As a tonic, it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise; for while it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruction, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently necompany that period. It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea s'ckness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external opplication for Gout, Rheamatism, Neu-REDINGTON, HOSTETTER & CO.,
