

PASSING OF WELLINGTON.

Even a United States senator can be a very small man, says the Toledo Blade. Senator Wellington, of Maryland, looks like the "little end of nothing whittled down." He cuts no more figure in the senate than a half-pound of ice on a pavement in August. Wellington was sent to the senate by the Maryland legislature as a republican. He recommended a young man for appointment at Annapolis, and President McKinley gave notice that the appointment would be made. Then Wellington had some trouble with the young man's father, and wanted the appointment recalled, but the president refused to do so. Wellington became soured. Not only did he turn his back upon the president, but he refused to affiliate with the republican party. In short, he made a pale gray ass of himself. To cap the climax, he refused to express any regret at the assassination of President McKinley. Neither by word or act did he intimate that he was shocked or sorry. According to the Blade's Washington correspondent, Mr. Wellington is now an outcast, shunned by senators of both parties. He was not permitted to participate in the republican caucus. Members of the senate refuse to speak to him. Even the employees about the capitol building shun him. He is not recognized by the presiding officer until after other senators have secured recognition. Any other man with any sense of decency would not, under the circumstances, appear in public. Wellington has no sense of propriety, and he will, until the end of his term, continue to be a blot upon the senate, and then he will sink into deserved oblivion.

The La Grande Observer unconsciously makes a good plea for the selection of the next governor from Eastern Oregon. It says: "Since John Whiteaker, the first governor of the state, was chosen in 1859 from his farm on Spencer creek, in the hills a few miles south of Eugene, in Lane county, and about 130 miles from Portland, all the subsequent governors have been taken from their homes nearer to Portland than Whiteaker's farm. The Willamette valley has had all the governors but two, Woods and Moody, of The Dalles.

THE CHRONICLE is asked to say what the council is going to do with that block of open sewer on Laughlin street. THE CHRONICLE doesn't know. It does know, however, that should we have a hard freeze before something is done to cover it up, somebody will be sorry and several somebodies will be mad as wet hens.

The Salem Journal, that knows a heap of things that ain't so, says: "Senator Looney was in town Saturday fixing up political fences for a renomination. He is understood to be for Fulton for senator first and for Geer for governor. Fulton is also understood to be strongly pledged to Geer for governor."

A Washington dispatch to the Oregonian announces the excruciatingly thrilling news that "Simon, of Oregon, is beginning to look like a senator. He has a new suit of clothes, and he is spruced up until he looks more like a plate of fashion from the effete East than a Western statesman."

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boeckee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Blakeley's drug store. Get Green's Special Almanac. 1

Played Out.

Dull Headache, Pains in various parts of the body, Sinking at the pit of the stomach, Loss of appetite, Feverishness, Pimples or Sores are all positive evidences of impure blood. No matter how it became so it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acker's Blood Elixir has never failed to cure Scrofulous or Syphilitic poisons or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Blakeley, the druggist.

He Kept His Leg.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, "but," he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and 1 1-2 boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Sores and all blood disorders Electric Bitters has no rival on earth. Try them. G. C. Blakeley will guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Only 50 cents.

Health and Beauty.

A poor complexion is usually the result of a torpid liver or irregular action of the bowels. Unless nature's refuse is carried off it will surely cause impure blood. Pimples, boils and other eruptions follow. This is nature's method of throwing off the poisons which the bowels failed to remove. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are world famous for remedying this condition. They stimulate the liver and promote regular and healthy action of the bowels but never cause griping, cramps or distress. Safe pills. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Attractive Women.

All women sensibly desire to be attractive. Beauty is the stamp of health because it is the outward manifestation of inner purity. A healthy woman is always attractive, bright and happy. When every drop of blood in the veins is pure a beautiful flush is on the cheek. But when the blood is impure, moroseness, bad temper and a sallow complexion tell the tale of sickness all too plainly. And women today know there is no beauty without health. Wine of Cardui cures women with beauty and attractiveness by making strong and healthy those organs which make her a woman. Try Wine of Cardui, and in a month your friends will hardly know you.

Food Changed to Poison.

Putrefying food in the intestines produces effects like those of arsenic, but Dr. King's New Life Pills expel the poisons from clogged bowels, gently, easily but surely, curing Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Fevers, all Liver, Kidney and Bowel troubles. Don't Let Them Suffer.

Clean, fragrant, cheap, there's no salve on earth as good. Try it. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c at G. C. Blakeley's drug store. 4
