WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Visit the barber shops early tonight.

A marriage license was granted today to H. F. Lage and Violet Grace Lamson, both of Hood River.

C. Fredericksen was disorderly to the extent of $2 worth yesterday, but upon being arrested failed to pay fine and served out his time.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Pauline Shelley, daughter of Rev. Troy Shelley of Hood River, to Mr. Guy Talmage of Portland.

Mrs. Roberts writes from Spokane that the condition of her son, D. H., does not seem to improve, and but little change is now noticeable from day to day.

Lost—Last night, either in the Baldwin opera house or on the streets, a white spangled fan, with pink ribbons attached. Finder please leave at this office. d28-2t

Alvah W. Patterson, of Oregon, who has held a high position in the census office for over two years, has been transferred as attorney in the interior department.

After tomorrow (Sunday) the steamer Tahoma, of the White Collar line, will leave Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. This will make the boat run on alternate days with the Regulator of the D. P. & A. N. line. d28-2t

It is to be regretted that two of the most prominent members of the Wasco Warehouse Milling Company will be unable to attend the banquet tonight, D. M. and Smith French being confined to their homes by illness.

It is gratifying to the managers of the club to note the renewed interest being taken in bowling. Last night, in an enthusiastic game, Joe Vogt came near breaking the record of 81 held by Vic Schmidt, when he stacked up a score of 77.

The Dalles Dramatic Club has received an invitation to open the new opera house at Wasco some time about the 15th of January and is at present considering the proposition. The building is a neat structure, shaded, and was completed in time for a ball Christmas night. C. E. Dawson, of this city, is now engaged in painting the scenes for the stage setting.

It is a disappointment to many who desire to attend the football game that another date could not have been chosen for the game when all our people, including those whose principles are against Sunday playing, could have enjoyed the game.

A raffle of a few articles donated for the Catholic fair took place yesterday and Mrs. B. Sinnott won the portieres, holding No. 5; Mrs. James Carnaby the silk skirt, No. 28; Mrs. Adolph Christian the coffee pot, No. 81. Instead of Mrs. Peter Moran as mentioned recently, Mrs. John Moran won the sewing machine.

It seems that one of our Dalles boys, who is a student at the state university, is distinguishing himself as an actor. Speaking of a war drama recently given there a Eugene paper says: "Among the gentlemen, the strenuous part of Arthur Stubling, as Fernando Dias, was the most difficult, but he acted it to perfection."

A Kansas editor makes this report, after attending church recently. "Ladies should take off their hats in church. No preacher can inspire a man who is looking into a lopsided aggregation of dead birds, stuffed wessels, chameleon skins, ribbons, beads, jets, sticks, straws, corn, paper, tassels and thistle down. It makes a sinner feel lost in the wilderness."

Sunday morning the Regulator will leave the dock for Portland, where she will be tied up for repairs, consisting principally of putting in new steam pipes, which will increase her capacity, allowing her to carry 200 pounds of steam. As soon as the Regulator is back on the run the Dalles City will undergo repairs, when new engines will be placed in her.

If cleanliness be next to godliness and The Dalles be judged by the condition of some of its crosswalks, then must it be counted among the most ungodly, for in some localities it is an utter impossibility to cross them and one is forced to go the longest way round to get to the nearest point. Now, this should be remedied, and a force of men put to work at once cleaning them.

The Dalles has evidently determined to swear off on diphtheria New Year's day; or, in other words it looks as if it would swear off on us. Quarantine Officer Van Anda has lost his job and so far as we can learn, but two houses are now under quarantine—J. Cowie's and Dr. Sanders', both cases being so light that the patients are without fever and are so well it's a hard matter for even the quarantine law to make them believe anything is the matter with them.

So far as learned none of The Dalles sports will attend the rabbit drive near Lake tomorrow, but it is expected large crowds will go from Wells Walls, Fox Station, Hoppner and Arlington. Corral have been made with two wings, each one-half mile in length. The distance to drive is a mile and a quarter. No guns or dogs are allowed. It is expected that 5000 rabbits will be driven into corrals. Last year with wings only one-fourth of a mile in length and a small crowd of people 2000 were captured and killed. The rabbits are numerous and with a long line of drivers and better facilities bunny will probably be in great danger.

Everything is now in readiness for the football game tomorrow at 2 o'clock sharp. An admission of 50 cents for gentlemen and 25 cents for ladies will be charged and from the enthusiasm manifested a large audience will witness the game. No. 1 being late, the Heppner team failed to arrive in time to secure their line-up for publication. The Dalles line-up will, however, be as follows: Cooper, f b; Max Bartell, l h; Williams, r h; Murray, q b; Allard, c; Stubling, l g; Frizzell or Brown, r g; J. D. Elton, l t; Earle, r t; Scott, l e; Smith or Groehler, r e; G. E. Bartell, Starr, Patterson, Omeg, sube.

By way of adding to the enjoyment of their holiday week a number of the young ladies of the high school gave a masquerade party at the Baldwin last night, to which were invited a few of their friends. A number of unique costumes were worn by the maskers and the boys and girls had a jolly time attempting to discover each other. The participants being confined mostly to the younger crowd, whose enthusiasm knows no bounds, the enjoyment was complete. The music was good, being furnished by Birgfeld at the piano. The patronesses were: Mesdames W. H. Wilson, A. M. Kelsay, P. H. Flynn, T. A. Hudson, O. Kinsley, A. Thornbury, J. Michell, J. B. Crossen, N. Harris, W. H. Moody, R. H. Guthrie and Miss Michell.

In every community are found men who in the various walks of life contribute of their wisdom and the knowledge gained by years of labor along a special line to the advancement of the section of country in which they live, and the real benefit derived from that knowledge, gratuitously given, is seldom fully appreciated until their life work is ended. Such an one was Enil Schanno, and though dead yet will he speak to us through the columns of the New Year's edition of the Oregonian, in which will appear an article from his pen regarding the horticultural interest of the state. Many not personally interested in that subject will no doubt peruse the last message of the writer, whose advice was of such benefit to Wasco county's fruit raisers.

A few of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Houghton were entertained at eaches last night at their home on Court street. Holly had been tastefully used in decorating the parlors and made the rooms look most inviting. At the close of the games Messrs. McCoy and Peters were found to be entitled to the head prize and Mrs. Pease the consolation prize. The lunch was exceptionally fine and served in the daintiest manner, after which the remainder of the evening was passed in guessing charades, which afforded much amusement. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Bennett, Peters, Logan, McCoy, Fish, Pease, E. French, Hosteller, Mrs. Carlyle, Mrs. Seufert, Mrs. Lord, Miss Marden, Judge Bradshaw and H. M. Beall.

"Is he a counterfeiter as well as a thief?" and where to find him are the questions that are now agitating the minds of the officials regarding one George Johnson, Wm. Buchanan, or whatever his name may be. He came to the Obar hotel about a week since and registered under the first alias, afterward claiming his real name was Buchanan. It now develops that his first name is "thief" and his second bids fair to be "counterfeiter." On Christmas morning he skipped, leaving his board bill unpaid, and appropriating as Christmas gifts a watch valued at $40, belonging to a young lady who works in the hotel; also a number of valuable coins, which he swiped from another roomer. In his room he left a number of counterfeiter's tools and other evidences which have led to the suspicion that he may have been the culprit who has been manufacturing the bogus nickels which have been used in the nickel-in-the-slot machines about town.

A Tennessee Romance.

The romantic play, "A Romance of Coon Hollow," tells a picturesque story of Southern love and intrigue in a way that appeals to an audience. The story is enhanced by scenic and mechanical effects that give it local color and life and add sensation to its modest recital. Among the scenes are that of a burglary, where the midnight mechanic plies his calling under the cover of night; a ponderous cotton press in operation; a duel in a mountain glen, and the historical steamboat race between the Robert E. Lee and the Natchez on the Mississippi at night with the boats lighted up and under steam. A view of the wood landing, with colored boys and girls in twilight darkey revels, songs and dances, is one of the prettiest effects of the play. An excellent quartette, a really great troupe of dancers, and a strong company, headed by the popular little star, Iola Pomeroy, complete the features of "Coon Hollow," which will be given at the Vogt Monday night.

Trilby and Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters

For Wood and Lighter Fuel.

The introduction of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heater has revolutionized the heating stove trade in all sections of the United States. Its wonderful economy in the use of fuel, and many other excellent qualities, strongly recommend it to all in need of a heating stove.

What Cole's Heater Will Do.

This stove will heat a room from zero to 80 degrees in five minutes. It will heat your house evenly day and night. It holds fire 36 hours without attention. You build only one fire each winter. It burns chips, bark, leaves, paper and corn cobs, and gives excellent results with this fuel, which is ordinarily wasted. The stove is light and easily moved and set up. The combustion is perfect and ashes are removed only once in four weeks. None of the heat is wasted and the stove will save one-half of your fuel bill. It is clean, economical, convenient, safe and durable.

Every one of Cole's Original Air-Tight Heaters is guaranteed to stay air-tight as long as used. Where wood is used for fuel every family should have one or more of these stoves.
