By Margaret Walker

The graduates are going forth—
God bless them every one!
To run this hard and stubborn world
Just as it should be run;
But much I fear that they'll find
That facts
Don't always track with dreams;
And ranning this old world is not
As easy as it seems.
The graduate is prone to think
His wisdom is complete,
He's but to ask—the world will lay
Its trophies at his feet.
But school days done and work begun,
He learns to his regret
The college of experience he has
Not mastered yet.
The world has garlands and applause
At graduating time;
But may forget him the next day,
When he attempts to climb.
Life is a battle where each one
Must seek and hold his own.
He who would rise above the clouds
Must scale the heights alone.
This is the rule of life today,
As it has ever been;
This world bestows its smiles on Those
Who have the strength to win,
Beneath all outward semblances
It looks for merit true.
It little cares how much you know,
But asks, what can you do?

Most of the students, who have been away during the greater part of the past nine months are at home again. The guest list of several of this week's parties include the names of some of them; and as we come and go, we are meeting some of the new-old faces again on the streets. Most of the young men are contemplating work for the summer; some of the young women are planning to spend the summer quietly at home and others will have vacation trips to beach or mountain resorts before returning to college.

Shower For Brides-to-be
Mrs. Hugh Logan and Mrs. Emma Carlisle entertained Thursday night with a miscellaneous shower at their home for Miss Elizabeth Hadley, who is to be married with a church wedding July 26. The wedding of Miss Mary Catherine Kunsman and George Newton Crossfield, which is to take place Sunday was announced, and Miss Kunsman shared in the honors.

The rooms were decorated with wedding bells and mock orange blossoms (syringa). The gift table in the dining room was decorated with pink streamers from the chandeliers; a kowtow bride and groom stood facing the doors as if to greet the guests; a pink parasol was suspended above the centerpiece, which held many dainty and valuable gifts.

A feature of the refreshments which afforded much merriment, were little pink "luck cakes"; one containing a ring, one a silver piece, one a thimble and one a button. The destinies as settled by the cakes, make Miss Thelma Fritz the next bride; Miss Ethel Lowell will marry wealth; Miss Edna Pease will devote her life to sewing; and Miss Helen Huntington will share married bliss to be a bachelor maid. Corsage bouquets of candy, tulle and lace were given as favors. The bridal idea was carried out in the heart shapes and pink and white colors of the refreshments.

Miss Jeannette Crossfield won the high score at bridge and Miss Thelma Fritz, the consolation prize; Mrs. Wilbur Hostetter won the high score at five hundred and Miss Ruth Gay, the consolation. Mrs. M. G. Lay and Miss Mable Mack assisted the hostesses. The guest list included Misses Elizabeth Hadley, Mary Kunsman, Bernice Bright, Helen Gardner of Baker, Jeannette Crossfield, Norma Medler, Nell Has kins, Anna Hoesch, Thelma Fritz, Ethel Lowell, Beatrice Coffey, Helen Schoren, Margaret Meyer, Helen Flinn, Florence Williams, Gertrude Phetteplace, Elizabeth Burget, Bonita Kirk, Amelia Steeves, Helen Huntington, Maud Harriman, Ruth Gay, Edna Pease and Marion Dreka Lay; Mesdames W. Surprise Birthday Party
A pleasant surprise party was enjoyed last Friday afternoon at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Rutherford, the occasion being the seventh birthday anniversary of their daughter Elizabeth. The dining table was attractive with a "Mother Goose" tablecloth and pink streamers from the ceiling to the table. The place cards were sunbonnet babies and overall boys. Favors of tiny pink baskets of candy were given. Each guest brought her dolly and the time was spent in a well furnished play house. The invited guests were Eva Win Jones, Sarah Jones, Gertrude Hillson, Charlotte Roudsau, Dolly and Zella Gray, Elizabeth Robinson, Prudence Hix, Maxine Fraley, Eva Slusher, Mary Margaret Slusher, Marie Slusher, Betty Slusher, Harriet Gill, Marion Vanderpool, Nurine Murphy, Harriet Hix, Del Roudsau and Harry Rutherford.

Reception For Sisters
Mrs. Leon W. Curtis gave a formal reception at Hotel Dalles Wednesday afternoon honoring her five sisters, who are visiting here this week. The six sisters, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. E. F. Hunter, Mrs. F. M. Kunzebaum, Mrs. Shemah Cooley, and Mrs. Robert Mosdefee were in the reception line. They wore corsage bouquets of sweet peas. One hundred and twenty-five called during the afternoon. Mrs. Don W. Yantis, Mrs. Clifford Gordon, Miss Verna Curtis, Mrs. Josephia Curtis Fulton, Miss Jeanette Snipes, and Mrs. J. M. Lowe assisted. Mrs. Curtis received many congratulations on having her sisters with her. Less fortunate friends were impressed with the unusual good fortune of Mrs. Curtis in having their companionship. It has become a custom with them to hold a family reunion every two years; the last one was at Berkeley Cal. in 1919. The six sisters are daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fenton, Oregon pioneers.

VARIETIES OF SPRING WHEAT CHANGE IN POPULAR FAVOR
Varieties of wheat change in popularity in the spring wheat belt—Minnesota, North and South Dakota, and Montana. The five leading varieties in these states have made interesting shifts in relative importance in the past seven years, according to data recently compiled by the bureau of crop estimates, United States department of agriculture.
Marquis was least important in 1914, but in 1916 it had jumped into first place. It has held this place since, although its peak of popularity seemed to have been reached in 1919, when it comprised 58.3 per cent of all the spring wheat raised in these four states, and in 1920, 57 per cent of the wheat grown in these states.
Durham wheat has been making steady gain in popularity since 1914, and is the only one of the leading varieties that gained, relatively, in 1920. It is the heaviest yielder in bushels per acre, the specialists say. Velvet chaff, blue stem and fire have each lost in relative importance each year since 1916. In 1920, 57 per cent of the spring wheat raised in the four states mentioned was of the marquis variety, 26.4 Durham, 8.4 velvet chaff, 4.1 blue stem, 2.4 fire, and 1.7 other varieties.

teams. All had formerly played baseball and in the majority of instances, had forgotten very little about the game.
Organization of the city "twilight" league will probably go ahead by leaps and bounds, now that the ice has been broken in the first game, business men believe. It is argued that a number of really creditable teams may be placed in the field, for instance, a retail clerks' team. The musicians have already announced that they stand ready to get up a team and take on all comers.
