With all due despect to Mr. Arbury, it would seem to be poor commentary upon the city if it could not go through with the thing which he has started. Let's no let it die just b cause its director is leaving. Let's keep up the community meet ings, feater the playgrounds, develop the spirit of unified play.

To start off right, suppose all of us go to the Union Street park meeting Wednesday.

In these good old Voisteadian days, we felks in the newspaper business sort of miss something around election day. In years of yore, Shurter, the reporters used to come in with the mayor's proclamation ordering Wolcott. all the thirst parlors to close "during the hours of voting." Remember? The memory is rather a sad ebe, in some ways.
