RESTRICT IMMIGRATION

The immigration restriction bill was passed yesterday by the house of representatives. It is a step in the right direction. Why not safeguard America at the source of citizenship supply?

Do we want this process to occur in this country? Do we want the stock of America to deteriorate? The United States house of representatives acting for the nation, by emphatic vote asserts that we do not.

We took those who came to our shores, not to make good American citizens but to exploit America. During the recent world war, we discovered this to our sorrow.

Immigrants cause most of the police business in this land today. The police blotters of the several cities show this to be true. Study of immigrants shows that they are no longer being Americanized in the manufacturing centers.

The dangerous radical movements in the United States today are fostered and propelled by immigrants, those disgruntled persons who were dissatisfied in their old homes and come here preaching the doctrine of discontent.

We do not want them. We must not take them. The future of America hangs in the balance. The anti-immigration bill bars out the masses which have been corrupting the life of America.

Of course employers of much common labor don't want the bill to pass. They hate to pay fair wages and give decent working conditions when the poor ignorant foreigner can be induced to work for starvation wages amid intolerable conditions.

But the results to be accomplished justify this. American labor will be given fairer wages and work amid pleasanter surroundings. The slave standard which has obtained in certain big industries will pass with the passage of this immigration restriction bill.

What have we been thinking of not to have passed this bill long ago. We are careful to see that no base strain enters into cattle, horses, hogs, sheep. Only the purest blood will suffice to build up a herd or a flock.

In fruits and vegetables great care is exercised in seed selection that only the finest examples of the type be used to perpetuate the particular fruit or vegetable.

The immigration restriction bill has passed the house. For the good of America, the safety of America and the kind of men America will produce in the future, it is to be hoped fervently that it passes the senate and becomes law.

THE SALES TAX

The country staggers under a great debt. Income is insufficient to run the government. More revenue must be raised to meet the emergency.

Income taxes, too, have failed to bring in returns. Incomes are not what they were during the height of wartime. Some war millionaires are being hard pinched just now.

Income taxes, too, have failed to bring in returns. Incomes are not what they were during the height of wartime. Some war millionaires are being hard pinched just now.

But some new tax must be devised. A sales tax is now being considered seriously. It is met with opposition in many quarters. It is said that this tax is pernicious in that it places a premium on living.

However, the tax must be met some way. The man who lives must pay it this way, or in some other way. It doesn't really matter then, what we call the tax.

There is this much to be said for the sales tax. It would affect all alike. The millionaire, who buys more than the farmer would pay more tax than the agriculturist.

No doubt the sales tax is imperfect. No tax has ever been devised which did not work some injustice upon certain persons. But it has this merit, it does not savor of class legislation as do excess profits taxes, nor does it close down industry because it is actually a medium of confiscating all profits in excess of a definite and fixed amount.

It seems equitable. MATTER OF VIEWPOINT Fearing that eggs will drop in price to 10 cents a dozen unless some drastic action is taken to bolster the market, U. S. producers now clamor that a tariff be placed against importation of Chinese hen fruit.

It is set forth that there are on hand 1,883,959 cases of eggs and every case contains 30 dozen. The normal supply is about one-ninth of this amount or about 207,000 cases.

A delegation of poultry people from Iowa, Petaluma, Cal., the native home of the cackle berry, and the Poultry Raisers' association of Oregon have protested against the further importations of Chinese eggs and urge a stiff tariff on all imported eggs.

With the egg price slumped below the 20 cents a dozen mark, it is evident that the price scarcely covers the cost of production. The producer is worthy of a profit. If he does not get it, he quits business and an American industry suffers.

The case serves to emphasize the fact that we all want a tariff wall erected upon the thing we produce or make. We want to be sure of a good profit. Yet we'd like the other fellow to sell his product as cheaply as possible, the cheaper the better.

Ten cent eggs don't cause any wild walling among those who enjoy a pair of prime eggs for breakfast and do not keep hens. Certainly not. Those who relish this kind of breakfast food may be tempted into a pleased smile by the announcement.

It's certainly impossible to please 'em all, isn't it? BURNETT IS 80, BUT PROVES FAST WORKER

By United Press ONTARIO, Cal., April 23.—Robert Burnett may be 80 years old but he still has speed, according to his own claim. Two months ago he started corresponding with Mrs. Nancy Horsely, 72.

He met her for the first time yesterday. Love at first sight, whirlwind courtship and everything. Today she became Mrs. Burnett. MR. VOLSTEAD ARRESTED ON DRUNKENNESS CHARGE

By United Press SEATTLE, April 23.—Boy, page Old Man Prohibition. Mr. Volstead was arrested in Seattle today, charged with being drunk. He gave his nationality as Belgian and said he was a laborer. His first name is Renel.

LOOKING BACKWARD

(From The Chronicle, April 23, 1896) This is ladies' and gentlemen's evening at the commercial club.

The citizen's meeting tonight should be largely attended. Many are interested in the chemical engine proposition and the action of tonight's meeting will probably prove decisive one way or the other.

Mr. Glenn expects to have the brick work finished on the new Vogt block this week. The carpenters are keeping up with their part of the work and it will not be long before the handsome new building will be ready for occupancy.

Born, at Endersby, Wednesday, April 15, 1896, to the wife of Adolph Wagner, a daughter. As Mr. and Mrs. Wagner have three sons, the lady was a very welcome visitor.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Back-achy or have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region.

sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night. To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy.
