

THE REASON.

When President Roosevelt asked the members of the McKinley cabinet to remain with him it was generally believed that it would be but a few months before there would be a general reconstruction of the chief magistrate's board of advisers.

There have been no serious differences between Mr. Roosevelt and his cabinet. They were all men in whom he had confidence, and their abilities have not been questioned.

It is not thought that Secretaries Smith and Gage retired because of any intimation that their services were not acceptable. They sought private life because they have probably had enough of the public service.

Mr. Hitchcock is having trouble with the Missouri republican; that may lead him to give up his cabinet position, if only to bring about harmony; and Secretary Long, wearied from having steered the navy department through a war, and irritated over disputes that have grown out of that war, would probably welcome a relief from official cares.

There are few men entering a cabinet who do not make more money in private life than the salary they receive from the government.

NO DOUBT.

There is no pessimism about the East Oregonian when it comes to the senatorial fight. Hear what it says in the last issue:

"Occasionally it occurs to the observant citizen as passing strange that the people of Oregon should seem to be in doubt as to the outcome of the present senatorial fight, in so far as it concerns Joseph Simon. That anyone should believe this commonwealth might again make the mistake of sending him to the upper national house, is inexplicable.

"That he is regarded as even an element in the problem is testimony to the debauchery of Oregon republican party politics. The stigma of Simonism has been upon this state. He has degraded the voter. He has prostituted the suffrage. He has prevented the needed legislation. He has been the willing tool who has operated to delay Columbia river improvements. He has controlled the republican machinery in the interests of his employing corporations. He has made good men ashamed to take part in party management. He has disgraced his high born privileges as an American citizen. He has been to the youth an exemplar to follow whom would be the wrecking of one's character.

"And Oregon seems to doubt whether he may be defeated! With men such as H. W. Scott and C. W.

Fulton as available senatorial timber!"

Secretary Wilson has issued an order directing that all horses and cattle from the Philippines shall be excluded from the United States, it having been discovered by the department's agents that the Filipino horses are affected with surra, while the cattle have what is called rinderpest. The American stockraiser will be protected at all hazards.

Health and Beauty.

A poor complexion is usually the result of a torpid liver or irregular action of the bowels. Unless nature's refuse is carried off it will surely cause impure blood. Pimples, boils and other eruptions follow. This is nature's method of throwing off the poisons which the bowels failed to remove. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are world famous for remedying this condition. They stimulate the liver and promote regular and healthy action of the bowels but never cause griping, cramps or distress. Safe pills. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Attractive Women.

All women sensibly desire to be attractive. Beauty is the stamp of health because it is the outward manifestation of inner purity. A healthy woman is always attractive, bright and happy. When every drop of blood in the veins is pure a beautiful flush is on the cheek. But when the blood is impure, moroseness, bad temper and a sallow complexion tells the tale of sickness all too plainly. And women today know there is no beauty without health. Wine of Cardui cures women with beauty and attractiveness by making strong and healthy those organs which make her a woman. Try Wine of Cardui, and in a month your friends will hardly know you.

$25 REWARD.

"I wish to say that I owe my life to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure," writes H. C. Chrestenson of Hayfield, Minn. "For three years I was troubled with dyspepsia so that I could hold nothing on my stomach. I read one of your advertisements on Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and thought it fit my case and commenced its use. I began to improve from the first bottle. Now I am cured and recommend it to all."
