

3000 ATHLETES IN GREAT FIELD MEET

TWO DAYS OF GALA SPORT BRING OUT TRACK CHAMPIONS.

By Henry L. Farrell

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—Philadelphia presented today an American edition of the Olympic games.

Three thousand American athletes from five hundred schools and colleges and a sextet of France's best athletes were on hand for the Penn relays.

Thirty-one members of Uncle Sam's Olympic team were on the program.

Three Olympic champions were carded as one of the many features for two days of gala sport, starting this afternoon on Franklin field.

A heavy mist was falling this morning and should it continue through the day the athletes will have to perform this afternoon on a heavy track.

Allen Woodring, the Syracuse sprinter who beat Charley Paddock in the 200 meters at Antwerp; Charles Thompson, Dartmouth, holder of the world's record for hurdles, and Dick Landon, Yale, who set a new Olympic record for the high jump, were the headliners.

Other star members of the Olympic team to compete were Earl Eby, Pennsylvania; Harold Barron, Penn state, who was on Thompson's heels in the hurdles; Frank Shea of Pittsburgh, who placed in the quarter-mile Jenne, the Washington pole vaulter; Eddie Curtis, the navy miler, and Bob Lagendre, former all-around champion of Georgetown.

The feature events of today's program start with the American college championship sprint medley race, in which are entered LaFayette, Ohio State, Nebraska, Penn State, Maine, Carnegie, University of Paris, Missouri, Kansas, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Chicago, Georgetown, Minnesota and Princeton.

The two-mile championship starting at 4:30 will be a battle between Grover Nightingale, West Virginia, winner of the three-mile race last year; Homig of Penn State; Berna, Cornell, and Higgins of Columbia.

In the American championship distance medley relay race at 5:10 the crown will be fought for between Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Iowa State, Illinois, Syracuse, Delaware, Pittsburgh, Ohio State, Princeton, Columbia, Georgetown, Kansas Aggies, Yale, Penn State and the navy.

Special events include the throwing of the weight at 3 o'clock and the running hop, step and jump at 3:40 o'clock.

PEGGY JOYCE

Joyce contracted for me here and abroad."

Turning to the story of Joyce's courtship, the pretty blonde show-girl said:

"I met Mr. Joyce the night the Follies opened in Chicago. Before the evening was over he had proposed to me. But I thought nothing of it. I concluded that he was either playing or drinking. I laughed at him and promptly forgot about it.

"Mr. Joyce, however, did not forget. For every day of the two weeks I remained here to rest he was pursuing me, lavishing gifts upon me, repeating his offer of marriage.

"I went to Colorado to evade him. And after me came Joyce, twelve paces behind; never with me, for I would not let him, I insisted that he leave.

"He followed me to New York.

WHAT DOES PRESIDENT HARDING'S HAND MEAN TO YOU?

Special Photograph Shows It Long, Wide, Flat; No Commonplace Man Owns This Hand.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—This afternoon President Harding stood at his big flat desk and talked back and forth to a score of newspaper men. Your correspondent noted that his skin was healthy and bronzed—the result of golf and much out-of-door recreation. His eyes were big and brown, his nose was a hawk's nose, and generally he looked fit.

But to me his hands were the most interesting feature of the man. They are big and wide and very flat. One does not associate particular strength with them, but to many students of the physical, they suggest dexterity and genius. A commonplace man would not own them. An inventor, teacher, thinker, dreamer or idealist might.

showered me with attentions and gave me costly presents. I discovered he was jealous. I demanded that he give up drinking and quit his jealousy."

NEW LONDON, Conn., April 29.—There are 450 passengers on the Portuguese steamer Marmugao which ran ashore off Block Island today, according to a message received by the Scott Wrecking company. A wrecking fleet was rushed to its assistance.

DALLAS LIBRARY HAS PAGEANTRY BOOKS

The Dallas is going to have a pageant. With all the historical background to draw on and the wonderful natural setting in which to produce it, The Dallas can stage an outdoor pageant that will be panoramic, full of picturesque incidents, and one that will arouse so much interest that a pageant will become a yearly event. For it has been the experience of cities and towns generally that the initial pageant develops interest for many others. A pageant is a great task but it is the bigness of it that makes it worth while. It provides patriotic education, promotes that much needed "get together" feeling and gives a large number of people the opportunity for self expression. Oregon has had a varied past abounding in adventurous incident, and The Dallas has had a vivid place in much of this.

The public library has on its shelves a good supply of Northwest history material and can draw upon the state library for any additional material needed. In its collections of bound and unbound periodicals are many good articles upon big pageants that have been given in other parts of the country. These references have been looked up and are at hand for the use of those who are interested, and some special pageant material has been sent for to the state library. The chairman of the pageant committees will get a stimulus by reading about Newark's Historic Pageant, Lexington's Peace Pageant, the Illinois Centenary Pageant or the Columbus, Ohio, pageant of 1919, when the Methodists staged that wonderful pageant that drew a million people to see it, the greatest religious pageant ever produced in America. ### COLORADO'S GOVERNOR SIGNS ANTI-JAP BILL

By United Press
DENVER, April 29.—A bill aimed at excluding Orientals from holding real or personal property in Colorado, passed by the last general assembly, today became a law, following its signature by Governor Shoup. The bill provides for submission to a vote of the people.

'ROUND COAST BASES

By United Press
SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Sacramento and Portland fought for 19 innings at Portland yesterday before the Solons won, 4 to 3. It was the second longest game of the season. Portland used four pitchers and Sacramento two. Prough of Sacramento was credited with the victory and Ross of Portland with the defeat.

Los Angeles suddenly turned on the Seals and beat the league leaders, 10 to 3. Six of the Los Angeles runs came in the third inning when twelve Angels came to bat and the majority of them hit safely. Seattle beat Salt Lake, 7 to 1, and Vernon humbled the Oaks 7 to 2.

MOTION PICTURES STEAL VOCABULARIES, CHARGE

By Alexander F. Jones.
(United News Staff Correspondent)
CHICAGO, April 29.—Professor Horace Bridge, addressing the opening session of the convention of the Drama league of America Thursday, deplored the effect of the motion picture on the vocabulary of young America.

"Due to the moving picture very largely," he said, "boys and girls are graduating from high school with a terrible paucity of words at their command. In other days our younger generation spent profitable evenings listening to Shakespeare in the spoken drama, or at home reading good literature.

"Now the ambition of our coming generation is to spend the evening at the moving picture theater.

"Their imaginations are being instructed through the eye instead of by the spoken word in the drama and reading good literature.

"This is leaving them with beggarly vocabulary. One slang phrase is used to express 100 shades of meaning."

He declared that the community theater idea, as opposed to the commercial theater, is gaining much ground, especially in smaller cities, that publishers are now profitably putting out books of good plays where a few years ago this was impossible as there was no public demand; and that some theatrical managers are seriously trying to give the theater-going public a better brand of plays.

COMMUNITY WORK

Boy cuts and a number of other school children will be on the streets of the city selling tags for the auto camp. And then, I understand, we are going to be asked to assist largely in putting over the pageant.

"All of these interruptions are seriously hindering school work. As I take it, school children are sent to school to study, and as things have been happening lately they are having a hard time doing it. We have to stand for it or be called crabs and unprogressive."

The establishment of a Community Chest, similar to that recently put over in Portland, is urged by Kirk as a panacea for the present situation in the schools and community.

"If the local chamber of commerce would get together, have one big drive and secure funds for a community chest, out of which donations would be made to all of these different organizations coming to the city seeking funds, if upon investigation, their case was found justifiable, local business men would not be continually bothered by solicitors and the school children might be able to get in some uninterrupted study," Kirk continued.

"Goodness knows that we certainly have enough for them to do right inside of the schools without all this outside interruption."
