HARRIMAN CLUB DRUBBED BY SCORE OF 10 TO 4: VISITORS HADN'T A CHANCE.

Apparently not satisfied with drabbing the Harriman club baseball team Sunday, The Dalles nine yesterday repeated the performance. After balls, bats and other articles used in all of the best ball games, had been cleared from the scenery, it was found that the locals had pushed 10 runs across the plate, as compared to 4 for the Portland rail-

The Harriman club team came to The Dalles with a record of having won five games in the Portland city league and lost none. Sunday's game completely dispelled any illusion MISKE MAY JOIN held by the Portland players that the local swatsters were "sage brush artists," however, The Dalles won the first by 7 to 5.
