Encouraged by the liberality of Congress towards the North Pacific Railroad, the telegraph in Dry Goods and Clothing, forms us that five bills for landgrant subsidies to canals in California, ten sections to the mile, have been reported favorably. If the United States proposes to retain any considerable portion of the magnificent domain of the people for homestead purposes, it would be advisable for Congres to stop further grants. At the rate in which our Senators and Representatives have succeeded in disposing of the broad acres of the Government, the remaining days of the session will suffice to complete the despoliation. We note also that Senator Thaver, of Nebraska, has reported a bill to give all the coal both ordained at the creation, but lands on the line of the Union Pacific Railroad to that Company, at the minimum Government price Farming Implements per acre.
