

MUST GET TOGETHER.

According to the Portland Oregonian there are five eminent members of the republican party who aspire for nomination of governor at the hands of their party.

Here we have three candidates from Eastern Oregon. This number is far too many, for the simple reason that all three cannot be nominated and for the further reason that each one of the three stands in the way of the other being nominated.

As the East Oregonian was the first to propose that an Eastern Oregon man endeavor to secure the nomination and to arouse republicans to their opportunity in this connection, it considers it has the right to make a suggestion, and it is this:

Let the forces of the three Eastern Oregon candidates get together and ascertain as they can the relative strength of each man, and thereby ascertain the strongest candidate of the three.

If this is done an Eastern Oregon man will be given the nomination and become the next governor of Oregon. If it is not done, "any old thing" may happen and Eastern Oregon be still engaged in hunting political snipe while playing in the hands of the wily politicians west of the mountains.

There are times when it is best to look a gift horse in the mouth and to be frank with ourselves. There is nothing to be gained in fighting and pulling among ourselves, while the other fellow gets away with the permission.

The Eastern Oregon men should get together and settle the difference between them. It is not an impossible thing to do. And it is the most sensible thing that could be done. There is milk in it!—East Oregonian.

The appointment of Gov. Leslie M. Shaw, of Iowa, to be secretary of the treasury, to succeed Lyman J. Gage, is an excellent selection. Governor Shaw was one of the earliest and most ardent of the country's gold standard advocates.

The sub-committee of the committee of senators and representatives from the Pacific slope charged with drafting a bill for the irrigation of arid lands in the west has completed a draft of a bill for that purpose and it is to be presented at a meeting to be held after the holidays.

Health and Beauty.

A poor complexion is usually the result of a torpid liver or irregular action of the bowels. Unless nature's refuse is carried off it will surely cause impure blood. Pimples, boils and other eruptions follow. This is nature's method of throwing off the poisons which the bowels failed to remove.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are world famous for remedying this condition. They stimulate the liver and promote regular and healthy action of the bowels but never cause griping, cramps or distress. Safe pills. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Attractive Women.

All women sensibly desire to be attractive. Beauty is the stamp of health because it is the outward manifestation of inner purity. A healthy woman is always attractive, bright and happy.

When every drop of blood in the veins is pure a beautiful flush is on the cheek. But when the blood is impure, morose, bad temper and a sallow complexion tell the tale of sickness all too plainly. And women today know there is no beauty without health.

Wine of Cardui cures women with beauty and attractiveness by making strong and healthy those organs which make her a woman. Try Wine of Cardui, and in a month your friends will hardly know you.
