WINONA LAKE, Ind., May 21.—Maryland's "marrying parson" went on trial here today.
The case of Rev. J. L. McElmoyle, accused of running a "Greytna Green" in his little parsonage at Elkton, Md., was argued before the judicial commission, the supreme court of the Presbyterian church.
Several years ago the Rev. McElmoyle was charged with indiscriminately marrying elopers who dodged over the state line from Pennsylvania and Delaware.
In the case, which was reviewed before James F. Goodrich, Indiana's former governor, who presided over the high tribunal today, it was charged that the minister married thousands of couples in the little town. One count against him states that as many as 1,000 couples were united in one year.
The hearing today brought out the

CONVICTS' ATTEMPT AT JAIL BREAK IS THWARTED

HACKSAW BLADES FOUND; BAR IN COUNTY JAIL CUT.

Watchfulness on the part of G. L. Coleman, jailer, prevented this morning a serious break from the county bastille. Joe Rose and Henry Willis, two of the three men indicted for holding up and robbing the Glenwood hotel, are in leg irons and locked in separate cells, and other prisoners are believed implicated.
Willis and Rose are believed by Coleman to have instigated the plan. Both pleaded guilty and were sentenced to the penitentiary. They are to be taken to Salem in a few days.
Searching Rose, Coleman found a hacksaw blade concealed in the lining of the prisoner's coat. Three other saw blades were found in cells occupied by the pair of holdup men.
Two bars in the corridor cage were found sawed through, and two of the half-inch steel reinforcing plates at the top and bottom of the bars were found severed. A third cut had been started in one of the plates, which, when loosened, would have allowed the prisoners to lift out the bars they had sawed.
In the bedding of one of the cells, Coleman and Deputy Sheriff Gay Elton, who assisted him in the clean-up, found a piece of iron bar about a foot long and a piece of lead as large as

26 BANDITS AID IN TRAIN HOLDUP

$50,000 WORTH OF MERCHANDISE LOOTED FROM FREIGHT TRAIN.

By United Press
NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y., May 21.—Bandits today stopped a west-bound fast freight on the New York Central railroad on the Sanborn branch near here, held the fireman and engineer at bay with revolvers, robbed cars of merchandise valued at $50,000 and escaped.
About 26 bandits took part in the holdup, and six motor trucks were used to haul away the loot.
The train was stopped as it was going up a heavy grade. Twenty-six bandits, all armed, easily overpowered the crew. The robbers stopped the train fully 45 minutes to remove the loot. Seventeen cars were broken open.
The hold-up was well planned, detectives said. A trail was left for a short distance behind fleeing trucks, by bolts of silk and other merchandise, joggled out.
Scores of detectives and posses are scouring the country hereabouts, but no clue to the whereabouts of the robbers has yet been obtained.

MILLIONAIRE'S WIFE CONFESSES MANY ROBBERIES

WEALTHY CHICAGO WOMAN POSED AS HOUSEMAID, REMOVED VALUABLES.

BELIEVED UNBALANCED

HUSBAND BANKER AND BROKER, PAID $155,000 INCOME TAX IN 1920.

By United Press
CHICAGO, May 21.—The family of Mrs. Joseph S. Heil, millionaire's "maid" and confessed robber, stood loyally by her today as she stooped accused of stealing $25,000 worth of household goods.
Two children and her husband remained with her at the detention home throughout the night, while she underwent examination to determine if she was a Raffles or a kleptomaniac. Verdict of physicians and police was that it was a clear case of kleptomania.
Mrs. Heil, charming young wife of a millionaire banker and investment broker, lived in a palatial home, surrounded by every luxury. Her husband gave her $500 a month for pin money and besides paid bills for everything she purchased.
She had a nurse, a cook, two maids and a house man. She was the mother of three sturdy young boys and a girl, recently married. Yet when police traced her to her home, they found $20,000 worth of stolen household goods and jewelry ranging from canary cages to diamond rings, silver and de luxe editions. Pawn tickets for $5,000 worth of goods which had been disposed of were found.
Mrs. Heil was identified as "the perfect maid" by a score of housekeepers on the north shore Gold Coast. They identified her as the person who for many months has answered ads for a "maid" and, who, after staying a few days, would disappear with the most expensive household articles on which she could lay her hands.
Mrs. Heil used her own $6,000 automobile to haul the goods to her home. She explained to her husband and children that she purchased the goods at auction. They thought she had a penchant for auction sales. Her husband made out checks to her covering the amount

FRENCH PLAY FOR TIME

DEBATE IN CHAMBER AWAITED BEFORE MINISTERS HOLD MEETING.

By United Press
BERLIN, May 21.—British forces in the Rhine district are preparing to send a military contingent into Upper Silesia, according to reports received here from Cologne today.
Unofficial advices stated that the British commander, under orders from London, was making up a provisional division consisting of two brigades of infantry, three batteries of field artillery and the usual complement of cavalry, flyers and pioneers.

LONDON, May 21.—With the British urging speed on the settlement of the Upper Silesian question by the supreme council, the French continued to play for time today.

Premier Briand informed the British government that he agrees, in principle, with the proposed special meeting of the council to consider the problem, but that it must await completion of the debate in the chamber of deputies over his foreign policies.

Inasmuch as the chamber has adjourned until Tuesday, it is not believed the council can meet before Friday. The debate is almost certain to run through Wednesday, and 36 hours must elapse before Count Storza, foreign minister of Italy, can reach Bologna after official notification.

In British official circles there appears to be unanimous opinion that the French chamber will give Briand a vote of confidence by a large majority. The progress of the debate has been watched here with the greatest interest.

Premier Lloyd George is spending the week-end in an unnamed town on the south coast. He has made no definite arrangements for any conferences, but is in constant touch with the situation.

From authoritative sources it has been learned that British troops will

COURT ENJOINS MARINE STRIKE

FOURTH RIOT FOLLOWED BY ORDER; GOVERNMENT SUES SIX UNIONS.

By United Press
PORTLAND, May 21.—No new disturbances were reported along Portland's waterfront early today, following the issuance of an injunction by the federal court here yesterday temporarily restraining six maritime unions from further strike activities.

United States District Attorney L. W. Humphreys obtained the injunction in Federal Judge Wolverton's court, following the fourth serious waterfront riot within a week. The restraining order was a temporary one. The unions are required to come into court at 10 a. m. May 26, and show cause why the injunction should not be made permanent.

The government also started suit in equity against the six unions, to recover alleged damages of $10,000 a day since the strike was called on May 1.

Interference with transmission of United States mails is given as one of the reasons for damages. Eight hundred sacks of foreign mail are held up in port pending despatch of shipping board steamers.

RIVER PASSES STAGE OF 34 FEET AND IS STILL GOING

WATER AT 35 MARK THIS AFTERNOON; HOT WEATHER COMPLICATES.

The Columbia river is rampaging fast towards flood stage today. In the 24 hours ending at 8 a. m., the rise was 1.7 feet, and the stage at that hour was 34.1 feet. By 1 o'clock the water had risen until it was just below the 35 foot mark.

There is but little doubt now that the river will reach the 40 foot stage, which is the flood mark, early next week. The Snake and Columbia rivers are rising simultaneously at their heads, and conditions approximating those in 1894 are possible.

The hot weather today, which is reported to be general over the interior, is adding to the situation. The warm southwest wind will bring the snow out of the mountains, and the Columbia may be expected to go up a little faster in the next few days, old timers here say.

The usually placid Columbia is now a raging turbulent stream, a muddy, yellow mass tumbling towards the ocean. The ferry boat has considerable difficulty getting across the river this morning because of the excessively swift current in mid-channel.

Great quantities of logs and other debris are going down, and in some places the water has been covered

WHITE WIFE SEEKS DIVORCE FROM JAP

TWO YEARS DISPEL ILLUSION OF LOVE, SHE AVERS IN COMPLAINT.

Two years of married life with Tom Mukaida, Japanese, were enough to dispel any illusion of love held by his white wife, Lilly Mukaida, she alleges in a complaint filed in the circuit court today asking for a divorce upon grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

The white girl and the son of Nippon were married in Vancouver, Wash., in 1919, the marriage causing considerable comment in Portland and other Pacific coast papers at the time. No children have resulted from the union.

Before their marriage, Mrs. Mukaida explains in the complaint, Mukaida painted a colorful picture of their future life together, telling her that he was well-to-do financially and that he would provide her with a good home. He had also promised that they would not have to live among his countrymen and

DALLES ELIMINATED IN STATE CONTEST

HIGH SCHOOL ORATORS LOSE TO SALEM AND GRANTS PASS.

Defeated in debates by both Salem and Grants Pass high school debating teams, The Dalles high school team was yesterday eliminated as a contender for state championship debating honors, according to Will E. Wiley, principal of the local high school. The debates were held in Eugene, where The Dalles team represented the eastern Oregon district.

Under the system of elimination, by which state championship debating honors are yearly decided, The Dalles team debated with all other high school teams in this district, winning from all. These victories gave the local team the right to represent this district in the tournament of district winners from other sections of the state.

The subject under debate was "Resolved: That the United States should have Government Ownership of Railways."
