TOWN AND COUNTY.

The last Council increased the pay of the night watchman to $85 per month; which, taken with private subscriptions, pays very well.

County Court has been in session during the past week, and has transacted considerable business of a Probate nature.

It is said that the Ku-Klux of this city have decided to meet in secret hereafter, and swear each member.

At the last meeting of the Common Council Wm. Singer was allowed a reduction of $600.00 on his assessment for 1868.

The new flouring mill of Messrs. Miller, Church, and others, fitted in this city, the past year, will begin the work of flouring wheat on Monday next.

The new Flouring Mill Co. have obtained permission to use the street in front of their premises, for putting up a railway connecting with the P. T. Company's warehouse.

The steamer Ann, formerly the Lewiston, built on the upper Columbia river, has been sold to a firm in Salem who will use her as a tug to tow wood-yard barges.

There is still a vacancy in the Agricultural College at Corvallis, for a pupil from this senatorial district. Application should be made to Hon. D. P. Thompson.

Bachtel, the popular artist of Oregon, has at Portland some photographing implements for sale at a low figure, which he warrants true and good.

The regular Communion Services at St. Paul's (Episcopal) Church in this city, takes place to-morrow morning. Bible Class and Sabbath School at 2 o'clock p. m. Services morning and evening as usual.

The Enterprise office is becoming popular amongst the ladies of our city—if political hacks do not regard it a fit place for association. Several calls by the fair sex are hereby acknowledged.

It is a well established fact, in this city, that those men who chiefly pay the taxes are least benefited by the appropriations from the city treasury—and the matter is likely to become "common talk" pretty soon.

On Friday evening next, at the Plaza Hotel in this city, which by the way is now a little the best Hotel in this part of the county, there will be a public cotillion party. There will be room enough and good cheer for all. See advertisement.

At the meeting of the Common Council on Monday evening last, Mayor Dr. Barclay, A. J. Apperson, and N. W. Randall were appointed a small-pox committee. They have no patients to treat of—by report or otherwise.

The What Cheer House at Portland still maintains a first class reputation, and it is usually well patronized by travelers from all parts of the coast. Messrs. Lyons, Leonard & Co., are desiring of a large share of public patronage. See advertisement.

Mr. Bacon found his old quarters too much "cramped" for his business, and has removed the Bookstore and Post office to a fire proof room, in the Court House building. His new quarters are ample, and he is now much better prepared to accommodate the public. If Mr. Bacon has not the book you want he will very soon get it—if you order of him. See advertisement.

The shooting heard in this city so frequently of late, proceeds from the premises of Mr. F. Wilde, he having sworn destruction to the feline species about this vicinity. Sometimes it is said he shoots a chicken—but that is only a test of the principle, perhaps, that to make hens lay in winter you must hit them over the head.

Some persons in Oregon are finding fault with Mr. H. B. Parker, who is a government officer, because that he does his duty. In this city Mr. Parker's visits have been not only profitable but agreeable to very many dealers who feel themselves under obligations to him for timely reminders of their duty under the Internal Revenue Laws of Congress. We have been acquainted with Mr. Parker for some time, and so far as our acquaintance extends we think him to be a gentleman, high minded enough to be above doing a mean act for paltry dollars.

Rev. G. H. Atkinson is returning home, having left New York City by steamer Alaska on the 9th of January.

SAUER-KRAUT.—Lovers of this German dish can find a good article at Jake Hansaker's Enterprise Market in quantities to suit.

We are to have lively times in Oregon hereafter, on law cases. The ball will begin to roll in about sixty days. Clackamas county will come in for a share of it.

Wortman & Fields have the celebrated oil cake for feed, for sale in quantities to suit. It is the next thing to a patent milk for cows. They "give down" under it.

The Restaurant of Mr. Newman, recently established in this city, is becoming the favorite resort of strangers in our city who desire a meal at odd hours.

The Land Office of this place disposed of lands during the month of January 1869 as follows: By final Donation Certificates, 11,556 acres; by Homestead Entries, 2,659 acres; by Cash Sales, 528 acres; by final Homestead Entries, 802 acres.

Prof. Hermann, the most celebrated legerdemain performer on this coast, gave two exhibitions in this city, on Wednesday and Thursday evening last, not only to the amusement and satisfaction of his audience, but to the profit of many who received handsome gifts from him.

The following letters remain uncalled for at the Post office in this city: Theodore Boone; Wm. Dickson; J. C. Forbes; Miss Mary Gilmore; G. F. Hilber; Levi Lindley; Mrs. Eldridge Newkirk; Mrs. Susan Rice; Miss Sarah S. Howell; Edward Voss; E. W. Weston 2; Mrs. E. M. Welch; Wm. Weston. If not called for they will be sent to the dead-letter office.

Letters are held for postage at the office in this city addressed as follows: A. M. De Shields, Sherman, Grason county Texas; M. Richardson, Clackamas; Mrs. Julia Ann Rex Jarvis, Buttehill, D. Kalb Co., Ind.; D. Cutting, M. Starkweather, Oregon City; T. Weckert, Boise City, Idaho; last, though not least, T. McF. Patton, Salem, Oregon.

The Wallamet Witness says: We are glad to note the arrival in our State of two young preachers of our order, Elbridge Gerry, from Massachusetts, and J. W. Miller, from Wisconsin. Bro. Miller is temporarily supplying the Congregational church in Portland, and Bro. Gerry has found a ripe field and a ready welcome at Oregon City.

ODD FELLOWS HALL.—The Directors of the Odd Fellows' Hall Association of this city are displaying the right kind of spirit, and are determined that the building shall be built this year. We learn that in consequence of some disagreement among parties having control of the original site, the building may be erected farther up town. We regret this very much—we had hoped to see a fine brick edifice adjoining the block in front of our office, but if we are rightly informed the desired improvement will not be made in this locality.

About eighteen months ago the minds of Oregonians who have any taste for a fine invention, were attracted to a rotary steam engine, invented by Salmon & Brother of this city. The model was made, and the engine worked well, but before Messrs. Salmon obtained their patent the Scientific American of July 20th 1868, informed the world that a Printer, Yes, a Printer! named Turner, of the Grand Rapids, Engle, had obtained a patent, about then, for the same thing. Without stopping to account for the phenomena, Messrs. Salmon applied themselves more vigorously to the work, and now we are shown the result of their labors in an Improved Rotary Engine, of double action—reversible. It is a very simple machine. So simple that any one can be an engineer wherever it is used. It will be applicable to locomotives, or steamboats, and we predict for it a leading place in that catalogue. The model is finished, and will go on to Washington City within a short time. We should like to know how Turner & Co., happened to get the very same ideas concentrated in Salmon's original engine?

Several respectable gentlemen of Portland have recently been "caned." A. B. Richardson, Esq., among the rest. The latest incident of this nature occurred to Mayor Hamilton Boyd. He was "caned" on Thursday evening last, by Thomas Young, Wm. O. Bruen and Johnny Thompson, at the instance of Columbian Engine Company No. 3. The "cane" is a beautiful gold headed one, valued at $100.00, and is suitably inscribed. Mr. Boyd "took it" in a neat speech, thanking the donors.

All citizens of Oregon who desire to inform their friends in the old States of the condition and progress of this State, can have no more complete and comprehensive volume of facts to send them than by subscribing for this journal, and having us mail it weekly to their friends. We mail it as directed. For $5.00 paid in advance, we mail two copies of the Enterprise one year. Send the paper to friends in the East. One copy one year, $3.00. Two copies one year, $5.00. Four copies six months, $5.00. Eight copies, three months, $5.00.

RAILROAD ITEM.—While some men are trucks to bear the burdens of the earth, or furnace grates to bear the fires and to be consumed in obscurity, others are driving wheels which give life and motion to all with whom they are connected. Kohn & Fisher, the leading dry goods merchants of Portland are the driving wheels of trade in that city. They conceived and carried on to completion a work nobler than the Pyramids, grander than the gardens of Ninveh, or the walls of Babylon; for their work is not a monument for the dead, neither the gratification of a luxurious fancy, but it is a new pathway for purchasers, a link to bind the chain of families and the hearts of men.

All persons who keep Howe & Stevens' Family Dye Colors for sale can be relied on for fair dealing, for the reason that they cost the retailer twenty-five cents per dozen more than other kinds of Dyes in the market, while he retails them all at the same price—consequently he makes 25 cts. per dozen more, by selling an inferior article.

PREMIUM GANG PLOWS.

As the age in which we live demands progress in Farming Implements as well as in all other branches of industry, I have entered extensively upon the Manufacture of the Celebrated

Pfeil Gang Plow!

Better known in Oregon as the WOL-GAMOT PLOW. This Plow combines all the desirable points of a perfect implement, being simple in construction, cheap, durable, and of light draft. The only Premiums which were awarded to Gang Plows at the great Implement trial at Mattoon, Sept. 4, 1866, by the State Agricultural Society of Illinois, were awarded to this Plow. The following is an extract from the Report of the Commissioner of Agriculture, for the year 1866, and may be found on page 246 of that report:—

The Gang Plow made by J. C. Pfeil, Arenville, Cass county Illinois, is received with no little favor in the west. Almost creditable statements are told of its excellence and efficiency in plowing the prairie fields of Illinois and other States.

The depth of the furrow is regulated by the crank axle, which is so arranged that the ploughs can be driven deeper or shallower at the pleasure of the driver, when the team is moving, by means of the lever.

We also manufacture sulkey plows for small boys, or infirm persons who are unable to manage a team of three or four horses. This gang or sulkey plow, will cut a furrow from 2 to 10 inches deep.

The committee who tested the draught of this plow with a dynamometer state, that it ran lighter by 140 pounds, than other plows when running at the same depth, and held by the plowman while on foot.

With this Plow one man can do more work than two men can do with walking plows, and the same amount of team. Hence, it will be seen that it will more than pay for itself in one season's plowing.

I will also manufacture the WEB-FOOT GANG PLOW!

—AND THE—

Web-Foot Walking Plow!

Both patterns of my own invention, for which patents have been applied for, and which have withstood practical tests with the best results, receiving flattering testimonials wherever seen or tried.

Now, the Farmers of Oregon are invited to give the Oregon City Manufactory a trial. Do not purchase a Plow of any description until you have examined my make and prices, as I am determined to sell at less than importer's rates, by giving you a more durable article, and a guarantee warranting the same.
