"GODLESS MEN"

"Godless Men," a Reginald Barker production, with a Goldwyn all-star cast, is a story where men meet their souls face to face and sneer themselves on to acts of horror; where they grapple life with ruthless, destructive hands. It will be shown at the Casino theater for three days, commencing Thursday. Russell Simpson portrays the leading character, "Black Pawl." As "Black Pawl" he defies God and for years sails the sea a terror to every man before the mast. The history of those sinister sea captains who ruled by split blood and fear is all combined in the life of "Black Pawl."

"Black Pawl" is a character few men could handle. Its very scope of dramatic possibilities would bewilder and overwhelm the ordinary actor. The force of the story stuns one in its mere skeleton outline and brought to life in its every detail on the screen it is said to be the greatest sea picture ever produced. Through his previous work in such plays as "The Branding Iron," "The Barrier," "Out of the Dust," "Breakers Ahead," and so forth, Simpson has been trained to the point where "Black Pawl" is a living, breathing, stupendous portrayal of character in his hands.

THOMPSON'S ADDITION NOTES
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stuart and family moved to Cello last week. Mr. Stuart is working on the railroad there.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Douglas are planning a trip to Warm Springs. They will leave in a few days.

The Rev. John L. Bogue gave a short lecture at Thompson's addition school house Thursday night, illustrated by stereopticon slides, on the need of aiding the starving Armenians and Chinese. The lecture was followed by short talks by Mr. Roberts and Mr. Price on the same subject.

The Parent-Teacher association was formed in Thompson's addition and has most of the mothers and fathers on its membership roll. The parents and teachers of the school are heartily in favor of it. The new association will meet Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, May 12, in the assembly room at the school house.

MUCH INTEREST IN MUSIC EVIDENCED HERE

Mrs. Pilcher and I hope that through the columns of The Chronicle we may express our appreciation of the great kindness and friendly help we have found among so many people of The Dalles. We left for Everett, Wash., Sunday, with real regret at the parting. We have found a great interest in community music in The Dalles, as well as remarkable talent. We had the pleasure of listening to the ladies' chorus under Mrs. Carlton P. Williams' able baton. Their forthcoming concert will be a real treat. The men who have sung in the chorus now forming display splendid voices, and I am sure the membership will increase steadily in this group. There are several very capable directors among the men I have met here, any one of whom I should be glad to sing under.

"Your Community Service Music committee, Mrs. Carlton P. Williams, chairman, has decided to continue and develop the community sing, and have selected next Wednesday nights as the first sing. Two or three local leaders will direct, and the new song books, "Twice 55 Community Songs," will be used. At this sing the Edw. C. Pease company, the J. C. Penney company and the A. M. Williams company, will be represented by the personnel and their friends. It is intended to have a singing contest between these three stores. No decision will be given as to merit.

The community chorus, or sing, is not intended to supplant any organized groups, but rather to afford an opportunity and a feeling of welcome to all who would enjoy the pleasure of singing for its own sake. With the splendid and unusual voices in this city, as well as the general interest shown by the community-minded, the sing will succeed and be a real community asset, if supported and attended by those to whom we all look up, the responsible business and professional men and the progressive women of The Dalles.

Community singing is taking a very definite place in the progressive cities of the country. It has been found of great recreational value, as well as a medium for developing community consciousness. It is in addition a musical inspiration. Community choruses are developing appreciation of the better music by conducting music memory contests, music weeks, Easter sunrise concerts, Christmas carol singing by small groups. The remarkable Easter sunrise concert in Hollywood attended by 30,000 people was the work of the Hollywood community chorus which started with a membership of eight people, and now has an average attendance of 1200. The Dalles may never have so large a regular attendance, but should have not less than 250.

We leave hoping to hear of the successful continuance of these sings, with an increased attendance, a great pageant, a rousing Fourth of July program, a music memory contest in October and the organization of Christmas carol singers.

enough to end it with a big blow. He who "touches" first in that way will not need to strike again.

The element of chance consequently will play a prominent part. The exigencies of the ring are never certain and even the best of fighters is liable to leave an opening once in a while.

Once will be enough for Dempsey on July 2.

There will be actual energy expanded and more force in blows exchanged in these hypothetical eighteen minutes of fighting than any of the old time champions expanded in four or five times that many rounds.

Dempsey can hit harder than any boxer America ever produced.

Carpentier can hit just as hard as Dempsey.

I know this may surprise some of my American readers, because it is generally supposed that Carpentier is inferior to Dempsey in strength.

What Carpentier may lack in physical strength he makes up for with a super knowledge of how to hit and where to hit.

TRAFFIC RATES

The duties on wool textiles and other goods have been increased correspondingly.

The cotton duties will be slightly under the Payne-Aldrich rates, although the rates on finished cotton textiles will be higher.

The sugar duty will be two cents a pound for imports from countries other than Cuba and 1.6 cents from Cuba. These are virtually the Payne-Aldrich rates.

The tariffs on agricultural products will be somewhat lower than the emergency tariff provides.

THE man with a growing bank account is always independent. He who doesn't think it necessary to spend the time and patience to build one, is usually a "leaner"—dependent upon others sooner or later.

The French & Company bank has watched many boys and accounts in The Dalles grow together. These boys are successful and useful citizens today.
