

NEWS NOTES

Open Insurance Office — M. M. Phipps, who has been bookkeeper for the Walther-Williams company for a number of years, has resigned his position to open an insurance office at 401 East Third street.

Wintermute Baby Buried—Funeral services for the two-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wintermute were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Burget-Mogan company's funeral home. Death occurred yesterday morning. Burial was in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Safety Committee Meeting — A meeting of The Dalles local committee of safety will be held Monday afternoon, April 11, at 1:30 o'clock, in the room adjacent to the yardmaster's office. All railroad employes and other persons interested in the public safety movement are invited to be present.

To Serve 90 Days in Jail — Roy Buell and Marion Phillips yesterday started serving a 90-day sentence in the county jail. Both were committed from Hood River county, upon a charge of possession of intoxicating liquor. Fines of $100 apiece were also imposed in the sentence.

Anti Saloon League Director in City—Dr. W. T. S. Spriggs of Portland spent Monday and Tuesday of this week in The Dalles in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon. A field day is being planned for early in June and Dr Spriggs was engaged in securing the co-operation of the local religious forces.

Community Service Rally for East Hill—A big community service rally is planned for Wednesday evening at the East Hill school. All the people residing between Kelley avenue and the east city limits are invited to the program. Practical demonstrations of community singing, group games, lantern pictures, and several numbers by the East Hill school orchestra will occupy the evening. Representatives will be elected by those present, to act on the community council.

Second Community Luncheon—The second community luncheon will be held at the Y. W. C. A. rooms over the Black and White restaurant Thursday, beginning promptly at 12:15 o'clock. Those in charge of the affair desire to assure the public that the luncheon and program will occupy but one hour as the chairman's gavel will fall for adjournment at exactly 1:15 o'clock. Come out to this affair and join in the discussions on subjects of current interest.

Mrs. Clara Blackburne Dies—Mrs. Clara Blackburne, 79 years old, a resident of Sherman county for more than 30 years, died yesterday morning at her home near Banks. She is survived by two sons, Albert E., of Arlington, and George W., of Rufus; one daughter, Mrs. Minnie C. Harley of Portland and seven grandchildren. Eight other children are dead. Funeral services were held in Wasco this afternoon. Burial was in the Wasco cemetery.

Fire Destroys Barn—Awakened by roaring, crackling noise, Miles Ferguson, who resides on a ranch near the lower Eight Mile school house, got up shortly after 4 o'clock this morning to see his large barn a mass of flames. A few milch cows were rescued from the flames, but Mr. Ferguson was unable to extricate four head of horses from their stalls and they were burned. Forty tons of hay, a new drill, wagons and an automobile were also destroyed. No insurance was carried on the structure or contents. The fire is believed to have started from spontaneous combustion.

Big Meeting of Churchmen—The April meeting of the Ministerial association of the city was held yesterday, in the public library. After discussion, it was decided to eliminate the supper in connection with the big meeting of churchmen, which is to be held in the Methodist church, Monday evening, April 18. A musical program with Dr. Ralph McAfee of Portland as principal speaker and a number of local speakers will occupy the evening. W. H. Arbury, of Community Service, addressed the ministers on co-operation in serving the recreational needs of the city.

Michael Manning Dies—Michael J. Manning, 56 years old, formerly a Wasco county wool buyer with headquarters in The Dalles, died Sunday morning in his home in Portland after a brief illness. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary A. Manning and two daughters, May Manning and Mrs. Catherine McCarthy, both of Portland. The body will arrive in The Dalles this evening, where it will be cared for by the Crandall Undertaking company. Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from the Catholic church. Burial will be in the Catholic cemetery.

Baptist Ladies All-Day Service — The ladies of the Baptist church will hold an all day meeting at the church tomorrow. Dr. F. R. Brazeau will address them from 3 to 4 o'clock.

Fire Badly Damages House—Fire, originating in the basement of the home of W. B. Stevens, 414 Fulton street, yesterday afternoon badly damaged the walls and roof of the building, in addition to destroying a large amount of household goods owned by Stevens. The cause of the fire is not known. Mrs. Stevens was at home at the time, presiding over a birthday party in celebration of the 10th birthday anniversary of her daughter, Margaret. She was just preparing to serve ice cream, which was standing in a freezer in the basement, when she noticed smoke. Opening the basement door, she found the entire basement a mass of flames. The fire had gained considerable headway by the time the fire department arrived, having crept to the roof through the wall partitions. An hour's fast, work by the firemen extinguished the blaze. The house is owned by E. C. Fitzgerald, and rented by Stevens. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

Community Service Committee Chosen—A small but enthusiastic and interested group gathered at the council chamber of the city hall last evening to discuss Community Service, interesting talks were delivered by Chairman J. T. Rorick, Mrs. Smith French, F. W. Woolley, H. W. Arbury and Miss Anne Lang. Plans for a permanent local organization were considered and the following citizens were elected to serve on the permanent community council: F. J. Richards, Mrs. Joseph Stadelman, Dr. F. R. Brazeau, J. T. Rorick, Miss Anne Lang, Mrs. D. M. French, E. F. Van Schoick, F. W. Woolley and Mrs. J. M. Smith. A similar meeting will be held at the East Hill school building Wednesday evening of this week. A program of music, plays and games and a short stereopticon lecture by The Rev. John L. Bogue will precede the business meeting.

R. L. Kirk Re-Elected Treasurer — City School Superintendent R. L. Kirk and Director Albert S. Roberts, returned Saturday from Spokane, where they attended the twenty-third annual session of the Inland Empire Teachers' association. More than 2400 teachers and other persons interested in educational matters were registered at the meetings. Several speakers of national prominence gave addresses in the general assembly which has held each forenoon. The afternoons were divided among a number of sectional meetings, such as school superintendents', modern languages, science, manual arts and teachers'. Superintendent Kirk was reelected as treasurer of the association. Superintendent D. A. Grout of Portland was elected president of the association. Merits and demerits of legislation passed by the legislatures of the Pacific northwestern states at the last session, came in for considerable discussion by the assembled educators.
