MISSIONARIES CREDITED WITH PROGRESS MADE BY INDIANS

"The project that has been made to turn the Indians into farmers was impossible to have been accomplished without the personal interest and efforts of those who were influential in favor of the measure. In the first place, the work was not done in a hurry, but in a way that was sure to succeed. The Indians were given the right to make up their minds, and they used that right to the best advantage. The results have been very satisfactory, and we have every reason to believe that the work will continue to improve."... (continues)

GENERAL RICHARDS' ORATION

"Easter is a time for rejoicing, and it is fitting that we should celebrate it with a parade and other festivities. The boys have already made arrangements for the parade, and I am sure they will do it right. I am looking forward to it with great interest."... (continues)

FIGHT PANS

"It is too bad that we cannot have a real fight this year. The war is still going on, and we cannot afford to have any unnecessary disturbances. I hope that the boys will be able to have a good time without any trouble."... (continues)
