

Social Activities and Other Things

Girls Make Flowers.

Miss Miriam Aldrich and Miss Hester Gram were hostesses Tuesday evening to several girl friends at the Court apartments. The evening was spent in a social time and in making organdy flowers. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Opal Coleman, Vera Gray, Louise Jeffers, Orion Fruge, Jessie Ferbrache, Amy Davidson, Miriam Aldrich, Hester Gram and Mrs. Beattie Mosier.

Dancing Class Feted.

Miss Harriet Schrum invited the members of her dancing class to her home Sunday afternoon for a May day frolic, games and a May pole dance delighted the children; and a lovely surprise was tendered them when Miss Schrum gave to each one a dainty May basket containing a dollar bill for their savings accounts. Refreshments were served. Those present were: Glenna Pickel, Dorothy Loomis, Margaret Hedges, Margaret Frank, Helen George, Marion Hennecke, Hazel Cochran, Margaret Stevens, Ada Hennecke, Vera Frank, Jean Thrall, Arline Loomis, Zella Schrum, Margaret Laurence, Helen Reed, Maxine Sheldon, and Vera Pickel.

Enjoyable Bridge Party.

Mrs. Sidney Bloom and Mrs. W. L. Crichton entertained the Billiken and Tuesday Tea club at Mrs. Bloom's home Tuesday afternoon. Blue and lavender were used for the decorations. There were eight tables at bridge. The hostesses were assisted by Miss Jane Harriman and Miss Beatrice Harden. Mrs. Harlan Fancher won the guest prize and Mrs. A. S. Esson, the club prize. Mrs. J. H. Weiss, Mrs. C. A. Johnston and Mrs. T. Madden were guests to tea. Those who played bridge were: Mesdames John G. Odell, J. B. Kilmore, J. T. Henry, T. H. West, Clyde Seitz, W. C. Waldron, R. L. Kirk, George W. Groble, H. E. Greene, W. H. Hobson, George C. Blakeley, E. C. Pease, L. A. Schanno, F. L. Phipps, Arthur Seufert, Roy Entler, L. A. Booth, Edward Seufert, W. J. Seufert, J. Minor Booth, Loren Roberts, Elliott Roberts, John Van Dellen, J. R. Docherty, Bert Thomas, W. W. Hart, J. I. Chambers, Thomas R. Hudson, John Will, Bartholomew and Miss Elsie Reuter.

Delightful Dancing Party.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Williams gave an informal dancing party at the K. of P. hall Monday evening. Ferns and palms were used for decorations with purple iris in the dining room. Miss Beulah Patterson and Mrs. J. W. Condon served punch. Music was rendered by Richards' orchestra.

Visitors are Honored.

Mrs. W. H. Moody of Shaniko, Mrs. J. W. Hill and Mrs. W. R. Abrams of Portland, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. E. C. Price, have been the honor guests for a number of delightful social functions during the week.

Mrs. E. O. McCoy gave a bridge luncheon Monday at Hotel Dalles. Seventeen intimate friends of the honor guests were present. The luncheon table was beautifully decorated with bow-knots of green tulle and with a large bronze centerpiece basket filled with sweet peas. Dainty place cards and corsage bouquets of sweet peas were at each place. A five course luncheon was served, after which the hostess invited the guests to her home for bridge. The living rooms were decorated with purple iris, white lilies and carnations. Mrs. L. A. Schanno won the high score. The invited guests were: Mesdames J. W. Hill, W. H. Moody, W. R. Abrams, E. C. Price, Mary Logan, Emma Carlisle, E. H. French, D. P. Ketchum, L. A. Schanno, F. L. Houghton, A. E. Crosby, H. L. Kuck, L. Barnum, J. E. Bar-A. Bettingen and Mrs. Myers of Salem.

Mrs. D. P. Ketchum gave a bridge luncheon Tuesday at her home, honoring Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Abrams and Mrs. Hill. Charming variety was given by the use of a different color scheme for each table at bridge. Mrs. H. A. Harden won the high score prize and Mrs. Anna Kinnersly, the consolation.

Mrs. Mary Logan and Mrs. Emma Carlisle were hostesses Tuesday evening honoring Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Abrams at their home. The evening was spent with bridge and refreshments were served.

Missionary Meeting.

Mrs. J. W. Ward entertained the ladies of Christian Woman's Board of missions at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. B. A. Amy, Mrs. J. W. Curtis and Mrs. Arnold Wyss assisted the hostess. An interesting foreign mission program was followed. About 30 ladies were in attendance.

Near East Dance.

The Near East benefit dance given by the Pythian Sisters, Thursday evening, was well attended, about 75 couples being present. A feature dance by Bernice Roberts and Mabel Williams, and a character dance by the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Creighton were greatly enjoyed. Richards' orchestra furnished the music.

Social Evening.

An enjoyable meeting of the Young Married People's Sunday school class of the Christian church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Fuller, Wednesday evening. A short business session was held after which the time was spent with music and games. Mrs. J. W. Harris rendered some very pleasing piano selections. Refreshments were served.

Blue Bird Luncheon.

Mrs. Thomas R. Hudson entertained the Blue Bird luncheon club at her home Thursday. Tulips and lilies of the valley were effectively used. Luncheon was served at 1:30, blue bird place cards emphasizing the club idea. The afternoon was spent at bridge. Mrs. Chauncey Butler receiving high score. Those present were: Mesdames Chauncey Butler, Ben R. Liffin, Thompson Coberth, G. Pearson, J. I. Chambers, Don Yantis, Foster Ralston, Carol Patterson and Thomas R. Hudson.

Fifth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kargl observed their fifth wedding anniversary last Sunday evening when a number of friends were invited to their home. The evening was spent in playing five hundred. Mrs. Frank Cotty won the high score and Mrs. G. E. Corson, the consolation prize. The guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Kargl with a beautiful cedar chest in commemoration of the event. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jermann, August Jermann, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cotty, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Courter, Dr. and Mrs. T. DeLarhue, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. George Hurdle, Edward Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Carl, Dorothy Carl, Corbin Corson, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Corson and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Childers.

Enjoyable Party.

An enjoyable dancing party was given at the Nielsen home on Mill creek last Saturday evening by Miss Ruth Nielsen, Mrs. H. E. White, Klindt Nielsen and Alvin Nielsen. Those present were: Misses Louise Becker, Anna Becker, Wilhelmina Becker, May Fowler, Gertrude Fowler, Edith Bugger, Pearl Coomans, Amy Davidson, Messrs. Frank Becker, Paul Fowler, Albert Hazen, Ralph Hazen, Earl Curtiss, Donald Curtiss, Albert Francois, Cecil Byers, and Archie Averill.

Sorosis Club.

The Sorosis club met in the Y. W. C. A. rooms Tuesday afternoon. After the regular order of business, tea was served and a social time enjoyed. Mrs. J. Minor Booth became a new member of the club. Mrs. Lulu D. Crandall told of the plans for the Historical pageant and spoke of the proposal to have the Sorosis park on the hill, the Union Street park and the new auto park officially named. She spoke of the fitness of the name, "Union Street Park," as it has commonly come to be known. The account is that in former years when the streets of The Dalles were being platted the well known pioneer, Victor Tréville, named Lincoln, Liberty and Union streets, saying that Lincoln, Liberty and the Union were the best names he knew; and so they were called.

Community Luncheon.

The Community Luncheon of this week at the Y. W. C. A. rooms was an excellent indicator of the growing popularity of Community Service in the city, since it was the best attended of any luncheon yet given. The music was of fine quality and the addresses revealed the better vision of the town's people. L. S. Pilcher conducted the song program. The double quartet's rendering of "The Oregon Song" and "Sweet Adeline," were especially pleasing. Carlton Pepper presided. E. F. Van Schoick told of the commercial value of the Historical pageant to The Dalles and quoted the Pendleton Round-Up, the Portland

Rose Show and the Cheyenne Frontier Days as examples. Mrs. Joseph Stadelman very ably told of the results of Community Service, as related to child welfare. Mayor P. J. Stadelman told of his conversion to Community Service and the work of the Y. W. C. A., emphasizing his desire to see the movement on a substantial working basis.

Roricks Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rorick entertained Saturday evening, honoring Mrs. W. H. Merrick and Mrs. W. B. Bope, friends from Michigan, who have been visiting them. Mrs. Rorick was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Condon, Mrs. Jay Rorick and Mrs. Ward Webber. Those invited to meet the honor guests were: Mrs. J. L. Thompson, Miss Laura Thompson, Mrs. Anna Lindsay, Dr. and Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. Leon Curtiss, Mrs. Joseph Fulton, Mrs. W. A. Johnston, Mrs. A. W. Moore, Mrs. Mary Logan, Mrs. Emma Carlisle, Mrs. D. M. French, Miss Anne Lang, Mrs. J. W. Condon and Mrs. J. C. Hostetter. Mrs. Merrick and Mrs. Bope spent the winter in California and stopped here to visit Mr. and Mrs. Rorick on their return to Michigan. They have traveled extensively and enthusiastically declare the Oregon scenery surpasses any they have seen. They resumed their journey Monday.

Mahonia Club.

Mrs. A. E. Crosby entertained the Mahonia club at her home Thursday evening. Mrs. W. H. Moody of Shaniko, Mrs. Abrams, Mrs. J. W. Hill and Mrs. T. Baldwin, of Portland, were honor guests of the occasion. The rooms were beautifully decorated. The evening was spent at bridge. Mrs. D. P. Ketchum winning high score. Corsage bouquets of sweet peas were given the honor guests.

To Give Recital.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
