MIT KINGS EXCEPT KILBANE SIT SECURE

By Henry L. Farrell
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, April 4. — With the possible exception of Johnny Kilbane all of the pugilistic champions seem firmly seated on their thrones after one of the biggest winters in the history of boxing.

Johnny Wilson, the middleweight champion and one of those whom the bugs said, "He's done for, the first time he defends the title," was the last to prove himself the best in his class.

Wilson is far from what the American expects in a ring champion, but nevertheless he proved himself the best in the division by defeating Mike O'Dowd, ranked the next best, for the second time.

The Boston Italian, when O'Dowd was charging the referee who took the title away from him with larceny came out with a line that may follow him to the end of his career—"There are a lot of boys who can beat me, but Mike O'Dowd is one that I can whip every night in the week."

O'Dowd not only lost his bid for the crown he used to wear, but he demonstrated that he is not to be considered any more in middleweight matters. He seems in short to have reached the peak of his power and is now going down the other side.

Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion, was the only titleholder to remain inactive during the winter. Several times it seemed he would defend his title, but the negotiations were never completed. It would not surprise close followers of the sport if the Cleveland Irishman never pulled on the gloves again. He is a veteran in years and experience and unless he can be tempted by a huge purse to go through tedious training for a fight, it is not at all unlikely that he will announce his retirement this summer.

As was said of Johnny Wilson before he gave O'Dowd a return fight, the fans were predicting all winter that the first good featherweight to get in the ring with Kilbane would take the title away from him. However, this is not a unanimous opinion by a long way. Matt Hinkle, Cleveland millionaire and one of the best authorities in the United States, maintains that Kilbane is not at the end of his string and that if he wants to come out, he can still beat any boy in the class.

Benny Leonard is supreme in the lightweight class. Lew Tendler and Willie Jackson are the next best in the class and they are both "scared to death" of the champion. When Benny disposed of Joe Wetling and Richie Mitchell during the winter, he removed the really dangerous contenders from the field.

"Old Man" Britton gave evidence in trouncing Ted Lewis that he is still the best of the welterweights. Lou Bogash has been considered as worthy of a chance for the title, but he is far from ready, as the "grand old man" knows too much for him.

FLOWER BASKETS FOR THE TOWN BEAUTIFUL

It is flower-box time—if we are to have the town beautiful again this year. Every home in this town should be a bank of flowers. Let's make it so with flower boxes, flower beds and flower gardens. One of the newest beauty boxes is a huge flower box basket which may be moved all about the porch—or from window to window.

Joe Lynch has had a lot of contenders following him since he took the title from Pete Herman, but he also seems safely housed with the crown.

As to Jack Dempsey, it is merely a matter of opinion. The heavyweight champion lost a lot of prestige when Bill Brennan stayed with him for twelve rounds. The reasons attributed for the failure of the "Toledo Lion" to dispose of Brennan in a round or two are many and varied, but the fact remains that Dempsey defeated the most likely contender in America and that seems the main purpose of the game.

Carpentier looks safe for life as the light heavyweight king, unless he decides to give Tommy Gibbons a chance at the title. The St. Paul boy is the only one at the weight who seems to have enough to extend the Frenchman.

Jimmy Wilde isn't considered the marvel that he used to be since Pete Herman knocked him out, but he still looks to be better than any boy who will make the weight for him.

EXCAVATORS OF 5921 TO BE GIVEN 1921 SAMPLES

By United Press
LONDON, (By mail.)—Four thousand years hence—perhaps more—some enterprising excavator may dig up a wonderful "find," showing the customs of the people of this country.

Whether the excavator digs it up or no, the evidence will be there, because at present quite a number of people are busy "planting" it. Should the excavator happen on it, however he will discover from documents that in the year 1921 a building had been erected in Aldwych by the Bush Terminal company and with the thoughtful idea of perpetuating the memory of the civilization of the 20th century they had hidden in reinforced concrete beneath the foundations, samples of the contemporary merchandise.

A safety razor will prove to the bearded soldier of four thousand years hence that there was a time when men carefully removed all the hair from their faces. A bottle of pickles 4000 years old may puzzle him some, and there's no telling what he'll make out of a pre-war continental railway guide.

H. G. Wells has been asked to compile a list of things to be buried for the benefit of this far anticipated excavator and if the chest contains all the articles suggested by Wells, the amazed finder will believe himself in a new Aladdin's cave.

An official of the Bush Terminal company, outlining the scheme, explained that in an excavation which is made airtight and watertight by concrete several feet thick articles might be preserved for hundreds or thousands of years.

What the Casino Theatre Management Promises the People of The Dalles

Commencing Thursday Evening, April 9, at 8:15 p. m., three days thereafter at 2:15 and 8:15 p. m.

DAVID WARK GRIFFITH will, for the first time in this vicinity, present personally and under his own direction the most remarkable motion picture production, and at the same time the most notable artistic effort in the history of the theatre in this or any other city. It is his latest and greatest work, "WAY DOWN EAST."

In this treatment of "Way Down East," MR. GRIFFITH HAS EVOLVED A NEW ART. It is a rare combination of painting, play and story tensesly interwoven into a fabric absolutely new in the annals of the theatre, it is the sensation of the season in New York, and at present (now in its 39th week) is playing to the largest NUMBER OF PEOPLE THAT EVER ATTENDED A THEATRE, with prices ranging from $1.00 to $5.00.

Following the opening performance in New York, on Sept. 3, the New York Herald stated: "IT IS WELL WORTH TEN DOLLARS A SEAT."

The plain record from cities, where this attraction is now holding sway, and being shown to eager throngs that daily pack the theatres to capacity, is that NO THEATRICAL ATTRACTION EVER DREW SUCH PRAISE or attracted such crowds as "WAY DOWN EAST."

This would bear out the assertion of the New York Globe that it is "THE GREATEST SPECTACLE EVER SEEN ON LAND OR SEA," or that of the Boston Herald, which editorially declared it to be "ONE OF THE WONDERS OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY."

Arrangements for the presentation of this production at the CASINO THEATRE in The Dalles, carry Mr. Griffith's assurance that "Way Down East" will be presented here with the same care as elsewhere. The presenting organization is a large one and includes a special symphony orchestra.

PRICES for the Local Presentation—Matinees 50c and $1.00 (Plus Tax) - Evenings $1.00 and $1.50

All Seats for Evening Presentations Reserved

Reservations now being accepted at Box Office of Theatre.

Box Office open especially for this engagement from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Phone Red 3921.

NOTE—Owing to the many requests already made for reservations, the management not only requests, but urges the public to make their reservations early. It insures not only choice seats, but avoids standing in line at show time. Positively no standing room sold. No admittance after presentation starts—which will be promptly at hour advertised.

Free List During this Engagement Absolutely Suspended.
