

CITY TO CLOSE IN HONOR OF NATION'S DEAD

PARADE FROM COURT HOUSE
WILL PROCEED AT 9:15 TO CEMETERY.

COL. LEADER, SPEAKER

GUNS FOR SALUTE SOUGHT BY LEGION COM.
MITTEE.

In reverent respect for the nation's heroic dead, The Dalles will be closed Monday so far as business is concerned.

Courts, county and city offices and business houses will be closed for the day so far as possible, and the residents of the city will unite with patriotic societies in paying the memorial tribute.

Commander Pat Foley of The Dalles post No. 19, American Legion, announced this afternoon that Colonel John Leader of the British army, has been secured as the speaker of the day. He will be heard from a stand being built in Odd Fellows' cemetery.

The parade of veterans' organizations and other groups will start at 9:15 from the court house. The line of march will be westward to the Fourth street bridge, where the parade will disband, and the marchers will repair to the cemetery, a short distance further on, for the ceremonies.

Conveyances will be provided for the older veterans, those of the Civil war and the Indian wars, as well as for the crippled and sick of the other conflicts of the nations.

The Legion had previously announced that the parade was to be held at 10 o'clock. The committee today changed the parade hour to 9:15, and this schedule will be adhered to according to F. V. Galloway, committee chairman.

Colonel Leader will be remembered by men of The Dalles who attended the student officers' training camp at Eugene. He was commander of the Irish Rifles, a British army regiment from Belfast, Ireland, early in the war. After being wounded, he was sent to the United States as an instructor and stationed at Eugene. He has since gone into civil life in Portland, and has promised Commander Foley that he will be in The Dalles Sunday evening.

Members of the Legion are seeking two more army rifles with which the salute for the dead may be fired at the cemetery. Several rifles have already been procured. The post has ammunition for Springfield or Krag Jorgensen, and Foley requests that he be notified if any of these guns are available.

Two hundred red poppies, the official flower of the American Legion, are expected from Seattle today. They will be worn by the veterans and auxiliaries.

A number of fraternal organizations have signified intentions of appearing in the parade Monday.

MEMORIAL DAY SAVES

EARL BARZEE PLEADS GUILTY TO AVOID TRIAL DE.
LAY.

The fact that Monday, Memorial Day, is a legal holiday, today probably saved Earl Barzee of Maupin the sum of $250.

Barzee was arrested several months ago by Sheriff Levi Christman upon the charge of manufacturing intoxicating liquor. He was indicted by the grand jury and entered a plea of not guilty in the circuit court.

Barzee's trial was to have come up yesterday, but all of the witnesses had not been secured. Circuit Judge Fred W. Wilson, accordingly started trial of Louis Gilson of Tygh Valley upon a statutory charge.

Today it developed that all of Barzee's and the state's witnesses were ready. The court was still occupied with the trial of Gilson, however. District Attorney Francis Galloway then did a bit of figuring and arrived at the conclusion that it would cost the state about $300 to hold all of the jurors and witnesses over until Tuesday, when the next session of court could be held.

He consulted with Attorney R. R. Butler, representing Barzee. The outcome of the consultation was that Barzee agreed to change his plea to one of guilty, provided that the district attorney would recommend a light fine and no sentence. Galloway agreed to this proposal.

The Gilson trial was interrupted this afternoon in order to give Barzee an opportunity to change his plea to that of guilty. Galloway recommended a fine of $250, and no jail sentence, as per agreement, explaining that it was the only way he could figure out that the state could "get out even on the deal."

Judge Wilson concurred with the recommendation of the district attorney and imposed a fine of $250.

ON WAR PATH.

By United Press
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, May 28.—Another outbreak among the Ute Indians of Utah and Colorado is expected by the authorities.

This situation arose today when an Indian was killed in San Juan county while County Attorney Keller and Sheriff Hyde were attempting to round up Indian cattle thieves.

Following the killing, the rest of the band took to the mountains, shouting that they would return with reinforcements. Poses were immediately organized at Monticello and Blanding. It was later discovered that the red men had cut telephone and telegraph wires between Red Bluff and Blanding.

United States Marshal Nebeker of Salt Lake City was appealed to for help. He immediately reported the matter to the governor's office. Lamar Nelson, the governor's secretary, advised the adjutant general to have troops in readiness.

An uprising occurred among the same tribe near Bluff, Utah, in 1915. The Indians separated into two bands of 250 braves each. They erected a strong fort at Comb Wash, Utah. General Hugh Scott, a veteran of former Indian wars, went to the scene. So great was the respect of the Indians for this soldier that they agreed to...

Creation of a neutral zone comprising the disputed areas.

Occupation of this zone by allied military forces.

MISS LEIGH FIRST WOMAN TO MAKE COLUMBIA RIVER
TRIP BY AIR ROUTE.

The honor of being the first woman to make the trip from Portland to The Dalles by air, fell yesterday to Miss Artie Leigh, daughter of Mrs. Rose Leigh of this city. Miss Leigh was a passenger in the hydroplane which landed Friday evening in the Columbia river, after making the entire distance from Portland to The Dalles in an hour and 10 minutes. The plane was piloted by Lieutenant Ayers of Astoria.

Miss Graddell Leigh, a sister, arrived in the city yesterday by train. She is a skilled aviatress, having but recently received her pilot's license in Portland. Because the hydroplane is only capable of carrying two passengers, Miss Graddell Leigh made the trip by train in order that her younger sister might have the flight.

Lieutenant Ayers expects to remain in the city for several days, and will carry passengers aloft tomorrow, if weather conditions permit.

HISTORICAL PAGEANT IS SUCCESSFUL

DRAMA OF PROGRESS IN NORTH-WEST ATTENDED BY THOU-SANDS FRIDAY

INDIANS APPLAUDED

ROCKY DELL AT CAMP GROUND
SCENE OF COLORFUL
PRESENTATION.

In the presence of a crowd roundly estimated at 5,000 people, who jammed to capacity the rocky amphitheater at the automobile camp grounds west of the city, the first historical pageant of The Dalles, product of Community Service, was given Friday night.

To say the thing was successful is admitting little. The pageant was an event which will be memorable in the history of Wasco county, because it was a superlative production in the presence of the largest gathering of people ever seen in The Dalles.

Weather conditions for the pageant were made to order, it seemed, the high wind of the two days previously dying away until the air was calm. It seemed as though the mountain gods who were depicted in the symbolism of the pageant smiled on the drama which brought back age old memories to them.

Over a thousand automobiles were parked in the grounds adjacent to the arena, and the steep little hills surrounding the stage were crowded until hardly any more could have squeezed in. Indeed hundreds of people vainly sought points of vantage and finally returned to the city in disappointment and scores of autoists came sized up the situation and turned away.

As a spectacle the pageant was a master triumph but as an indication of the good spirit that prevails in The Dalles now as never before, it was even more notable.

Indians Do Well.

The hundreds who participated in the vivid panorama did the work well, showing the results of careful training. The pageant is all the more to be commended upon, when one considers it was completed in less than a month.

Long in the memory of those who attended the pageant will remain the striking pictures presented by the Indians, the solemn notes of the big war tom tomms contrasting strangely with the brilliant costumes worn by the aborigines. The Indians are natural actors, it seems, and they were at their best Friday night. From the first to the last the Indians almost created a riot. When the thump of the drums punctuated the weird war dance of the braves, while gayly attired squaws stood in the circle about the camp fire, men and women realized poignantly the sinister fate overhanging those who first dared to brave the wilderness of the northwest, and children shivered and drew closer to their elders.

Gorgeously decked horses and head dresses worn by the braves.

GAMBLER TELLS OF ZEIGLER'S
FRIENDSHIP WITH "KISSING BLONDE."

By United Press
CHICAGO, May 28.—"Handsome Jack" Barry told authorities here today that Mrs. Cora Orthwein was jealous of the friendship between "the kissing blonde" and Herbert P. Zeigler.

The prosecutors claimed that the testimony of Barry, a "man about town," would prove conclusively that jealousy was the motive for the slaying of Zeigler by Mrs. Orthwein, when the woman's trial is held next week.

Barry, who was sought by the authorities for several weeks on charges of operating a society gambling house, appeared voluntarily at the district attorney's office today. Barry, Zeigler, Beatrice Brenner, an actress, and Charlotte Lewinsky, the "kissing blonde," made up a party at a party garden here the evening the high-salied manager of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber company was killed. Zeigler had told Mrs. Orthwein he had a "business engagement" that night and then joined the party. Mrs. Orthwein became suspicious, went to the party garden and saw the party. When Zeigler went to her apartment later that night she shot and killed him.
