Milk Users, Attention

The public is no doubt unaware of the fact that when they purchase a bottle of milk or cream at some store and make a deposit for the bottle, that this does not make them the owner of the bottle.

This is merely a guarantee that the bottle will be returned to the merchant.

Any person or persons using any milk or cream bottle with any other firm or persons name, other than their own name blown in the glass is committing a misdemeanor and is subject to prosecution under sections 87-81, etc., of the state laws of Oregon.

On and after the 20th day of May, 1921, we, the undersigned hereby serve notice that anyone found using bottles other than their own will be prosecuted under the above-mentioned law.

FASHIONABLE APARTMENTS ARE DIVORCE BREEDERS

By United News
CHICAGO, May 13.—Fashionable avenues housing pretentious apartment houses furnish the courts with most of its divorce cases, Judge Jesse Baldwin of the circuit court has found at the conclusion of 11 years of listening to marital woes.

"I have noticed that the fashionable and near-fashionable districts furnish most of the divorces," he said. "Lack of home environment in ornate but cramped apartments, in one room apartments in hotels, and in rooming houses cause many family failures. Congestion leads to irritation and irritation, like the mole hill, becomes mountainous in marital contentions."

WHO IS KING OF SWAT, BABE RUTH OR KELLY?

By Westbrook Pegler
(United News Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, May 11.—New York is having more fun than a matinee girl, with giggles, over certain prodigies performed on eastern baseball arenas by two young athletes named Ruth and Kelly. The question before the bleachers is whether Mr. Kelly with seven homers is as priceless a hitter as Babe Ruth with his record of 54 for last season and his total of eight this year.

As a drawing card, Ruth is well established and far superior to Kelly. But Kelly with his seven homers has scored 15 runs and Ruth with eight has scored but a dozen. In other words when there were men upon the bags and runs were most needed, Ruth has either been victimized by the intentional pass or twitted by the pitchers or held to puny performances. So far this year he has not delivered a homer with the bases full or two on and just four with one man on base.

Kelly hit a homer with bases full off Fillingim of the Braves on April 30, and one off Meadows of the Phillies on April 16, which scored two men. Altogether he has driven in eight men ahead of him by homers and a good many others with opportune singles and doubles.

Although Kelly hammered left handed pitchers impartially last season, getting six from right handers and five from southpaws, he has not been getting the long drives from the wrong side hurlers this year. One homer off Mitchell of the Dodgers is all. The others were all made off a right hander. Ruth proved last year and is proving again this season that it makes no difference to his bat which side the pitching arm works from. This year he has made five on lefties and three on right handers.

Kelly is still playing for the Giants and not for Kelly exclusively which makes him a little more valuable to the club than Ruth is to the Yanks for Ruth is pretty well satisfied with his own judgment and not very responsive to team management.

The Babe needed 19 games to get eight homers and Kelly has only played 17. He may even it up in his eighteenth game.

The contest is very close. There is much excitement at the Polo grounds in the dairy lunches and on the fire escape landings in the cool of the evening.
