

THE DAILY CHRONICLE

Established 1899 The Dalles, Ore. Published Every Evening Except Sunday by the Chronicle Publishing Company Inc. Gen. R. Liffin General Manager

THE STREET LIGHTS

At the city election last November, the voters, by more than two to one, passed a measure enabling Second street business men to put in a system of ornamental street lighting.

of the country by wireless was established June 20 when postoffice department wireless stations at North Platte, Nebr., Rock Springs, Wyo., and Elko, Nev., were included in the radio market news service of the bureau of markets.

LOOKING BACKWARD

(From The Chronicle, June 23, 1896.) The old blockhouse at the Cascades is fast disappearing and will soon be only a memory.

of the new board. Before turning over the reins of office to the new board, members of the old board granted Community Service permission to use the yards of public schools in the city for children's playground sites.

PERSONALS

Solon Dobson of Hood River is a business visitor in The Dalles today. J. C. and D. McDermaid both of Wasco are staying at the Bank hotel.

Wernmark Car Stolen - "Lost, strayed or stolen - one Henry, last seen standing quietly by the curb on Court street, near Second."

WINS MEMBERSHIP FLAG

The J. W. NeSmith post, W. R. C. of The Dalles, has the honor of winning the flag presented by the state for the post with the greatest increase in membership during the last year.

B. L. WILL DEFEAT PALMER BEER DECREE VOLSTEAD AGREES TO COMPROMISE: NEW MEASURES WILL WIN OUT.

STORES WILL

(Continued From Page 1.) give the town team a mighty close run for its money. The idea of a "twilight" league, with teams made up of business men, to play in the cooler hours of the evening, is rapidly finding favor about town.

heard the downstairs bells ringing. Then I heard some one at the door trying to get in. "I went to the door, Mr. Zeigler was there. He said that if I would not let him in he would kill me, he was swearing and trying to break the chain. I said, 'Herb, you can't come in; please go away.' With an oath, he said he would show me. He crashed against the door.

FRIDAY

Wm. D. Taylor's Great Production "The Soul of Youth" The story of a boy that will please everyone. Do you remember that boy in "Huckleberry Finn"?

you," he said with an oath. I told him not to hit me again. When I got to my feet he rushed at me again. I saw the revolver on the stand near me. He looked like he was crazy, I picked up the gun and fired. He fell. I fired again, I guess."

TONIGHT

HAROLD GOODWIN - In - "Oliver Twist, Jr." Modernized from Charles Dickens' story. ALSO Mutt and Jeff "Glue Factory" George Stearns On the Organ

CHP A BOX

"I'm shipping half a dozen boxes of cherries back to friends in the east. I don't know what would please them more."

NEWS NOTES

New Hair Arrive - A ton was hauled at The Dalles hospital Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Nair.

Artisans Picnic

The United Artisans will have a picnic Sunday, June 26, at the W. H. Wilson place on Chenoweth creek.

ASK FOR and GET Horlick's

The Original Malted Milk for Infants and Invalids. Avoid Imitations and Substitutes.

CASINO

The LITTLE House with the BIG Pictures. TODAY - "WOLVES OF THE STREET" - A finish fight in Wall Street.

Clearance Sale of Women's Coats and Suits-Now On

These garments are the products of some of this country's best makers of women's wearables and at the following low prices offer decided bargains that should not be overlooked.