

NEWS NOTES

Recital Date Changed—It has been decided to change the time and place of the chorus recital, under Mrs. Carlton P. Williams' direction, to Tuesday, May 17 at the Elks' club.

Baptist Sing Tonight—A rally of all the members of the Baptist Sunday school is called for tonight. Forty-five minutes will be spent in singing. Several new songs will be learned under the direction of Mr. Roth.

Sorosis Picnic Luncheon—The women of the Sorosis club will have a picnic luncheon at the W. H. Wilson place on Chenoweth creek, next Tuesday. The luncheon is in the nature of a benefit and each member is asked to bring two guests.

Sues on Lumber Bill—Asking $659.23, alleged to be due on a bill for lumber, the Van Dellen lumber company today filed suit in the circuit court against W. G. C. Woods, C. R. Woods, the Burlington Trust company, H. C. Hatfield and Mary Woods Hatfield.

Asks Divorce—Alleging that her husband, Nelson Edwin Croshaw, deserted her in 1919, "without cause or fault of hers," Mrs. Cecile Edna Croshaw today filed suit in the circuit court for a divorce. She asks that she be allowed to resume the use of her maiden name, Cecile Edna Stocker.

Senior Class Play—"Nothing But The Truth," heralded as one of the best class plays ever staged in the local high school, is scheduled for presentation Friday and Saturday evenings of this week in the high school auditorium. The play is a comedy, with a "laugh in every line," and is acted out by members of the senior class.

Children Exhibit Flowers—Some attractive pressed flowers are on exhibit at the library. The work was done by the pupils of the East Hill and Whittier schools. The cards include bird-bills, wild cherry, flea bane, yellow bells, lupine, wild sunflower, dandelion, mint, rock lily, grass widow, wild sweet pea, blue anemone, fiddle neck, butter cup, spring beauty, wild pink, and larkspur.

Corporal Oats a Visitor—George Oats, a local boy who joined the United States marine corps a year ago, and who has since been stationed at Mare Island training school, is in The Dalles on a 30 day furlough, visiting his mother, Mrs. Arnold Wyss, 602 West Ninth street. Oats was recently made a corporal. He is highly pleased with the marine corps service. He was formerly a Chronicle carrier.

Steeplejack Excites Interest—Silhouetted against the sky over A. M. Williams and company's store building, Mike Dunsberg today caused considerable craning of necks upon the part of the local populace, as he serenely clung to the flag pole extending from the roof of the store and piled a paint brush. Dunsberg, who is a trained steeplejack, applied to Carl Williams yesterday for a job painting the flag pole, explaining that he could "do the job in a couple of hours." Starting at about 10 o'clock this morning, he had finished the pole at noon.

Community Chorus Rehearses—The community chorus rehearsal at the Vogt school building last evening was well attended. Mrs. Carlton P. Williams, chairman of the community music committee, was in charge. Several members of the song leaders' school responded to the requests by Mrs. Williams to direct certain songs of the program. The J. C. Penny store chorus was present in force and the members complimented upon their interest through the medium of the song, "Style, All the While." Music for the pageant was rehearsed, with Miss Prudence Patterson at the piano. The next regular practice will be held at the Vogt school next Wednesday evening. Richards' orchestra will furnish the instrumental music for future community chorus rehearsals for the pageant. Following the rehearsal, the recently organized men's chorus entertained a large audience at the Casino theater with a rendition of the Oregon state song.

The first strawberries of the season to be grown and ripened in The Dalles, were brought to The Chronicle office this morning by Joseph Parodi. The berries are Clark seedlings and are perfectly formed in every way, having ripened naturally on the vines. They were grown in the yard of Parodi's Ninth street home. Each year for several years, now, Parodi has had the honor of exhibiting the first basket of locally grown strawberries. 12

Milk Users, Attention

The public is no doubt unaware of the fact that when they purchase a bottle of milk or cream at some store and make a deposit for the bottle, that this does not make them the owner of the bottle. This is merely a guarantee that the bottle will be returned to the merchant.

Any person or persons using any milk or cream bottle with any other firm or persons name, other than their own name blown in the glass is committing a misdemeanor and is subject to prosecution under sections 37-81, etc., of the state laws of Oregon.

On and after the 20th day of May, 1921, we, the undersigned hereby serve notice that anyone found using bottles other than their own will be prosecuted under the above-mentioned law.
