JOHN F. HAMPSHIRE,
County Treasurer.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Wanted—A girl to do housework. Apply to Mrs. N. Harris. d23-St.

A marriage license was issued Saturday afternoon to Caleb O. Stevens and Phoebe C. Allen, of Gilliam county.

A marriage license was issued Saturday afternoon to W. H. Gilbreth, of Lyle, Washington, and Miss Belle Calbreth, of this county.

R. J. Gilmore this morning commenced sowing wheat on his ranch over in North Dalles. The ground is said to be in fine condition for this purpose.

A petition has been filed in the office of the county clerk for the appointment of Mrs. Ida R. McIntosh as administrator of the estate of the late Robert L. McIntosh.

There will be no midnight mass at St. Peter's Catholic church Christmas eve, but instead there will be services at 5 o'clock Christmas morning, to be followed by services at 7 o'clock and high mass at 10:30.

The petition of Chas. P. Odell for probate of the will of the late Lela E. Odell has been filed in the office of the county clerk. The estate consists of 20 acres of land in the Hood River valley of the probate value of $800.

Those Pendleton Woolen Mills fleeced blankets exhibited in Herbring's show window are perfect beauties and are the pride of Eastern Oregon. They cost only $12 and are indeed one of the best Xmas presents a husband can make to his wife.

The Blue Mountain Eagle says: "The report that Gus Delore, who is wanted in Wheeler county to answer to a charge of rape, had been captured in Harney county and feally dealt with—must be a mistake, since all efforts of the Eagle have failed to confirm the report."

The Multnomah county circuit court granted six divorces Friday, three to husbands and three to wives. One woman was granted a divorce on the simple evidence that engaging home from the theater one night her husband became abusive and hit her head against a stairway. A husband hit his head against the same wall three would have been good reason for the divorce, but it must appear to a disinterested observer that the court granting divorce on such evidence is of a very accommodating turn of mind.

A large assortment of sample garments, consisting of ladies silk shirt waists, dress skirts, petticoats, etc., bought from a prominent manufacturer at 60 on the dollar will be sold at unheard of prices. Come early and secure one of these great bargains. H. Herbring.

The Salvation Army people are hard at work soliciting from the generous hearted people of The Dalles such articles of food and clothing as will give Christmas cheer to the poor deserving families of the city. Donations for this purpose will be thankfully received at the army headquarters.

"Why is it" said a lady the other day "that you can buy all fur collarettes, boas, ladies and misses jackets cheaper at Herbring's store than you can in Portland?" The answer was, "because he buys all these goods from the best manufacturers in New York and he is satisfied with a small profit."

Harry J. Dunn, of Goldendale, this morning concluded a bargain with C. J. Stubling for his retail store and fixtures, the conditions of the sale being that Mr. Dunn will take possession sometime between the first of January and the first of February. After Mr. Dunn takes possession Mr. Stubling will devote his entire attention to the wholesale business.

The Antelope Herald says: "Newt Burgess closed a good-sized cattle deal with W. J. Lauder of Salt Springs, last Saturday afternoon. He sold all of the cows he had left, amounting to about 100 head, at $30 per head, to be delivered on January 1st. This about closes out all of the cattle owned by T. Burgess & Son, with the exception of those kept by Newt for use at the dairy, at Lower Antelope."

Following is a list of those winning articles raffled at the Catholic fair Saturday evening: Bicycle, J. M. Toomey; couch, Mrs. J. George; center table, Annie O'Brien; portrait, S. F. Fouts, of Hood River; gold watch, Henry Herbring; doll, Newt Williamson; blankets, Mr. Hockman; stove, J. Bolton, of Kingsley; sewing machine, Mrs. P. Moore, Hood River; buggy robe, Judge Blakeley; horse, Mr. Nordhoff, of Seattle; jockey saddle, E. C. Weigel.

From the Antelope Herald we learn that Mr. T. Burgess, who for twenty-seven years has lived at Bake Oven, has sold that place, consisting of the Bake Oven ranch and adjoining lands, 3017 acres in all, to Henry Wakerlig, Sr., a prominent stockman of that vicinity. The consideration was $10,500, and Mr. Wakerlig takes possession of the valuable property on the first of January 1902. Mr. Burgess has since 1874 been closely identified with the business interests of Wasco county, and his departure from Bake Oven will remove one of the familiar landmarks of that vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess have not yet decided where they will locate, but it will probably be near one or the other of their children.

The voting at the Catholic fair for the most popular young lady resulted in a victory for Miss Annie O'Brien. The voters also declared that Mr. J. A. McArthur was the most popular elk, that the Elks was the most popular fraternal order and that J. S. Fish owned the best horse on the footstool, or words to that effect. The voters declared that Senator Williamson was the most popular man in Wasco county, and the vote gave him a handsome crayon, which the senator generously presented to the gentleman whose vote was next to his.

The Vogt opera house will have a strong attraction in "A Romance of Coon Hollow," which appears there next Monday evening, Dec. 20th, and which has as its principal card the favorite little star, Iola Pomeroy. The play will have an elegant scenic production, with a select cast, and, as added features, a quartette in songs of the South, and a troupe of plantation dancers stated to be of unusual merit. There will be a score of people in the cast. The comedy is entering upon its eighth season of success, which is the best testimonial to its merits.

What Democracy Needs.—"The dimmyeratic party," says Mr. Dooley, "ain't on speakin' terms with itself." He advises the party to advertise for a suitable candidate and suggests the following qualifications for a representative standard bearer: "Wanted. A good, active, energetic dimmyeratic, strong iv lung an' limb; must be in favor iv sound money, but not too sound, an' anti-imperyalist, but fr' holdin' onto what we've got, an' inimy iv thru-sta, but a friand iv organized capital, a sympathizer with th' crushed an' downtrodden people, but not be any means hostile to vested inthrests; must advocate strikes, gover'mint be injunction, free silver, sound money, greenbacks, a single tax, a tariff fr' rivinoo, th' constinution to follow th' flag as far as it can an' no farther, civil service rayform iv th' la'ads in office an' all th' gr-reat an' gl'orious principals iv our gr-reat an' gl'orious party or anny gr-reat an' gl'orious parts thereof."

Sheriff Kelly got back last night from Salem where he took a Japanese named R. Skiguchi, to the insane asylum. The Jap had been employed as a cook for Babe Mays of Antelope creek. Babe got him in Portland and the Jap wasn't long in his employ till Babe found him building a fire in the oven of the kitchen stove instead of in the fire place. On being reconstituted with the Jap took to the front yard and bombarded the house with rocks. When driven off the premises he wandered around the hills for two or three days and picking up on his travels three dead hawks brought them to Babe and insisted on his buying them, claiming that they would make the finest kind of "Melican soup." Babe didn't want any hawk soup and had the Jap arrested. On the way here the sheriff and the Jap stopped overnight at the Shaniko hotel. About 2 o'clock in the morning the Jap opened his bedroom window and taking the blankets with him jumped a distance of twenty feet to the ground, where he landed without a scratch. He was soon found and confined more securely until 8 o'clock in the morning when the sheriff started with him to Salem. Skiguchi is a stout young fellow of 34 years of age. He had been eight years in the Japanese army and for a number of years had been a sailor. He is as crazy as a bedbug but his craziness is generally more amusing than violent.
