 JOHN F. HAMPSHIRE,
 County Treasurer.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.
 Don't forget Professor Sandvig's dance tonight at the Baldwin.

Our college football players are expected home in the near future and will look after the preparations for the big game of the holidays. All have made splendid reputations as players this year.

Notices have been posted calling meetings of the citizens of Juniper Flat at Fairview schoolhouse on Dec. 23, and at Wapinitia on December 24th at 1 p. m. to consider a proposition to build a flour mill near Masupin's Ferry.

Jeff Drippa had a letter from Sheriff Frasier, of Portland, this morning announcing that he would be here on the morning of the 19th (next Thursday) to receive horses for the British cavalry, instead of on the 20th, as previously announced in this paper.

A writer in the Skamania County Pioneer says that not two minutes after the trap was sprung that ascribed the murderer Green into eternity the dogs of Stevenson by one consent commenced a mournful howl. The writer asks: "What invisible power informed these faithful friends of mankind of the passage of a human soul?"

F. L. Kreiser arrived here this morning on a short visit with his family. Mr. Kreiser has been boring for oil in Umatilla county, about ten miles from Pendleton. At a depth of 500 feet he says the prospects are as good as they are anywhere. When through with his work up there he will come back to The Dalles and continue his search for coal.

The football game between Heppner and The Dalles is "on" in earnest, the arrangements having been made yesterday afternoon. The contest will occur on the afternoon of December 29, 1901, on the grounds of this place, and will be for the championship of Eastern Oregon. This will be the best game of football ever played in The Dalles. The Heppner team is strong, gritty and well coached, and is able to cope with the best of them. The Dalles will put up its best local men, and they expect to be in good trim for the game.

There are two cases of diphtheria in two families out in the Fairfield district and the head of one of the families was in town yesterday, while the head of the other and a daughter was in town today. In both cases the visitors here were in and out of the stores and on the public streets for several hours. If these people do not know enough to stay at home until their sick ones get better and their houses and persons are thoroughly fumigated, there ought to be some way of keeping them outside the city limits.

The big department store of Pease & Mays is beautifully decorated throughout with miniature Christmas trees, potted palms and festoons of evergreens. The grocery department deserves special mention, where besides the really charming decorations there is displayed over a ton of candy of every conceivable kind, from the molasses agglomeration, so dear to lactical childhood, to the "conversation" lozenges through which the spooney adolescent first breaks the news of love's delerium to his best girl.

The Catholic fair will hardly have anything more exquisitely beautiful than the Elk's pillow now on exhibition in one of the Blakeley drug store windows. The pillow is made of purple and white satin bordered with beautifully ruffled lace, the name of which is not known to this masculine deponent. On the white satin top is a splendid oil painting of an elk's head by Miss Maggie Flynn. It has not yet been determined how the pillow will be disposed of but this much is known that the manner of its disposition will be left to a committee of the local elk.

After the death of Jerry Lynch, the man who was killed in a rock slide on the new railroad track near Crates' Point a short time ago, the county court appointed W. H. Butts administrator of the dead man's estate, which consisted chiefly in over $1500 of deposit receipts in Oregon and Washington banks. Now comes a Portland lawyer and a man claiming to be a brother of the dead man from Centralia, Washington, who notifies Mr. Butts that Judge Cleland, of Portland, has appointed the brother administrator. The notice is not official and until it is read will treat it with contempt. The man died in Wasco county and just how a Multnomah county judge could appoint as administrator a man living in another state is one of those things that Dad will have to have explained to him before he will give up a charge that he has given bonds faithfully to execute.

The beneficial effect of the X-ray treatment upon cancer has been reported several times within the last few weeks, says the New York Tribune. The most recent instance is that of an Atlanta man, E. A. Heard. The case was described a few evenings ago to the local society of medicine by Dr. M. B. Hutchins. Epithelioma, or skin cancer, developed on the patient's lower lip eight years ago, slowly spread, and finally attacked the jawbone. Bontjan rays were tried several times last spring, and within a month the trouble was apparently overcome. Since that time there has been no relapse. Not long ago a Chicago physician declared that he had cured fifty cases by the same means, but inasmuch as no details were supplied that sweeping announcement is not so convincing as the Atlanta story, although it is probably not without foundation.

In the west show window of the clothing department of A. M. Williams & Co., there is now on exhibition what is claimed to be the finest saddle that ever was turned out of a Dalles shop. Whether this claim is well-founded or not the writer cannot tell, but anyone can see that the saddle in question is a magnificent work of art. Every available inch of space on the leather is stamped with beautiful pictures of wild and domestic animals and landscape scenery. Back of the cantel is a silver plate with the name of the owner inlaid in gold letters. It has sixty-two solid silver conchas besides a number of elaborate silver plates that are intended for mere ornaments. The saddle was built by Vic Marden of the East End and is made on one of the trees of which he is the inventor. It is for R. S. Settlement, of Burns, Harney county, an employe of the Pacific Livestock Co., which owns some 300,000 head of cattle and is the largest stock company on the Pacific coast. The saddle was of course made to order and will cost its owner the snug sum of $300.

Candidate For Governor.

It is reported that Marion county is to be "put up" for Hon. C. W. Fulton for senator. The Looney boys of Jefferson are understood to be strong friends of Fulton and are anxious for the Clatsop man to have the Marion county legislative delegation. It is said that State Senator Looney will come before the convention for renomination. Senator Simon also has friends who will endeavor to capture the legislative ticket for him, and there is an able lieutenant in charge of "Little Joe's" forces in this county, who is by no means asleep. Governor Geer's enemies say they will have his "scalp" this time sure. But then again, the governor's friends say that it is not to be, so there you are.

The Eastern Oregon candidates for governor evidently are lying low, as lately there is not much evidence that they are making a vigorous fight. The man who seems to be Governor Geer's most formidable opponent for the nomination is no less a personage than Hon. Henry E. Ankeny, the well-to-do mine owner of southern Oregon will want something and State Treasurer Moore, who hails from the southeastern part of the state will not be in the way. We predict that the fight will be between Geer and Ankeny for the gubernatorial nomination.—Salem Independent.

ADDISON KIDD'S CONFESSION

HE OWNS TO HAVING PUT THE NUT ON THE TRACK WHICH WRECKED THE TRAIN NEAR CELILO.

Addison Kidd, the negro who was arrested by Deputy Sheriff's Wood and Alley this side of the Summit immediately after the train wreck of last Friday, this morning at about 11:30 o'clock, confessed to Detective Joe Kelley that he was the man who put the nuts on the track and that the other men now under arrest for the crime of wrecking the train, are innocent. When asked why he put the nuts on the track, he replied that he didn't know why, only that he had been drinking a little and found the nuts on the road bed.

Immediately following the negro's confession the detective took him to the office of District Attorney Mansfield where he repeated the confession. He was then taken to the county jail and the district attorney promptly filed a complaint charging him with murder in the first degree. The other men under arrest for the same crime will be held as witnesses.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Tribby and Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters

For Wood and Lighter Fuel.

The introduction of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heater has revolutionized the heating stove trade in all sections of the United States. Its wonderful economy in the use of fuel, and many other excellent qualities, strongly recommend it to all in need of a heating stove.

What Cole's Heater Will Do.
 This stove will heat a room from zero to 80 degrees in five minutes. It will heat your house evenly day and night. It holds fire 36 hours without attention. You build only one fire each winter. It burns chips, bark, leaves, paper and corn cobs, and gives excellent results with this fuel, which is ordinarily wasted. The stove is light and easily moved and set up. The combustion is perfect and ashes are removed only once in four weeks. None of the heat is wasted and the stove will save one-half of your fuel bill. It is clean, economical, convenient, safe and durable.

Every one of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters is guaranteed to stay air-tight as long as used. Where wood is used for fuel every family should have one or more of these stoves.

Sold by MAIER & BENTON, The Dalles.
