

The Weekly Enterprise.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

A Good Load.—On last Thursday the James Patton brought down one hundred and forty tons of freight, principally wheat and bacon.

New Ads.—We would call particular attention to the new advertisements in to-day's paper. The business man who adds something worth going after, purchasers take due notice and act accordingly.

A Mistake.—Some one has said that Ayer's Hair Vigor will cause the hair to grow out luxuriantly on a bald pate in one night's time. This is not so. But after all, it is a most excellent dressing for the hair. For further particulars call upon Messrs. Bell & Parker Druggists.

Railroad Work.—It is confidently expected that work on the Oregon Central Railroad will be re-commenced in earnest at Parrot's Creek, about the 15th inst., and that the twenty miles of track now constructed will be ballasted for business just as fast as the weather will permit.

PERSONAL.—A few days since Gov. Curry called upon us and furnished us with the poem which appears in to-day's paper. The poem was written by W. Mungen, the Congressman from Ohio, who made the speech in favor of Repudiation, which has created such a sensation lately. The Governor is a personal friend of Mr. Mungen and says that he is the warm hearted, genial gentleman which the lines "to my wife" indicate.

School.—By an advertisement in to-day's paper, it will be seen that Mr. J. R. N. Sellwood will open a private school in this city, on next Monday. We understand that Mr. Sellwood was Principal of the Sublimity Academy for some time, and that he has considerable experience in teaching, and we have no doubt that he will give general satisfaction.

A SAD ACCIDENT.—On last Wednesday, Mr. Nelson Harrington, who lived a few east of this place was in an old horse with one of his sons, a boy, shearing sheep. While thus engaged they noticed a rat running around in the upper part of the building. The boy got the gun for the purpose of shooting it, but the rat got out of sight, and he attempted to climb up into the loft with the gun, and in doing so it was accidentally discharged, the ball striking his father in the back part of the head, and killing him instantly.

"THE RIVER OF THE WEST."—It is perhaps six years since the literary circles of our own Oregon welcomed to a place here Mrs. Frances Fuller Victor, and since her coming she has not only been a delight to the minds of those who have good pen productions, but the lady has been admitted by the society in which she moves. During these years Mrs. Victor has, with all becoming diligence, collected and compiled the materials for a book, which is now before the public with the title above given, which will no doubt become familiar in thousands of homes. Mrs. Victor has, in this work of fifty chapters, quite 600 pages, if we may judge from the advanced sheets at hand, supplied an amount of useful information, and preserved very much more of events connected with the early history of the north-western slope. The work is illustrated with numerous fine engravings, and while it is made a special feature of the life and adventure of the justly celebrated mountain man and pioneer, Joe Meek, it also contains the best description of this part of the country yet published embracing accounts of its condition, prospects, and resources; its soil, climate and scenery; its mountains, rivers, valleys, natural wonders, and such topics as the ready and fluent pen of the authoress is very capable of rendering entertaining. The work is published by subscription only—and we are of the opinion that its sale in Oregon will be large, as all old time citizens will wish to read its reminiscences, and new comers will find it an acceptable companion to them in the land of their adoption.

Dr. J. W. MURRAY'S

Balsam for the Liver and Blood.

NATURE'S OWN REMEDY.

One of the Celebrated Physicians of Portland, says he is cured of the Lung and Liver complaint, and that he owes his life to Dr. Murray's Lung and Liver Balsam. Read what he says:—

"I have tried Dr. J. W. Murray's Lung and Liver Balsam. I used it in my family with the best of success. I was sick for some months, and used every remedy. I called several physicians, but they did me no good. I exhausted every remedy known to the medical profession, and received no benefit. This Lung and Liver Balsam cured me, and I do not hesitate to recommend it to the public and my friends, as a good and safe remedy. Those who know me, as many do in this State, know that I would not recommend them to use a thing that has no merit, because I am opposed to quack remedies."
