

MILLION MEN IDLE IN ENGLAND

By United News LONDON, June 8.—The Daily Herald, leading labor organ of England, declares there are 2,128,800 registered unemployed in the country and 1,194,200 registered workers engaged only on short time.

The government unemployment insurance fund, which totaled $150,000,000 January 1, now shows a $50,000,000 deficit.

Groups of unemployed men and women may be seen cleaning coal from cinder heaps and gathering surface coal from outcroppings about the mines.

The order that prevails, the complete absence of violence in what is actually one of the most serious industrial struggles in the history of the country, is one of the most remarkable features of the situation.

According to best available statistics, 2,000,000 men in England are now receiving unemployment doles. Another 2,000,000 idle men are to be found among the coal, cotton and transport strikers.

FUTURE OF FRANCE MAY REST WITH BIG FIGHT

By Webb Miller (United Press Staff Correspondent) PARIS, June 8.—Whether he wins or loses, Carpentier's fight with Dempsey eventually will be a big factor in the future military defense of France—and even her material prosperity.

This is the novel view taken by Gaston Vidal, Under-Secretary of Technical Instruction in Physical Culture and Sports, the first official Minister of Sports to be appointed by any government in the world.

"After the enormous losses in the war it is a vital necessity for France to rebuild her depleted manpower if she is to effectively defend herself in any future wars of aggression.

"Therefore, it is necessary that France do her utmost to conserve the lives we have and keep the people in good health and physical fitness for service in our armies— if the need ever arises.
