LOST_TO SOCIETY LOST.

Touch not the fallen one-drive her away ; Guilty and soulless, but beautiful clay: Though her heart's bleeding-hear not her plead At any cost!

Speak, if you would of her, As lost; To society lost! So sad and dejected, the poor broken-hearter Love, honor, and all save life, have departed one proffer relief, to heal her heart's grief-

Forget what is good of her-

Oh, fearful the cost! No one befriends her; Fashion condemns her As lost; To society lost!

Heed not her sighs, her entreaties and tear Spurn her! as one for whom nobody cares: ost and degraded; To memory she's faded; Trifling the cost! Forget you e'er blessed her ; E'er kissed and caressed her;

She 's lost; To society lost!

Oh, pity her not; she has fallen from place-Applaud her betrayer, receive him with grace Smile on her deceiver, but do not receive her At any cost! For such is propriety in Christian society, When lost; To society lost!

Innocent, Loving, Betrayed and Forsaken; Guilty and Fallen-by Vice overtaken; Let society blame her-try not to reclaim her, At any cost. Forget all her beauty-Do society's duty: She's lost-to society lost!

Oh, merciless fashion, why do you nurture Hypocrisy's laws and assassinate virtue?

Frown on the fallen one, And your proud duty's done: She's lost-to society lost!
