who was reported to have made some very unfeeling remarks at the time party, almost a man without a city. country. Since the assembling of congress last Monday it is said that not one of his colleagues has so much as spoken to him beyond a chillingly polite, "Good Morning." Wellingtor's conversational pleasures at the capitol are now confined to brief talks with the page boys on the floor of the senate chamber and the colored waiters in the restaurant downstairs. -If he had it to do over again the statesman from Maryland would undoubtedly avoid criticism of the nation's beloved dead.

Congressman Jones, of Washington state, has introduced a bill providing for the sale of part of the & Falk. public lands that are fit only for has only to do with public lands adjacent to the farms or ranges that are already settled upon, and permits Apply on the premises. the purchase of a tract not exceeding price of $1.25 an acre. This would not exhaust the great areas now used for free pasturage, and yet it would permit farmers to secure and fence in additional pasturage with the privilege of securing title to the land on easy payments. This would not solve the perplexing question of apportioning the large grazing tracts remote from settlements, but it would be a first step in the direction of a solution, and for that reason is to be commended.

The republican party has saved the nation from the industrial paralvsis which was threatened as a result of democratic incompetence. It has fought democracy for every foot of land borrowed $262,000,000 and Professor Wilson put through congress his monstrous iniquity which 10,000,000 American citizens and converted 3,000,000 into wandering mendicants; from the time when a paints when you can be thousand banks and a hundred rail. WALLA WALLA, Dec. 13 .- Practicing physicians in this city have tabooed the es of beating doctors' bills, which has been common in recent years, and an The Dalles Daily Chronicle, arrangement has been made by the Walla Walla Valley Medical Society to place the names of slow-pay individuals in the hands of each of its members, Advices from Washington depict that they may be on their guard when Senator Wellington, of Maryland, called to attend the man who regularly beats his bills. The medical society has been working on the matter for months, and finally struck the idea of each of the death of the late President member reporting to the secretary all McKinley, in a rather unenviable delinquents who determinedly remain light. They say he sits in the senate delinquents. Ever after this posting no chamber alone unnoticed, untalked member of the society will attend a case unless the money is advanced.
