Protestant Churches Unite Sunday Evening—Showing their interest in the Near East and Chinese sufferers the Protestant churches with one or two exceptions will unite in a mass meeting Sunday evening at the high school. As the city school law forbids the solicitation of money from an audience in the school auditorium there will be no offering asked for in the service.

D., of Denver, Colorado, reputed to be one of the outstanding speakers of the Methodist church, will be a speaker at the morning service in the local Methodist church, Sunday, May 16. Burial was in the Dufur cemetery. The Rev. Quinn lived near Dufur for many years, settling there in 1880. He moved to Long Beach, Wash., four years ago, where he made his home until the time of his death.

Man Arrested For Threats—Following threats to burn a number of houses near his ranch at Wapinitia, John Weberg was yesterday arrested by Sheriff Chrisman and lodged in the county jail pending investigation as to his sanity. Weberg is reputed to be dangerous and is said to have made threats to kill several of his neighbors, following altercations. Deputy Sheriffs McClaskey and Coleman accompanied Chrisman on the trip.

Shots and Body Reported—Mysterious shots in the night, near Crates' point, were reported to Chief of Police Frank Heater this morning by the railroad watchman stationed at that place. The watchman informed Heater that the conductor of a passing freight train had telephoned him from Hood River, claiming to have seen the body of a man lying beside the track as the train passed. An examination of the track this morning failed to reveal any trace of either the dead man or the cause of the mysterious shots.

Programs to Finance Pageant—Ten thousand pageant programs will be issued according to announcement made this morning by H. W. Arbury. These will be sold at 10 cents each. It is planned to send them throughout the northwest advertising The Dalles and the historic pageant which will carry this community back in drama to the early days of the old west. "Through sale of the programs the pageant will be financed," said the Community Service director. "Ready sale is assured inasmuch as the programs will be artistically gotten up and will contain the songs and the text used in the enactment of the early history of the frontier," he added.

$100 for Auto Park—At a meeting of the Community Service executive board yesterday afternoon it was unanimously voted that not less than $100 should be pledged by the board and placed at the disposal of the Chamber of Commerce park committee this sum to be used in permanent improvements at the auto park site. Locals Win and Lose—The Dalles high school baseball team broke even yesterday afternoon, the first team winning its game and the second team taking a thorough wallop. The first team took the measure of the strong Hood River high school nine, by a score of 6 to 4. This game was well-played on both sides and was an exciting exhibition of the national sport. At Dufur, The Dalles second team went down to defeat by a score of 13 to 3 at the hands of the husky Dufur swatsters. The first high school baseball game to be played on the local diamond will be staged next Friday, when The Dalles and Hood River teams will play a return game.

Chronicle Publicity Effective—The entire car of Condon wheat, secured by County Agent E. R. Jackman for distribution among local poultry growers and ranchers at $25 a ton, has now been sold, Jackman announced this morning. The wheat was partly burned when a grain elevator was destroyed by fire near Condon, the fire damaging the wheat for milling purposes but leaving it fit for poultry feed. Jackman took occasion to remark about the tremendous advertising power of a brief notice in The Chronicle, explaining that no publicity was given out about the receipt of the car of wheat save through a small Chronicle news item. He has received inquiries from Hood River, Mosier, Dufur and many other sections of the county. One man wished to purchase an entire carload of the wheat.

Steer's Ownership, Basis of Case—A three-year-old Durham steer, valued at $60, is the innocent cause of a threatened legal battle in the local circuit court. Up until May 4, the steer was the property of A. V. Fraley. On the fourth day of May, however, a great change came into the steer's life, for, according to a complaint filed in the circuit court yesterday morning, A. L. Pugh "without the consent of the plaintiff wrongfully took certain goods and chattels from the plaintiff," namely the steer, on that day. The complaint goes on to say that Fraley had repeatedly demanded the return of the steer and that Pugh had refused to comply. Such action, Fraley alleges, has injured him to the extent of $50, which sum he asks in damages. He also asks that the court force Pugh to return the steer and pay all court costs of the suit.

Achievement Day at School—"Achievement Day" at the Dufur high school yesterday brought forth some interesting exhibitions of school work. Five different grades participated in the general display, which included four coops of thoroughbred chickens, a brood sow and litter, cold frame plants, a moth and butterfly exhibit and an exhibit of the kinds of weeds causing the greatest damage to Wasco county crops. One unusual exhibit was a display made up of two hives of wild bees, captured while swarming. The wild bees were put in hives with Italian queen bees. The bees were shown in a glass case at the school exhibit. It was interesting to note the progress of domestication of the wild bees, all of the young bees having the markings of the Italian queen bees. A program was staged in the high school auditorium in the evening. C. C. Springer, principal of the Dufur school plans another extensive "Achievement Day" for next year.
