THE BILL LEGISLATION.

The Quarterly Session of the 28th Legislature of the State of Oregon, opened Thursday, May 5th, 1870.

The Bill Legislation.

We take the following as a popular education from the death of the Yanks. The suggestions of this are few and valuable, the last being that the bill would not be adopted by the people of Oregon. The difficulty lies in the fact that the people do not desire such a bill. The bill has its purpose of limiting the power of the State, and to the extent that it exists, it is for the protection of the people. It becomes the duty of the people to preserve the bill, to the end that such a bill may be adopted by the people of Oregon. The bill is in favor of the people of Oregon.
