M. Williams & Co. will positively save you from $1.55 to $5.65 on an overcoat or suit of clothes, if bought during their present special sale. All suits and overcoats for man or boy reduced.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smith have rented the O'Quinn Hotel to Mrs. Anna Bean who has taken possession. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have retired to an elegant new home they recently built not far from the northeast corner of the old fair grounds.

Health Officer Van Anda reports a new case of diphtheria this morning in a house from which the quarantine was raised on the 25th of November. There are now seven houses quarantined and from two or three of these the quarantine will be raised by the first of the week.

Fred Krasow, of Green Valley, brought to town today four head of horses to be shipped on tomorrow's boat to Portland, for which Sheriff Essler of that city paid Mr. Krasow $635, and one of the horses was only a saddle pony. One span brought $250 and a third horse $140. Four or five years ago the whole bunch would have brought $200.

Heppner's football team has been on the "bench" for two days concerning the holiday game. It is thought, however, that the game will come off as first arranged. If not it is expected that some other good team of the Northwest will meet our boys on the home gridiron some time during the holiday week.

William Cole, Frank Coyne, James Page, Fred Grant and Harris Williams, the men suspected of wrecking the O. R. & N. train at Celilo last week, have been held for action of the grand jury, by order of Prosecuting Attorney Menefee, without a preliminary hearing. Three of them were taken to Portland this morning by Detectives Nevins and Reiley.

A handsome ebony gavel has been secured by the Ladies of the Catholic church to be given to the most popular fraternal order at their fair next week. The contest will be decided by vote, and as it is a beautiful article, mounted with silver, and in every way suitable for the presiding officer in a lodge, a spirited contest is expected among the different organizations. Before it is turned over to the winning order the ladies will have the gavel handsomely inscribed with the names of the donors and of the winning order.

Christmas is coming, and the Salvation army people are working and planning to make it a season of good cheer for the needy ones of our town, and should have the support of the more fortunate, by donating clothing, shoes, toys or shop-worn clothing, also clothing that can be made over. Everything can be put to good use. Either send your donations to the Salvation Army hall or notify Capt. Connor and some one will come and get what you have to give. Canvassers will be going round for aid also looking for those who are in need.

It is pleasing to learn from a Washington dispatch that General Gillespie, chief of engineers, is in favor of a canal and locks to overcome the obstructions at The Dalles and Celilo, whenever congress authorizes any improvement to be made. Like most of the engineers who have investigated the subject, he believes that the most satisfactory arrangement will be a canal rather than a boat railway or any other scheme. Owing to the position which General Gillespie occupies, he would not be quoted on the projects contemplated, but it is known that he and nearly all the other engineers believe in a canal.

The conference of the representatives of the three competing lines of transportation to this city, which met here yesterday to try and reach an agreement that will prevent a rate war ended, last night, after two sessions had been held yesterday, without any definite result. The proceedings of the meeting have not been given to the public but it is said that Mr. Campbell of the O. R. & N. Co. occupied the chair and acted as a sort of umpire between the two steamboat lines, and that he pronounced the terms offered by the Regulator line to its rival to be fair and reasonable. The representatives of the White Collar line don't seem to have agreed with Mr. Campbell, for they refused the terms to the extent at least, of asking for an adjournment till next Tuesday, when they promise to deliver their ultimatum. Should the White Collar line refuse the terms offered them it is more than probable—it is in fact practically certain—that the O. R. & N. Co. will take a hand in the fight and will stay in it to a finish.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fish met with a genuine surprise last night when the members of the "Twentieth Century Whist Club" broke into their new home on Fourth street and took possession of the building and its contents. Making themselves thoroughly at home the intruders and their "guests" spent a delightful time in games and music and the discussion of a dainty, impromptu repast. The visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houghton, Mr. and Mrs. H. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hostetler, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Senfner, Mr. and Mrs. Ed French, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Sinnott, Mrs. E. O. McCoy, Misses Annie and Laura Thompson and Minnie Lay.

A short time ago the editor of this paper, being accidentally down town at an hour when all good boys like himself should be in bed, found a bicycle of the male persuasion lying on one of the public streets in a position that looked as if its rider had fallen off the machine and for some cause wasn't able to get on again. The bicycle was brought to this office and advertised until we got tired seeing the paragraph in print. Once more attention is called to the matter in order that we may warn the citizens of The Dalles that if the owner of the blankety bicycle doesn't call at this office, prove property and pay for this notice, there is an editor going to learn to ride on the machine if he has to commit suicide on somebody to do it.

Aristo is the name of the most powerful and effective hair and scalp preparation on the American market today. Thousands use the name aristo on other kinds of goods but there is only one kind of Aristo Hair Food and to convince those that have thrown away good money on so called hair tonics and have received no benefit therefrom, Professor Bortell, representing the Aristo Hair Food Co., will give free scalp treatment and teach you how to preserve your hair free of charge and convince the most sceptical that Aristo Hair Food is the only true hair and scalp preparation.
