

PEGGY JOYCE PLANS TO GET MILLION IN DIVORCE

By United News
NEW YORK, April 15.—If J. Stanley Joyce, the Chicago millionaire husband of Peggy Hopkins Joyce, former Follies beauty, gets rid of her for $1,000,000, he may consider that he has obtained his freedom at a bargain price, the pretty Peggy declared Wednesday in her expensive Park avenue apartments where she is in seclusion from process servers.

"I'll get a million, and then some more," the fair defendant in the Joyce annulment suit is quoted as saying through the closed door of her home, "and I can promise some startling things about Mr. Joyce if it comes to a showdown."

The reason why she is not opening the door to any more callers just now was understood to be that the summons in the annulment suit was served by a uniformed messenger boy whom she unsuspectingly admitted, after outwitting regular process servers.

sorts of questions at the speaker. All the delegates, down to the humblest gray-bearded peasant, displayed remarkable skill in discussion. It was most fantastic to see 'kerchiefed peasant women rise and interpose a question, but all conducted themselves with dignity and decorum, as though they were long accustomed to parliamentary debate. Often where a delegate was too diffident or for some other reason did not wish to take the floor, he would write his question or objection on a sheet of paper and pass it up to the speaker.

I noted that in the Petrograd soviet, as in the others I visited, almost all shades of political opinion were represented. The communist faction was counter-balanced by social democrats and social revolutionaries, and here and there was a sprinkling of anarchists. The delegates addressed each other from the platform or the floor as "tavarish," (comrade.)

When finally the vote was taken by a show of hands, I was astonished at the overwhelming majority the measure received. Puzzled, I turned to my interpreter and said: "I didn't know they were all in favor of the measure. For a moment I thought the opposition was very strong." He, however, explained that while many objected to the measure previous to discussion, they had reversed themselves without hesitation when they learned that the future of Russia depended upon work. This seemed to be typical of the workings of the Russian mind as I encountered it everywhere. The Russian workmen and peasant honestly believe in the efficiency of a public exchange of ideas and are perfectly willing to be convinced if only the question at issue has been completely thrashed out. Not only did the soviet pass the compulsory labor measure, but it considered at some length the advisability of "Sabotny," which means giving up holidays and working without pay on those days for the government.

Comes to you and the children if you have Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the house. For "little-ones" and "grown-ups" this old-fashioned vegetable tonic and blood-maker is still used by the million bottles every year. It was first used by everybody 50 years ago and is still safe and sane because it contains no alcohol or narcotic. It is made up of Blood root, Oregon Grape root, Queen's root, Stone root, Cherry Bark, without alcohol. Make your blood redder and your health better by going to your nearest druggist and obtaining Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in tablet or liquid form.

WALLA WALLA, WASH.—When I had the measles I went out a little too soon and took cold on my lungs. I had sharp pains. I took some medicine that I got from the drug store but nothing did me much good until I took a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It did me great good. The 'Discovery' has done my mother and father lots of good, too, for neuralgia.—Miss FLORENCE BOONE, Linden St., Route 2, Box 8.

day had been disposed of, the special delegates and guests were invited to speak. Madame Revitch, representing both the foreign office and the government workers trade union, a most beautiful and intelligent gentleman, addressed the meeting. Maxim Gorky and his wife were called on. When the famous dramatist and novelist rose the applause was deafening. He spoke in his capacity of commissar of art and education and his subject was the future of both in Russia. It was a high-spirited address and when he had finished the palace rocked with cheering. Zorin, secretary to Zinoviev, and editor of the official newspaper, also spoke. When my turn came, I asked them what they would like to hear and they said almost unanimously: "Give us news of the outside world and what they think of us there."

The session had opened at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. It was over by 10:30 o'clock. As I passed out with the crowd, I reflected that the difference between a New England town meeting or democratic government anywhere and the soviet system was not so fundamental after all.
