When the grass shall cover me, Holden close to earth's warm bosom; While I laugh, or weep, or sing, Nevermore, for anything ; You will find in blade and blossom, Sweet small voices, odorous, Tender pleaders in my cause, That shall speak of me as I was, When the grass grows over me,

When the grass shall cover me, Ah, beloved, in my sorrow Very patient I can wait, Knowing that, or soon or late, There will dawn a clearer morrow; When your heart will moan : " Alas! Now I know how true she was; Now I know how dear she was; ' When the grass grows over me!
