MENEFFEE & PARKINS

PERSONAL MENTION.

President E. E. Lytle, of the Columbia Southern, was in town today.

A. Sarsfield and wife, of Centerville, spent last night in the city the guests of the Columbia House.

The Wheat Trade.

The Portland Commercial Review of the 21st says: The market during the past week has been quite active and has followed the advance of Eastern and foreign markets. Prices have materially advanced, and the club wheat sold as high as 63½ cents per bushel here, f. c. b. Prices would have advanced higher if freights would not have absorbed a part of the recent advance in Eastern and foreign markets. Farmers on the advance price do not seem to respond as freely as we thought they would. They have maintained all season that if they could obtain 50 cents at home they would go to their holdings; the same old story has been repeated. When they could secure the price they wanted and they see that the market is a little active they raised their pretensions and are not the liberal sellers that they claimed they would be when the markets reached their figures. It has been estimated that fully two thirds of the crop of 1901 has been disposed of and exporters have all their houses filled to overflowing with wheat which they have recently bought.

ELOPING PRINCESSES.

Some Have Run Away with Men Far Beneath Them.

Notable Instances of the Susceptibility of Royalty to the Darts of Cupid—Tragedies That Have Resulted.

Even royalties are not immune from the darts of Cupid, and, although under the laws of all European nations princesses are forbidden to wed husbands of inferior rank to their own, many have surrendered to a handsome face or a dashing manner even though their possessors were men of plebeian birth, says a London exchange.

Princess Isabella, granddaughter of the present king of Spain, eloped with the Polish Count Gurovski. One dark night the count repaired with a carriage to Enghien, near Paris, where his innamorata lived. Leaving her house by means of a rope ladder, she soon joined him, and the couple escaped safely to this country, where they were married. Alas, the glamour soon faded, for after awhile the pair quarreled and a separation ultimately ensued.

Even more romantic was the elopement of her sister, Princess Josephine. A certain Senor Renede, a poet of promise and a journalist attached to a Havana paper, asked a rich planter for his daughter's hand, with the result that he was ignominiously shown the door. Furious at this treatment, the young poet swore that he would show the world his worth by marrying a princess.

Quitting Cuba, he journeyed to Madrid, where, after years of want and suffering, he gained a reputation as a poet. At last his genius attracted the notice of Princess Josephine, to whom he had dedicated several of his effusions. The royal lady made his acquaintance and became enamored with the poet. Her love was returned, the pair eloped to Paris. On hearing the news the princess' family were aghast and strove by every means to have the marriage annulled. Their efforts were, however, futile, and, common sense at length prevailing, the poet and his royal bride were forgiven and taken into favor.

Some six years since Princess Elizabeth, a granddaughter of the emperor of Austria, fixed her affections upon Baron Otto Von Seefried, a young infantry lieutenant. Her relatives' efforts to prevent the marriage were of no avail, for one morning the lovers escaped to Geneva, where they were married. Another Austrian royalty, Princess Elvira, likewise contracted a runaway marriage by eloping with a Bavarian count, while the mother of the present queen of Italy eloped with an artillery officer, who, on the union turning out unhappy, committed suicide.

Some two years since a desperate duel was fought between Lieut. Geza De Matachich and Prince Philip of Saxe-Coburg, in which the latter was wounded. This encounter was the outcome of the action taken by the prince's wife, Princess Louise, eldest daughter of the king of the Belgians, who, driven to desperation by her husband's cruelty, had, after vainly appealing to her father for protection, thrown herself upon the honor of the Hungarian officer of hussars, with whom she fled to Spain.

An elopement that failed was that planned by Grand Duchess Olga, daughter of Nicholas I. of Russia, and Lieut. Barantinski. At the last moment the lover's courage failed and he made a full confession. The princess was promptly married to Prince Charles of Wurtemberg, while the treacherous officer received such rapid promotion as to attain the highest rank in the army before he was 50.

Count Louis Batthyany, who was shot in the market place of Budapest by the imperial troops for his complicity in the rising of 1848, might have escaped his tragic fate had he consented to desert his wife and family and elope with Archduchess Maria, who was madly in love with him.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boesche's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Blakeley's drug store. Get Green's Special Almanac. 1

An Evangelist's Story.

"I suffered for years with bronchial or lung trouble and tried various remedies but did not obtain permanent relief until I commenced using One Minute Cough Cure," writes Rev. James Kirkman, evangelist of Belle River, Ill. "I have no hesitation in recommending it to all sufferers from maladies of this kind." One Minute Cough Cure affords immediate relief for coughs, colds and all kinds of throat and lung troubles. For cough it is unequalled. Absolutely safe. Very pleasant to take, never fails and is really a favorite with the children. They like it. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Saved His Life.

"I wish to say that I owe my life to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure," writes H. C. Christenson of Hayfield, Minn. "For three years I was troubled with dyspepsia so that I could hold nothing on my stomach. Many times I would be unable to retain a morsel of food. Finally I was confined to my bed. Doctors said I could not live. I read one of your advertisements on Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and thought it fit my case and commenced its use. I began to improve from the first bottle. Now I am cured and recommend it to all." Digest your food. Cures all stomach troubles. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

He Kept His Leg.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, "but," he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and 11-2 boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Sores and all blood disorders Electric Bitters has no rival on earth. Try them. G. C. Blakeley will guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Only 50 cents.

Played Out.

Dull Headache, Pains in various parts of the body, Sinking at the pit of the stomach, Loss of appetite, Feverishness, Pimples or Sores are all positive evidences of impure blood. No matter how it became so it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acker's Blood Elixir has never failed to cure Scrofulous or Syphilitic poisons or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Blakeley, the druggist.

..COLUMBIA BREWERY..

AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.

Of the product of this well-known brewery the United States Health Reports for June 23, 1900, says: "A more superior brew never entered the laboratory of the United States Health reports. It is absolutely devoid of the slightest trace of adulteration, but on the other hand is composed of the best of malt and choicest of hops. Its tonic qualities are of the highest and it can be used with the greatest benefit and satisfaction by old and young. Its use can conscientiously be prescribed by the physicians with the certainty that a better, purer or more wholesome beverage could not possibly be found."
