

NEWS NOTES

Story Hours Resumed—Story hours for children have been resumed at the public library during the summer months. They were begun last week. There will be a story hour for fourth and fifth grade children Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Legion Meeting—For the purpose of discussing the bonus bill, which will be placed before the voters at the special election June 7, a meeting of The Dalles post of the American Legion has been called for this evening by Commander Pat Foley. Plans for observance of Memorial day, May 30, will also be worked out. The meeting will be held in the court house.

Mayeta Case Reopened—The May term of court opened at 1:30 this afternoon, with the trial of Tony Mayeta upon a charge of violating the prohibition law. This case was first tried during the February term of court, a jury at that time being unable to reach an agreement. Mayeta is represented by Attorneys R. R. Butler and W. H. Fowler, the latter of Portland.

Apartment House On Wheels—All the comforts of home and then some are carried on an automobile tour by J. Frooma of Terneuca, Cal., who passed through The Dalles today driving his six six-cylinder car with a trailer attachment. The trailer is the unusual part of Frooma's equipment, being nothing more than a one-room house on wheels. It has windows with curtains, a stove, an arrangement of upper and lower berths, somewhat similar to those on a Pullman car; a refrigerator, dining table, clothes closets and, in fact, every modern convenience necessary for ordinary home comfort. Frooma is enroute to Alberta, Canada.

Chautauqua Guarantors to Meet—To make arrangements of the Ellison-White chautauqua festival, which will be held in The Dalles July 4th to 9th, inclusive, a meeting of local business men who are chautauqua guarantors, will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the office of the Crandall undertaking company's establishment, Mrs. Lulu D. Crandall announced this morning. An executive committee of business men, to work out plans for financing the chautauqua by the selling of season tickets, will be elected. The chautauqua company demands a guarantee of a minimum amount of money before it will come to The Dalles, and this guarantee has been put up by 44 local business men.

New Grand Jury Formed—A new grand jury, chosen to complete the work of the recently discharged grand jury and to handle all indictments from now until the September term of court, was empaneled this morning. The following persons are upon the jury: Clifford Chase, foreman; Frank Gabel, W. W. Heisler, W. E. Adkisson, Otis Morgan, R. J. Greenlee and Chris McClay. The new jury will clean up all work left by the preceding grand jury and will then be declared adjourned by Circuit Judge Wilson until a week before the opening of the September term of court, when it will pass upon all criminal cases in special session, at any time, however, should a sufficient number of cases come up to warrant this procedure.

Daily Pageant Rehearsals—Rehearsals will be held every night this week, for persons taking part in the pageant, H. W. Arbury, Community Service director, announced this morning. The final full-dress rehearsal will be held Thursday evening, at which time camera men from the Pathe and Kinogram film weeklies will be on hand to take views. The camera men will also film the Indian parade, which will be held on the main business street of the city Friday noon. Programs giving the synopsis of every scene in the pageant, are being issued and will be placed on sale at 10 cents a copy. These programs are suitable for use as souvenirs. The only money to be spent in the staging of the pageant will be obtained from the sale of programs.

WAR HERO BURIED WITH SIOUX CHANT

By United News
MANDAN, N. D., May 23.—The 45th anniversary of the departure of General Custer's command from Fort Lincoln on the chase of the Sioux found Jerome Elk, one of the few living aides of Sitting Bull at the Little Big Horn Massacre, again leading the death chant.

In 1876 Jerome Elk was one of the most feared of Sitting Bull's warriors. Friday he chanted the return of the body of another Sioux warrior—this time a buck who died fighting for Uncle Sam in France.

The American Legion here buried Albert Grass, who died before Soissons, with a strange commingling of American and Indian ceremonies. Grass and Pichard Blue Earth, according to army citations, upset a German attack before Soissons by communicating in the Sioux sign language between listening posts and headquarters after telephone communication had been cut off.

As the body of Grass was unloaded, the white and red veterans snapped into attention. The mother of the dead Indian boy advanced and uttered the mournful death wail of the Sioux. Then Jerome Elk took up the chant and the ceremony lasted until the body was interred at Cannonball. Indians and whites stood guard over the body in a Catholic church while 2000 Sioux Indians took part in the death dance on the reservation.

Last Week's Social News

For The Burneys.

A delayed communication reports a delightful party last week at the home of Mrs. H. Willerton, honoring Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Burney, who left the city this week for their new home in California. The invitation list included the offers and teachers of the Methodist Sunday school. About 50 people were present. The rooms were tastefully decorated with flowers and delicious refreshments were served. Much entertainment was derived from a story contest among the men. A community sing was led by Francis Sexton. Mrs. Burney was presented with a tea set, as a parting gift from the friends present.

Catholic Women Entertained.

The Catholic Ladies' Social circle was entertained by Mrs. W. Brookhouse and Mrs. J. D. Kelly home, Wednesday afternoon. Besides the club members the following guests were present: Mesdames E. Story, G. Hilgen, L. Bolton, A. Swanser, M. Dolan, J. LeDuc, and Misses Ida Wakefield, Effie Wakefield, Celia LeDuc, V. McAllesse, A. Gallie and Mrs. M. Cushing. Mrs. Cushing entertained the women by telling of much of the early history of The Dalles. Recitations were given by Margaret Trabue and Donatille Kelly; a vocal solo was rendered by Margaret Mary Kelly and a beautiful piano solo by Mrs. A. Trabue. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Misses K. Brookhouse and M. Hilgen.

Y. W. C. A. Picnic.

The Y. W. C. A. picnic at the Union street park, Wednesday evening was a very enjoyable affair. Games were played and some clever races, consisting of a pie-eating race, a suitcase race, a goose race, a hopping race and some other contests were the course of much merriment. The picnic dinner consisted of "every thing good" and it was finished with ice cream and coffee, furnished by the association. A bonfire was then built and the girls gathered about the fire, where they were entertained by some clever stunts staged by the different divisions of the Y. W. C. A.

Current Topics Club.

The Current Topics club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. B. Saunders. The rooms were tastefully decorated with spring flowers. Important current events were discussed after which the historical pageant became the topic of conversation. Most of the club members were present. Invited guests were Mrs. Harold Tallman, Mrs. Lee Moon and Mrs. O. C. McGowan. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Artisans Have Roll Call.

The meeting of the Artisan lodge held Wednesday evening was the most notable one of the year. A special feature was the roll call of the members. John McLean, Master Artisan, invited all charter members to chairs at his right. T. A. Hudson was the only one present to respond. He was presented with a beautiful bouquet of cut roses. Miss Edith Gibson was initiated into the order with impressive special work. During a short recess Mr. H. W. Arbury, with Miss Prudence Patterson at the piano, conducted a community sing. Delicious refreshments were served. The tables were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns.

Birthday Party For Three.

A delightful birthday party was given at the J. W. Condon home Saturday, May 14, honoring the tenth birthday of Mary Condon, Ruth Williams and Margaret Hedges. Thirty little guests were present. They played games on the lawn until they were summoned into the house for refreshments. The dining table was very pretty, decorated with an immense centerpiece of red peonies and the three birthday cakes with the lighted candles. Small baskets of candy were given each guest as a favor.

Girls' Reserve Dinner.

A dinner was given at the Y. W. C. A. rooms Thursday night by the Girls' Reserve of the W. T. W. Some of the girls of the organization prepared and served the dinner. The color scheme for the rooms was in blue and gold. The table was decorated with a centerpiece of yellow tulips, and blue and gold ribbons from the chandelier to each place card. Miss Ruth Baum acted as toast mistress. Several very clever toasts were given. The guests of honor were Miss Helen Fair and Jimmie Price, who has been here in the interest of the eastern relief work.

Young People's Party.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Neiswander of the Chenoweth district was the scene of a delightful young people's party Thursday with Miss Pansy Neiswander and her brother Paul as host and hostess. The house was tastefully decorated with wild cherry blossoms and cut flowers. Games furnished much amusement throughout the evening. Delicious refreshments were served. The guests present were Sarah Hartman, Hazel Branch, Marguerite Hill, Bertha Potter, Veryl Calbreath, Sophrona Morris, Ruth Morris, Lela Meredith, Vera Canfield, Guy Hill, Orville Cochran, Frank Heckman, George French, Ted Meredith, Idus Green, Laurence Roberts, Rev. G. K. Hartman and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hill.

Nurses Entertained.

Mrs. George Hilgen entertained the nurses of the graduating class of The Dalles hospital at her home last week. A delightful time was spent with music and cards. Refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Oro Sears, Mattie Pritchard, Albert Eddings, Edith Ozle, Mabel Spinning, Pearl Spinning, May Compton, Lydia Elton, Ethel Gasmere, Gertrude Betworth and Lorna Darnielle.

An enjoyable picnic was held at the Nielsen ranch on Mill creek Friday evening. Those in attendance were Dr. and Mrs. T. DeLarhue, Jessie Furbrache, Amy Davidson, Al Nielsen and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Corson.

A delightful social time was enjoyed by 40 of the Happy Hustlers of the Methodist church, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. L. J. Gates was hostess to the members of Circle A of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon.

As of Yore, "Little Church" Still Refuge of Thespians

By Westbrook Pegler

(United News Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, May 23.—No matter what accusations other preachers may make against actors, the Little Church Around the Corner remains their church—the pastor, the Rev. George Clarke Houghton, their friend, just as his uncle, the previous pastor, was 30 odd years ago, when Joseph Jefferson went trudging from church to church to find someone willing to bury his friend, George Holland.

Dr. George Clarke Houghton is celebrating the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Little Church Around the Corner, the 24th anniversary of his pastorate and the 5th anniversary of his ordination as an Episcopal minister, all at once. The impulsive manner in which his uncle invited Joseph Jefferson to bring George Holland there for burial service so long ago made the church of the Transfiguration famous all over the country as the "Little Church Around the Corner." But the irony of that name had been forgotten until the anniversary exercises recalled the circumstances under which it was given to the little red brick, ivy-covered church in a setting of green, in the shadows of the tall buildings.

The Rev. Dr. Sabine, pastor of a fashionable church, was engaged at that time in a crusade against the stage and actors. Joseph Jefferson had not heard of it when he dropped into the pastor's study and asked him to conduct the funeral of Holland, an English actor, who had just died. Doctor Sabine refused to bury an actor, but said Jefferson might try at that "little church around the corner." The elder Dr. Houghton, then pastor of the Transfiguration, put on his hat and went right up with Jefferson to console George Holland's widow and the descendants of the Hollands to this day take their babies to the Little Church Around the Corner to be bap-tizied. They marry there and they'll be buried from there. As the anniversary celebrations impended last week, Dr. Joseph C. Stratton, pastor of the fashionable Calvary Baptist church, was denouncing actors and actresses. "I don't see how a man can criticize people he doesn't know, in any Christ-like spirit," said Dr. Houghton.

"And I have known so many actors and actresses as fine ladies and gentlemen that I can't believe that any man who condemns them all really knows them. For a long time I attended the meetings of the Players' club and many time I have been the guest of the Lambs' club and I have found that the general influence of the actor's work is uplifting, not degrading.

"But even the little girls who dance in musical shows are not to be condemned by any man because they wear short costumes. I have had young stage girls come to me for advice and I know them to be respectable. Perhaps some of the producers are to be blamed for immoral suggestions on the stage, I can't criticize musical comedies of today because I have not been to a theater for some years. But as to the actors, themselves, I know of no better class of people."

The Little Church Around the Corner is not a theatrical parish. Most of the communicants are in other professions. But when the leading actors of Broadway took part in the anniversary services they were assured again that it was their church if they cared to make it so.
