TOWN AND COUNTY.

A KNOCK DOWN.—A Radical the other day was talking to a Democrat, and in the conversation the former remarked that a Chinaman or Alger was "as good as any Fishman," at which the latter gave him the weight of his fist, which brought him to the ground. The latter is an Irishman, and the insult offered was regarded for old times sake. It is very probable that he will give such unprovoked assaults to other people.

REAL ESTATE.—We have received several notices of a Real Estate Gazette, printed in Portland, by Messrs. Russell & Perry, real estate dealers. It contains general information regarding Oregon, and is sent to people out of this State free of charge. This firm is very energetic and reliable, and persons in search of homes will do well to give them a call. Messrs. Johnson & McCown are their agents in this place.

PICNIC.—The German citizens of this place will have a picnic next Sunday, June 12, on the grounds just below the park. Hacks and conveyances will be running from town to the grounds for the accommodation of those who may desire to go. Good music will be in attendance, and every arrangement for comfort has been made. A good time will be had. Everybody is invited to go.

CLERK.—The furniture and fixtures of the Cliff House were sold by the Sheriff last Thursday, and the house will be closed for the present. In about three weeks the house will be opened, after being refitted and furnished, by our friend Jas. Partlow, of Portland, and the popular landlady Mrs. W. L. White. We know that the Cliff House cannot fail to become popular under their management.

CENSUS.—Mr. S. D. Moore, Deputy U. S. Marshal of Clackamas county, has completed taking the census of Oregon City. He informs us that the population is a little over eleven hundred in the city. This will compare favorably with most of the towns in Oregon, and may be put down as the fourth town in population in the State.

CROWDED.—The large warehouse of the P. T. Co. is filled up with freight, and it has become necessary to store some of it on the lower wharf. Two boats still run between here and Portland, and yet they are not able to clear the immense amount of freight away that comes down from above.

BASE BALL.—The second game in the match between the Eckfords of this city, and the Websters of Lafayette, will be played at Lafayette next Monday. If our boys keep cool, and don't get frightened so far away from home, they will make it warm for the Websters.

TO BE EXAMINED.—The Fannie Patton is to be taken off the trade in a short time and placed in the dry dock and lengthened 19 feet, which will make her 150 feet long. The Senator is also to be taken off the trade between here and Portland, and thoroughly repaired.

BE CAREFUL.—A person was handling a shotgun the other day which was accidentally discharged. A fortunate wound had it, no one was hurt, yet a number of persons were standing around. Persons should be careful how they handle firearms.

PICNIC.—The children and parents of St. Paul's Episcopal Church had a pleasant time last Saturday on their picnic excursion. They left here in the morning on the Senator, and went down to Milwaukie, and returned in the evening.

SUPPER.—The supper given by the young ladies of this place for the benefit of the Eckford Base Ball Club, last Thursday evening, was well attended and a good time was had.

LEMMER YARD.—Messrs. Grepe & Pease have established a lumber yard at East Portland, and manufacture and ship their lumber from this place. This is a new avenue of wealth for our city.

FIGHTS.—There were three fights during the past week, one at Canaan on election day, and the other in front of the Cliff House last Wednesday. Bloody noses were the result of the various engagements.

LATE NOVELTIES.—Messrs. Wolff and Sons have received the Pyramid Hat, the Soft Harvard, Pearl Hair, Felt Band, Peabody, (Granite), Boy's Sailor, Mixed Straw, and other varieties.

TO TAXPAYERS.—In our advertising columns will be found this week the Sheriff's advertisement of delinquent property. Persons interested should take notice.

CALLED.—Dr. Weatherford, of Portland, gave us a call last Wednesday. We were pleased to see the Doctor looking so well.

SHOW FLY.—The new boat being constructed by the P. T. Co. has been named Show Fly.

THANKS.—The members of the Eckford Base Ball Club desire us to return their thanks to the ladies of this city for favors.

RESUMED HER PLACE.—The Dayton after having been painted and repaired, has taken her place again in the Yamhill trade.

NEW SALOON.—A. Cross has opened a larger beer saloon in the building formerly occupied by Chas. Freidrich.

CHERRIES.—Cherries are ripe in this vicinity. The crop this year is quite large.

REPAIRING.—The Active has been placed in the dry dock for repairs.

THE COUNTY COURT.—The County Court for Clackamas county has been in session during the week. We will publish the proceedings next week.

It is Coming.

There is much speculation as to the probable reasons for the present apathetic state of the public mind in relation to outrages and encroachments of the Radical faction in Congress. People are astonished that the country receives, with apparent indifference, infractions of the Constitution and partisan usurpations, which, ten years ago, would have roused a storm of popular fury. It is certainly disheartening to any man who has the love of his country at heart, to behold the overthrow of State Governments, the oppression of intelligence and the enfranchisement of ignorance, the bayonet interference with elections, and the thousand and one villainies that mark the progress of the leaders of the dominant party toward despotism—and see masses of his fellow-citizens march stolidly to the polls every year and vote to keep Radicalism in office a moment longer, however, will satisfy the inquirer that this painful phenomenon is not so extraordinary after all. A great civil war is always followed by a season of mental inaction, and the leaders of the winning party, if they are deserving men, take advantage of the public exhaustion to enervate themselves in power. But the people invariably wake up in the end and limit the aggressors from their lofty seats. To quote but one familiar instance: After the terrible civil conflict in England was followed by the triumph and restoration of the Stuarts, the English people submitted unannouncedly for twenty years to the profligate and exactions of their new masters. But, as soon as they had recovered their energies, they rose in an almost bloodless revolution, drove the Stuarts from the throne. We have signs now that the American people are beginning to show the interest of the machinations of the mountebank tricksters at Washington. The progress of the Democracy has been steadily, though quietly, onward for the past year; and some day, not far distant, Congress or the Administration will commit some overt act that will start the revolution that seems inevitable.—Oldie Crisis.

NOTICE.—To William M. Davidson, Doctor of Medicine, that the China ship Herman Doctor has arrived with seventeen (17) woman (families), from Wo Hong, Hongkong, to the order of W. K. & Co. There are due upon the fare and freight the sum of twenty-two ($22) dollars, profit on hand, and that all parties interested will come forward, who have ordered their families and pay all charges, or abide consequences. J. F. McVoy, Their Agent and Attorney.

The above appeared yesterday as an advertisement in the Oregonian. The woman mentioned in it are prostitutes and slaves. They come with bills of lading like freight, and will be used by their captors for the purposes of the opium traffic. The woman of this city are used. The slave trade is revived in Oregon, and human beings are advertised for sale, in the public prints. Radicals endorse it, and the working men of Portland who voted for Holladay's State and county tickets last Monday, endorsed it too. Those who took Holladay's money, will we opine, find out in a very short time that the insignificant sum they received for betraying their country, and the indignities and their country will not carry them through the dark days of Chinese competition. Good citizens should withhold sympathy from such men when their day of trouble comes. They will maintain the position and make them sorry that they betrayed the truth for pay.

The President's Last Postmaster.
The appointment by President Grant of Liberator and wifeless negro as Postmaster near the University of Virginia, is regarded as an inexcusable insult to the faculty and students of an educational institution whose origin and antecedents ought to have protected it from such a blow from such a hand.

This university was planned and inaugurated by Thomas Jefferson, and to it he devoted the closing years of an all-wise life. So proud was he of his work, so sanguine of the happy results which would flow from it, that he requested this inscription on his tombstone:—"Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence and founder of the University of Virginia." The office of rector was first held by Mr. Jefferson himself, and afterward by James Madison and other eminent men. In 1837, on the occasion of bearing the university's flag, from its establishment in 1825, occupied the foremost place among the colleges of the South. In 1840 no less than 625 students were in attendance, and the library consisted of 23,000 volumes, the whole being under the control of an able corps of professors. Since the war it has entered upon a prosperous career and promises at no distant day to rank with the very best of our country.

The President of the United States cannot be ignorant of these facts, and in selecting a negro of the most degraded type to be postmaster, neither the black nor the white people of Virginia will be benefited, but on the contrary the appointment intensifies the antagonism between the races which already exists, and sows seeds of mutual hatred sure to bring forth wretched fruit in coming years.

The Louisville Courier-Journal has an excellent editorial on love matters, from which we take the following paragraph:

In legitimate love the young people had better be slow about making matrimonial contracts, and quick to carry them out when made. Long engagements invite the intermeddlers time and absence, and are fruitful of mischief and heart-burning. Our amiable little friend, Miss In-Bonny, has just rejected an excellent young man who wants to marry her six months hence. "I have no objection to marrying him next week," said Miss In-Bonny, "but I should be dreadful stupid to do myself to the uncertainties and annoyances of a year." The girl has good sense as well as good under her bonnet; and she'll make some fellow an excellent wife by and by. There is not much danger of her doing with the husband of one of her friends, or flirting with other chaps" after she gets her own at all events.

REMEDY FOR LOCK-JAW.—A writer in the Schiff's American says: Let any one who has an attack of lock-jaw take a small quantity of spirits of turpentine, warm it and pour it into the wound—no matter what the wound is, or what its nature is, and relief will follow in less than one minute. Nothing better can be applied to a severe cut or bruise than cold turpentine; it will give relief almost instantly. Turpentine is also a sovereign remedy for cramp. Saturate a piece of flannel with it, and place the flannel on the throat and chest, and in very severe cases three or five drops on a lump of sugar may be taken inwardly. Every family should have a bottle of turpentine on hand.
