What Makes a Man?

Not numerous years, not lengthened life, Not pretty children and a wife. Not any such like trumpery things ; Not, pipe, cigar, nor bottled wine. Nothiberty with kings to dine; Not coat, nor boots, nor yet a hat: A dandy vest, or trim cravat : Nor houses, land, nor golden ore, Nor all the world's wealth laid in store Not Mister, Rev'rend. Sir, nor 'Squire, With titles that the memory tire; Nor ancestry, traced back to Will, Who went from Normandy to kill: Not Latin, Greek, or Hebrew lore : Nor thousand volumes rambled o'er; Nor a Judge's robe, nor Mayor's mace, Nor crowns that deck the royal race; These, all united, never can Avail to make a single man. The Enterprise office is supplied with A truthful soul, a loving mind, Full of affection for its kind, A belper of the human race, A soul of beauty and of grace! A spirit firm, erect and free. That never basely bends the knee; That will not bear a feather's weight Of slavery's chain, for small or great; That truly speaks of God within, And never makes a league with sin; That snaps the fetters despots make; And loves the truth for truth sown sake; That worships God, and Him alone, And bows nowhere, but at His throne; That trembles not at tyrant's rod-A soul that fears no one but God; And thus can smile at curse and ban -That is the soul that makes a man.
