WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Coal stoves. A new line just received at Maier & Benton's. It

The Fortnightly will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. W. H. Moody.

Lost—Small ring with gold-nugget set. Finder will please leave same at The CHRONICLE's office.

There is nothing that makes a better Xmas present than a Garland stove. Maier & Benton, sole agents. It

A marriage license was issued this afternoon to Alexander McLennan and Jessie McKay, both of Antelope.

Get our prices on Christmas candies, nuts, figs, dates, etc., before buying elsewhere. Maier & Benton. It

At the Catholic fair last night R. Skibbe drew the lucky ticket for the beautiful cigar ribbon pillow.

For the benefit of Christmas shippers, the Pacific Express Company's office will be open every evening till 8 o'clock from now until Christmas.

The Salem Sentinel is after the state land board for making a loan of $2400 on "43.28 acres of flat, unimproved farm land in the vicinity of the state fair grounds, northeast of Salem." The Sentinel says the land was assessed for 1900 taxes at $837.

A visit to my salesroom will convince you that my large stock of shells, corals, and shell jewelry is second to none in beauty and quality. My prices are reasonable and my expenses small. Frye, the shell dealer and wire expert, next door to Racket store. d10-It Uneeda milk biscuits, oysterettes, su su snaps, graham wafers, ginger wafers, athena wafers. These wafers are put up in packages costing from 5c to 25c, and are manufactured by the National Biscuit Co., and are considered the nicest goods of the kind on the market. Maier & Benton.

The accident at Salem resulting in the death of an engineer and fireman has been traced to a 10-year-old boy, the son of a Salem lawyer. The real blame though lies with the person who left the switch unlocked. The boy didn't know any better. The man who failed to lock the switch did.

Detective Joe Reiley has interviewed the Times-Mountaineer man and told him that he didn't threaten the negro, Kidd, and used no gun—had none, in fact, with him at the time, as he had given his pistol to the day clerk at the Umatilla House at 8 o'clock that morning and didn't call for it again until that night.

The Astoria postmaster last Monday found a letter in his office addressed to "Santa Claus, Greenland." The postmaster opened the letter and found that it was from the little son of a prominent citizen of the town who asked the good saint to send him an air gun. The letter was sent to the boy's father, who will doubtless see that the wish of the boy is gratified.

The health officer reported this morning that there are now four houses quarantined for diphtheria. The quarantine was raised yesterday from the residences of T. T. Nichols and Peter Fegan. Unfortunately there are two new cases in a family named Moyer, who live up near the old fair ground. But for this only three houses would now be under quarantine.

If you don't think the people read THE CHRONICLE ask John Fleming, with Maier & Benton. He put an ad. in yesterday's paper, announcing that he had a lot of fine Leghorn chickens that he wanted to dispose of cheap. In less than two hours after the ad. was in type the chickens were sold at Mr. Fleming's own price, and he could have sold them many times since.

The vote at the Catholic fair for the chafing dish, to be given to the most popular lady, stood at noon today as follows: Prudence Patterson, 10; Eddie Carey, 8; Melvia Dawson, 12; Mamie Helen Flynn, 15; Edith Fisher, 6; Mrs. Joe Bonn, 5. The vote for the silver-mounted gavel, to be given to the most popular fraternal order, stood as follows: Eagles, 40; Red Men, 12; Artisans, 10; Macabees, 5; Elks, 10; Foresters, 22.

Here is a hard one on the signature: Joseph Cox, a white man, two years ago married the beautiful daughter of Queush Parker, a celebrated Indian chief and statesman of Indian Territory. The other day the squaw wife found Cox smoking cigarettes. She immediately doffed for American clothes, put on a lot of red, white and green blankets, strapped her papoose on her back and returned to civilization.

Al Bettingen, Charley Frank, Andy Keller and Ricky Hassalo were soon to-day wending their way from the railroad depot to their respective homes each bending under the weight of a big gunny sack full of jack rabbits. They had been up in the neighborhood of Castle Rock since Sunday and are reported to have slaughtered between 75 and 100 head. Just what they did with all the rabbits is not known by this deponent. He only knows that his visions of hare soup have vanished into thin air.

Seth Morgan requests THE CHRONICLE to announce that there will be a meeting at the Star lodging house at 2 o'clock next Saturday afternoon, for the purpose of organizing a socialist club.

THE CHRONICLE gladly published the announcement. This latest outgrowth of the sixteen-to-one-or-bust lunacy is to be encouraged as it affords a channel for the harmless discharge of anti-republican effervescence. The more socialists the fewer democrats, and the fewer democrats the better for the country all round.

The troubles of Paul Mohr's transportation line from Spokane to Portland have assumed a new phase. Contractors Winters and Chapman have been awarded a judgment for $30,000 against the Central Navigation & Construction Company, which built the road around the falls at The Dalles. The intervening suits of A. A. Hutchinson for $300,000, and Joseph Auerbach for $57,000, as holders of bonds issued by Mohr's company, have been dismissed. It is probable, however, that the sale of the road to satisfy Winters and Chapman's judgment will be postponed for the pending appeal.

The argument in the case of Brown and Maddox vs. the Oregon King Mining Company was completed yesterday afternoon, says today's Oregonian. Judge Bellinger charged the jury, and they retired about 4 p.m. to deliberate upon their verdict. A little before 7 p.m. they came into court and returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs. It will be remembered that the case was tried at the spring term of the United States court, and a verdict was rendered in favor of plaintiffs, but this was set aside by Judge Bellinger, on error in law. The mine is situated at Ashwood, seventeen miles south of Antelope, in Crook county. The value of the mine cannot be definitely known, but it is stated that an offer of $300,000 has been made for it and the prospective value is very much greater. A large amount of rich rock has been taken out by the company, which it is understood will still belong to them.

The remains of the late Mrs. M. J. Atwell, of Cascade Locks, were brought to town on the noon train today, and were laid to rest in the Odd Fellows cemetery this afternoon, the funeral being held at the undertaking rooms of Crandall & Burgett. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Walker, pastor of the M. E. church at the locks of which Mrs. Atwell had been a member for the past six years. The deceased was a native of the state of Pennsylvania, where she was born November 7, 1820. Her maiden name was Harvey and she was married in 1840 to C. E. Williams, a resident of Illinois. From that state she and her husband started to cross the plains in 1852 but her husband died on the way. Arriving that year at the locks she was married in 1853 to Mr. Atwell and the following year the couple took up what is known as the Atwell Donation Land claim. On this claim Mrs. Atwell lived until the final summons came. Mrs. Atwell was a most worthy Christian woman, greatly beloved and respected by all who knew her.

[The Catholic Fair.

The Catholic fair opened last night at the Vogt opera house with a smaller attendance than the elaborate preparations of the lady managers deserved. First night, however, was not expected to draw a great crowd. That will undoubtedly come later on. The hall was handsomely decorated and the numerous booths, which were filled with such articles of use and ornament as were fitted to open the purse of the most miserly, were canopied with Japanese umbrellas and brilliantly lighted with Chinese lanterns. A small army of irresistible young ladies and most persuasive matrons did the soliciting act to perfection and few there were of the other sex who didn't leave the hall with their pockets stuffed with as many toys and Yankee notions as old Santa Claus himself will have on his Christmas round.

THE CHRONICLE representative was particularly interested in noting the numerous and valuable presents that had been contributed to the fair by the business men and private citizens of The Dalles. Among the list is a magnificent silver-mounted gavel which will be disposed of to the most popular fraternal order; a beautiful chafing dish, which will be given to the most popular young lady; a Garland cook stove, the gift of Maier & Benton; a gent's bicycle, by Mayes & Crowe; patchwork quilt, Mrs. P. Gorman; three patchwork quilts, Mrs. J. Doherty; a buggy robe, H. L. Kuck; pair of white wool blankets, A. M. Williams & Co.; tailor-made suit of clothes, made to fit, the gift of Pease & Maye; jockey saddle, G. J. Farley; White sewing machine, Mrs. D. Handley; rocking chair, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Flynn; couch, Mrs. Chapman; chafing dish and French coffee pot, Mrs. Handley; set of carvers, Sexton & Walther; a 32-caliber Remington rifle, Mayes & Crowe; oil painting, Miss Lillie Seufert; really magnificent lot of needlework, Mrs. Hallie; a pair of portiers and a foot stool, gift of Mrs. Chapman; center table, Great Northern Furniture Co.; rocking chair, Prinz & Nitchke; dress pattern, A. M. Williams & Co.; $10 silk skirt, Pease & Maye; 30-pound scoured wool mattress, J. M. Russell; ladies gold watch, Father Bronson; rag carpet, Mrs. E. F. Sharp; an Elk's pillow, Mrs. Harkness; cigar ribbon pillow, Miss Katie Kelly; drawn work pillow, Mrs. Toomey; fancy designed pillow, sisters of St. Mary's Academy; valuable horse, H. E. Smith, of Sherman county.

The above is only a partial list, hurriedly taken, of a most elaborate collection of things useful and ornamental.
Sorosis Shoe Samples.

A representative of the Knight Shoe Co., of Portland, will be at the Umatilla House Annex, Wednesday and Thursday (today and tomorrow) only with a complete line of Sorosis and Walk-over samples and will be prepared to take orders for these justly celebrated lines. There is no more sensible or suitable holiday present than a pair of the Sorosis, the most stylish and comfortable as well as the most durable shoe ever seen in The Dalles. All are cordially invited to inspect the samples. Open until 10 p.m. both evenings.

Respectfully,
Knight Shoe Co.,
d18-1t per C. C. Coulter.

$25 REWARD.

We will pay $25 reward for the arrest and conviction of any person trespassing upon the football park, molesting or destroying the fence. Small boys who have been digging holes under the fence are liable to arrest and are included in the above.

There will be a special meeting of Columbia Lodge, No. 5, I. O. O. F. on Thursday, Dec. 19th, at 12:30 p.m., for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother, R. L. McIntosh, which will take place from the Calvary Baptist church at 1:30 p.m. All members and visiting brothers are requested to be present. By order of the N. G. O. D. Doane, secretary.

Will soon be here, and as nearly every one is looking for presents of some kind for father or mother, brother or sister or friend, I wish to say that we have a great many articles that will make a nice present for anyone, and as to price we can suit the smallest purse.

Come early and make your selections.
